Pass The Polenta And Other Writings From The Kitchen:

Pass the Polenta Teresa Lust,1998-09-01      Pass the Polenta Teresa Lust,1998 In The Tradition of M F K Fisher and Laurie Colwin Teresa Lust writes about the preparation of food and the breaking of bread with the exuberance of an impassioned cook and the clarity of a graceful writer The author venerates old fashioned simplicity from stove top coffee in a rustic Italian cucina to antique varieties of apples in a New Hampshire orchard She skewers passing food trends Polenta is family food Mama feeds it to her baby when his teeth are coming in Papa feeds it to his mama when her teeth have fallen out And she offers a smorgasbord of food trivia The artichoke enjoyed a long reign as an aphrodisiac because of its alleged ability to heat the body Catherine de Medici could not contain her scandalous predilection for artichokes A professional chef and skilled culinary historian Lust has created a book that is part memoir part cookbook and part exploration into the origins of her favorite foods and dishes It is a celebration of home cooking and of people who know how to make meals more than just thrice daily opportunities to refuel Lusts chapters typically revolve around stories that include the preparation or consumption of a particular dish from chicken with figs and fresh thyme to spaghetti alla carbonara and Pass the Polenta contains an index of recipes that readers will come to treasure      Voices in the Kitchen Meredith E. Abarca,2006 Literally chilaquiles are a breakfast I grew up eating fried corn tortillas with tomato chile sauce Symbolically they are the culinary metaphor for how working class women speak with the seasoning of their food from the Introduction Through the ages and across cultures women have carved out a domain in which their cooking allowed them to express themselves strengthen family relationships and create a world of shared meanings with other women In Voices in the Kitchen Meredith E Abarca features the voices of her mother and several other family members and friends seated at their kitchen tables to share the grassroots world view of these working class Mexican and Mexican American women In the kitchen Abarca demonstrates women assert their own seasoning not only in their cooking but also in their lives Through a series of oral histories or charlas culinarias culinary chats the women interviewed address issues of space sensual knowledge artistic and narrative expression and cultural and social change From her mother s breakfast chilaquiles to the most elaborate traditional dinner these women share their lives as they share their savory symbolic and theoretical meanings of food The charlas culinarias represent spoken personal narratives testimonial autobiography and a form of culinary memoir one created by the cooks as writers who speak from their kitchen space Abarca then looks at writers as cooks to add an additional dimension to the understanding of women s power to define themselves Voices in the Kitchen joins the extensive culinary research of the last decade in exploring the importance of the knowledge found in the practical concrete and temporal aspects of the ordinary practice of everyday cooking      Matzoh Ball Gumbo (Volume 2 of 2) (EasyRead Edition) ,      Books That Cook Melissa A. Goldthwaite,Jennifer Cognard-Black,2014-08-01 Whether a five star chef or beginning home cook any gourmand knows that recipes are far more than a set of instructions on how to make a dish They are culture keepers as well as culture makers both recording memories and fostering new ones Organized like a cookbook Books That Cook The Making of a Literary Meal is a collection of American literature written on the theme of food from an invocation to a final toast from starters to desserts All food literatures are indebted to the form and purpose of cookbooks and each section begins with an excerpt from an influential American cookbook progressing chronologically from the late 1700s through the present day including such favorites as American Cookery the Joy of Cooking and Mastering the Art of French Cooking The literary works within each section are an extension of these cookbooks while the cookbook excerpts in turn become pieces of literature forms of storytelling and memory making all their own Each section offers a delectable assortment of poetry prose and essays and the selections all include at least one tempting recipe to entice readers to cook this book Including writing from such notables as Maya Angelou James Beard Alice B Toklas Sherman Alexie Nora Ephron M F K Fisher and Alice Waters among many others Books That Cook reveals the range of ways authors incorporate recipes whether the recipe flavors the story or the story serves to add spice to the recipe Books That Cook is a collection to serve students and teachers of food studies as well as any epicure who enjoys a good meal alongside a good book     Matzoh Ball Gumbo (Volume 3 of 3) (EasyRead Super Large 24pt Edition) ,     The Daily Reader Fred White,2009-10-13 Let Great Reading Fuel Your Writing Great writers read voraciously and across many topics and genres They read to learn to research to study the style of others and to improve their own work They read because they love the written word But becoming well read takes time dedication and patience The thought can be daunting especially when you're eager to get to your own writing Fred White author of The Daily Writer helps you sort through the plethora of reading material available by providing you with 366 engaging excerpts from ancient poetry to modern science on topics from allegory to food to writer's block Each thoughtfully chosen excerpt is followed by a brief reflection and a prompt that allows you to integrate elements from each piece into your own writing The Daily Reader makes broad reading accessible invigorates your thirst for the written word and equips you to put the power of the pros behind your writing     Toxic Feedback Joni B. Cole,2023-05-14 From veteran teacher and acclaimed author Joni B Cole comes a revised and expanded edition of her popular writing guide Toxic Feedback Successful writers know that feedback is often the difference between writing and not writing and between writing and writing well But feedback mismanaged is more likely to leave the writer confused intimidated or even deflated This book not only detoxifies the feedback process with humor but it also shows writers and feedback providers how to make the most of this powerful resource at every stage of the writing and publishing process This new edition includes a second preface four new chapters updates throughout the original material and several additional exercises Cole also includes new and previous interviews with authors such as Khaled Hosseini Juan Morales Grace Paley Jodi Picoult and Matthew Salesses Toxic Feedback remains essential reading for all writers critique groups MFA programs and teachers of writing at every level     Materialising Exile Sandra H. Dudley,2010 Focusing on the highly diverse Karenni refugee population living in camps on the Thai Burma border this innovative book explores materiality embodiment memory imagination and identity among refugees providing new and important ways of understanding how refugees make sense of experience self and other It examines how and to what ends refugees perceive represent manipulate use as metaphor and otherwise engage with material objects and spaces and includes a focus on the real and metaphorical journeys that bring about and perpetuate exile The combined emphasis on both displacement and materiality and the analysis of the cultural construction and intersections of exilic objects spaces and bodies are unique in the study of both refugees and material culture Drawing theoretical influences from phenomenology aesthetics and beyond as well as from refugee studies and anthropology the author addresses the current lack of theoretical analysis of the material visual spatial and embodied aspects of forced migration providing a fundamentally interlinked analysis of enforced exile and materiality

