Christian heresiologists exhibit awareness of the phenomenon even as they condemn it Although the Gospel of Truth is often set apart from mainstream Christianity in scholarship its ideas about the nature of authoritative writing engaged with Greco Roman culture and cohered with Jewish and Christian ideas about books in antiquity Valentinus views about the relationship between the oral and the written dovetailed with thinking on the nature of the sacred book that gradually became the trademark of Rabbinic Judaism Kreps contends Ultimately because the Gospel of Truth reflects a mind that was at the center of the discursive debates that formed Judaism and Christianity her book demonstrates the usefulness of so called heretical texts for discussions on the parting of the ways between the two traditions
