Passages Of Marriage Cassette:

Passages of Marriages Dr Frank B Minirth, PH.D., Brian Newman, 1994-03 This is a bestselling book on the developmental stages of a marriage and how to keep a strong marriage Words on Cassette, 2000 Cassette Books Library of Congress. National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped, 2007 Words of Passage Hilary Parsons Dick, 2018-05-01 Migration fundamentally shapes the processes of national belonging and socioeconomic mobility in Mexico even for people who never migrate or who return home permanently Discourse about migrants both at the governmental level and among ordinary Mexicans as they envision their own or others lives in El Norte generates generic images of migrants that range from hardworking family people to dangerous lawbreakers These imagined lives have real consequences however because they help to determine who can claim the resources that facilitate economic mobility which range from state sponsored development programs to income earned in the North Words of Passage is the first full length ethnography that examines the impact of migration from the perspective of people whose lives are affected by migration but who do not themselves migrate Hilary Parsons Dick situates her study in the small industrial city of Uriangato in the state of Guanajuato She analyzes the discourse that circulates in the community from state level pronouncements about what makes a proper Mexican to working class people's talk about migration Dick shows how this migration discourse reflects upon and orders social worlds long before and even without actual movements beyond Mexico As she listens to men and women trying to position themselves within the migration discourse and claim their rights as proper Mexicans she demonstrates that migration is not the result of the failure of the Mexican state but rather an essential part of nation state building

Northern Passage Robert Jarvenpa, 1998-02-23 What is it like living among and learning about the cultural realities of other people for the first time Northern Passage uses the motif of apprenticeship to reveal the humbling childlike quest of the novice ethnographer on the one hand and the trials of an active participant learning the intricacies of bush life and livelihood from subarctic Indian hunting partners and teachers on the other hand In the process Jarvenpas reflexive narrative presents a compelling vision of northern Dene or Athapaskan society The Han people of the Yukon Territory and eastern Alaska and the Chipewyan of northern Saskatchewan emerge as vividly drawn actors in a cultural landscape distinctly influenced by gold miners fur traders missionaries conservation officers and other post colonial agents This candid but sensitive treatment deals with issues such as trapping economies knowledge of the environment dreaming and hunting power permission and informed consent language learning accusations of spying alcohol use economic development partnerships note taking and the pros and cons of active participation Jarvenpas early field experiences unfold as a primer on false leads setbacks and revealing discoveries building to a suspenseful aftershock California. They also sing of a god Mahadeva Shiva who must abandon his world renouncing life and marry thus establishing the very caste that tells his story This is the first detailed ethnomusicological study of the music of this caste examining how the existential questions of the sung stories of the conflict between loyalty to families or communities and the transcending desire to renounce the material world are articulated in musical performances in which the caste's own ethnography is inscribed Discussing the relationship between the performed repertoire and the caste's identity the contexts of performance and ways in which familiar stories are effectively retold the book offers a transcription translation and musical and ethnographic analysis of one performance by Kishori Nath and shows how the questions the performances project are not merely speculative acts of self identification but also challenges to audiences to consider their own responses The Routledge Encyclopedia of Mark Twain J.R. prominent Muslim intellectuals have themselves attempted to bridge the gap by recasting traditional Islamic notions in the light of contemporary understandings of equality justice and pluralism The contributors to the book examine the tradition that they seek to reform in relation to the human rights ethic of the modern world The new wave of Islamic thinking which they represent emerges as multi stranded rather than defined by a single trend or doctrine Themes covered include a deconstruction of patriarchal interpretations of the Qur'an the distinctions between universal and context specific parts of Islamic texts a re contextualisation of Shari'a law and a critique of religious jurisprudence particularly where this impacts on matters of sex and gender Old texts are re interpreted through the lived situations of real people today The result is an indispensable portrayal of progressive Islamic thought in the twenty first century which will be an invaluable resource for students and scholars of religion ethics and Middle East studies Global Subjects Jean-François Bayart, 2007 Globalization is part of the fabric of our everyday lives And yet we often view it as a threat to our identities or even our very survival This study offers a radically new vision of this phenomenon one which goes completely against the way it is interpreted by neo liberals or the anti globalization movement The Complete Penguin Stereo Record and Cassette Guide Edward Greenfield, Robert Layton, Ivan March, 1984 This book finds this familiar group of highly respected critics having compiled a very useful survey of classical music on compact discs and cassettes The authors discuss the artistic merits and sound quality of each recording in evaluations that are extremely perceptive and educational Audiophiles will be happy to know that the authors indicate whether or not the recording has been recorded digitally or remastered from an analog original Those on a budget will appreciate the inclusion of bargain priced editions And music lovers in general attempting to navigate the maze of CDs currently available will find this work indispensable Potsdam, NY Potsdam Public Museum (Potsdam, N.Y.), 2004 Red sandstone lumber paper cows and college students feature prominently in Potsdam With its selection of two hundred stunning photographs the book records aspects of life in Potsdam from the mid 1800s to the mid 1900s Located on the Racquette River between the St Lawrence River and the Adirondack Mountains the town is one often that were created in 1787 to promote settlement of New York State Education has played an important role in Potsdam since 1816 when St Lawrence Academy opened The success of the academy led to the establishment in 1866 of a normal school the forerunner of Potsdam College with its renowned Crane School of Music Media Catalog Piedmont Virginia Community College. Library, 1981 Subjectivity and Truth Michel Foucault, 2017-07-22 The working hypothesis is this it is true that sexuality as experience is obviously not independent of codes and systems of prohibitions but it needs to be recalled straightaway that these codes are astonishingly stable continuous and slow to change It needs to be recalled also that the way in which they are observed or transgressed also seems to be very stable and very repetitive On the other hand the point of historical mobility what no doubt change most often what are most fragile are modalities of experience Michel Foucault In 1981 Foucault delivered a course of lectures which marked a decisive reorientation in his thought and of the project of a History of

Sexuality outlined in 1976 It was in these lectures that arts of living became the focal point around which he developed a new way of thinking about subjectivity It was also the moment when Foucault problematized a conception of ethics understood as the patient elaboration of a relationship of self to self It was the study of the sexual experience of the Ancients that made these new conceptual developments possible Within this framework Foucault examined medical writings tracts on marriage the philosophy of love or the prognostic value of erotic dreams for evidence of a structuration of the subject in his relationship to pleasures aphrodisia which is prior to the modern construction of a science of sexuality as well as to the Christian fearful obsession with the flesh What was actually at stake was establishing that the imposition of a scrupulous and interminable hermeneutics of desire was the invention of Christianity But to do this it was necessary to establish the irreducible specificity of ancient techniques of self In these lectures which clearly foreshadow The Use of Pleasures and The Care of Self Foucault examines the Greek subordination of gender differences to the primacy of an opposition between active and passive as well as the development by Imperial stoicism of a model of the conjugal bond which advocates unwavering fidelity and shared feelings and which leads to the disqualification of homosexuality