Abarca,2000 Matzoh Ball Gumbo Marcie Cohen Ferris,2012-01-01 From the colonial era to the present Marcie Cohen Ferris examines the expressive power of food throughout southern Jewish history She demonstrates with delight and detail how southern Jews reinvented culinary traditions as they adapted to the customs landscape and racial codes of the American South Richly illustrated this culinary tour of the historic Jewish South is an evocative mixture of history and foodways including more than thirty recipes to try at home Braille Book Review ,2000 Italian Americana ,2005 Book Review Index ,2003 Vols 8 10 of the 1965 1984 master cumulation constitute a title index

Remembrance of Repasts David E. Sutton,2001-01-09 Proust s famous madeleine captures the power of food to evoke some of our deepest memories Why does food hold such power What does the growing commodification and globalization of food mean for our capacity to store the past in our meals in the smell of olive oil or the taste of a fresh cut fig This book offers a theoretical account of the interrelationship of culture food and memory Sutton challenges and expands anthropology s current focus on issues of embodiment memory and material culture especially in relation to transnational migration and the flow of culture across borders and boundaries The Greek island of Kalymnos in the eastern Aegean where Islanders claim to remember meals long past both humble and spectacular provides the main setting for these issues as well as comparative materials drawn from England and the United States Despite the growing interest in anthropological accounts of food and in the cultural construction of memory the intersection of food with memory has not been accorded sustained examination Cultural practices of feasting and fasting global flows of food as both gifts and commodities the rise of processed food and the relationship of orally transmitted recipes to the vast market in speciality cookbooks tie traditional anthropological mainstays such as ritual exchange and death to more current concerns with structure and history cognition and the anthropology of the senses Arguing for the crucial role of a simultaneous consideration of food and memory this book significantly advances our understanding of cultural processes and reformulates current theoretical preoccupations
