Pasajes Spanish Art Today:

Pasajes, 1992 Vision Machines Paul Julian Smith, 1996-04-17 Over the last decade visibility and sexuality have become a major theme in Spanish and Cuban cinema literature and art Vision Machines explores this development in the light of contemporary history and recent theoretical accounts of sight by writers including Paul Virilio Gianni Vattimo and Teresa de Lauretis The very visible women of Almodóvar's cinema are Paul Julian Smith's first subject He shows how in his early Dark Habits lesbianizes the look putting women's pleasure at the centre of the frame and then examines Almodóvar's recent film Kika where the conflict between cinema and video is played out in the bodies of women good bad and ugly Moving the focus to Cuba Smith discussed the reception in Europe and North America of Nestor Almendro's remarkable documentary on gays in Cuba Improper Conduct and traces the trial of visibility to which effeminate men were exposed He compares Almendro's work with the autobiography of exile novelist Reinaldo Arenas which revels in graphic sex and also looks at the first Cuban film with a gay theme Gutierrez Alea's Strawberry and Chocolate Smith returns to Spain to consider the response of artists and intellectuals to the public invisibility of AIDS in a country with one of the highest rates of HIV transmission in the European Union Drawing on Anglo American debates on the representation of AIDS he concentrates on the one major intervention by Spanish scholars and artists Love and Rage and on the only figure in any medium to address AIDS in his aesthetic practice the conceptual artist and video maker Pepe Espaliu He concludes with a fascinating account of Julio Medem's pathbreaking film from 1993 The Red Squirrel which has opened up a new approach to two formerly taboo subjects Basque nationalism and female sexuality The Moderns Paul Julian Smith, 2000 This book offers a radically new account of the rich and varied culture of contemporary Spain It focuses on three intellectuals who chronicle contemporary life including journalist Francisco Umbral three filmmakers who engage with the many nationalisms of the Spanish state Victor Erice Bigas Luna and Julio Medem and three crucial topics that are expressed in many media the replaying of history the rise and fall of the city and the practice of everyday life Ranging from the ethnographic photography of Cristina Garcia Rodero to the high tech architecture of Santiago Calatrava and from the hyperrealist painting of Antonio Lopez to the neo flamenco dance of Joaquín Cortés this book is also the first to draw on theorists of the intellectual field the production of space and the arts of bricolage Pierre Bourdieu Henri Lefebvre and Michel de Certeau Refuting the charge that contemporary Spanish culture is trivial or superficial this book argues that it is fully engaged in the aesthetic and historical project of modernity Pasajes: Cultura Mary Lee Bretz, Trisha Dvorak, Carl Kirschner, 2006-01-19 The Pasajes series is one of the most widely used and highly respected programs for intermediate Spanish courses in North America As in previous editions the sixth edition of Pasajes consists of three volumes all coordinated by theme chapter by chapter a review of grammar Lengua a cultural reader Cultura and a literary reader Literatura The result is a very flexible program that can be used in any combination and thus is easily adapted to suit the needs of a wide variety of instructors and intermediate courses The new
