Describes the events leading up to the Mau Mau revolt in Kenya in the 1950s looks at the roles of nine women in the nationalist movement and examines the position of women in modern Kenya The Missionary Movement in Colonial Kenya James Karanja,2009 The People's Right to the Novel Eleni Coundouriotis,2014-09-15 This study offers a literary history of the war novel in Africa Coundouriotis argues that this genre aimed more specifically at African readers than the continent's better known bildungsroman tradition nevertheless makes an important intervention in global understandings of human rights The African war novel lies at the convergence of two sensibilities it encounters in European traditions the naturalist aesthetic and the discourse of humanitarianism whether in the form of sentimentalism or of human rights law Both these sensibilities are present in culturally hybrid forms in the African war novel reflecting its syncretism as a narrative practice engaged with the colonial and postcolonial history of the continent The war novel Coundouriotis argues stakes claims to collective rights that contrast with the individualism of the bildungsroman tradition The genre is a form of people's history that participates in a political struggle for the rights of the dispossessed International Women Stage Directors Anne Fliotsos,Wendy Vierow,2013-10-15 A fascinating study of women in the arts International Women Stage Directors is a comprehensive examination of women directors in twenty four diverse countries Organized by country chapters provide historical context and emphasize how social political religious and economic factors have impacted women's rise in the theatre particularly in terms of gender equity Contributors tell the stories of their home country's pioneering women directors and profile the most influential women directors practicing today examining their career paths artistry and major achievements Contributors are Ileana Azor Dalia Basiouny Kate Bredeson Mirenka Cechov Mari Heleen Coetzee May Farnsworth Anne Fliotsos Laura Ginters Iris Hsin chun Tuan Maria Ignatieva Adam J Ledger Roberta Levitow Jiangyue Li Lliane Loots Diana Manole Karin Maresh Gordon McCall Erin B Mee Ursula Neuerburg Denzer Claire Pamment Magda Romanska Avra Sidiropoulou Margaretta Swigert Gacheru Alessandra Vannucci Wendy Vierow Vessela S Warner and Brenda Werth Women and Work Angela Coyle,Jane Skinner,1988-10-27 A study of women's experiences in seven different employment sectors While highlighting the persistence of male domination and providing a platform for women's experiences it proposes detailed strategies to build on formal commitments to equality and giving women real power Women's Spiritual Leadership in Africa Faith Wambura Ngunjiri,2010-02-23 Women's Spiritual Leadership in Africa offers portraits of sixteen African women in leadership positions in grassroots national Pan African and global organizations and explores how they choose to rock the boat without falling out by transforming their communities and organizations from within In her analysis of the women leaders experiences Faith Ngunjiri demonstrates how these African women navigate cultural and organizational challenges including the intersecting oppressions of gender ethnicity class and marital status in order to act

boldly against social and economic injustices Ngunjiri characterizes the women as critical servant leaders because of their approach to leadership where they lead through service while deconstructing patriarchal social and institutional practices and providing positive alternatives The women's tempered radicalism and servant leadership is deeply informed by African and Christian spirituality which animates and informs their lives and leadership experiences Collectively the women's stories present an important and inspiring vision of contemporary women's leadership in African contexts

Women and the Remaking of Politics in Southern Africa Gisela G. Geisler, 2004 This study looks at women's struggle in Southern Africa where the last ten years have seen the most pervasive success stories on the African continent Tracing the history of women's involvement in anti colonial struggles and against apartheid the book analyses post colonial outcomes and examines the strategies employed by women's movements to gain a foothold in politics

Voices from Mutira Jean Davison, 1996 Documenting the changes occurring since the 1984 study this edition provides a collection of life histories from the women of Mutira Two new introductory chapters frame the life histories within the context both of significant macro level transitions in Kenya and current thinking on gender

Rising Anthills Elisabeth Bekers, 2010-08-05 Female genital excision or the ritual of cutting the external genitals of girls and women is undoubtedly one of the most heavily and widely debated cultural traditions of our time By looking at how writers of African descent have presented the practice in their literary work Elisabeth Bekers shows how the debate on female genital excision evolved over the last four decades of the twentieth century in response to changing attitudes about ethnicity nationalism colonialism feminism and human rights Rising Anthills the title refers to a Dogon myth analyzes works in English French and Arabic by African and African American writers both women and men from different parts of the African continent and the diaspora Attending closely to the nuances of language and the complexities of the issue Bekers explores lesser known writers side by side with such recognizable names as Ngugi wa Thiong'o Flora Nwapa Nawal El Saadawi Ahmadou Kourouma Calixthe Beyala Alice Walker and Gloria Naylor Following their literary discussions of female genital excision she discerns a gradual evolution from the 1960s when writers mindful of its communal significance carefully wrote around the physical operation through the 1970s and 1980s when they began to speak out against the practice and their societies gender politics to the late 1990s when they situated their denunciations of female genital excision in a much broader international context of women's oppression and the struggle for women's rights

Images of Women in Peace and War Sharon Macdonald, Pat Holden, Shirley Ardener, 1988 As warriors freedom fighters and victims as mothers wives and prostitutes and as creators and members of peace movements women are inevitably caught up in the net of war Yet women's participation in warfare and peace campaigns has often been underestimated or ignored Images of Women in Peace and War explores women's relationships to war peace and revolution from the Amazons Inka and Boadicea to women soldiers in South Africa Mau Mau freedom fighters and the protestors at Greenham Common The contributors consider not only the reality of women

s participation but also look at how their actions have been perceived and represented across cultures and through history They examine how sexual imagery is constructed how it is used to delineate women s relation to warfare and how these images have sometimes been subverted in order to challenge the status quo The book raises important questions about whether women have a special prerogative to promote peace and considers whether the experience of motherhood leads to a distinctive women s position on war The authors find that their analyses lead them to deal with arguments on the basic nature of the sexes and to reevaluate our concepts of peace war and gender

Kenya After 50 Mickie Mwanzia Koster, Michael Mwenda Kithinji, Jerono P. Rotich, 2016-04-08 This book explores the key milestones in education gender and policy that Kenya has achieved since independence the challenges of this experience and the future prospects This edited collection of chapters also aims to illuminate the lessons learned from the experiences of the postcolonial period as well as postulate on the way forward Through this exploration of the Kenyan experience since independence the authors present an optimistic view that despite the many obstacles and challenges the country still has promising prospects as a nation

Child Sexual Abuse Emily Driver, Audrey Droisen, 1989-07-01 This feminist analysis brings together expert contributions on the subject of child sexual abuse The book examines current theoretical perspectives and institutions including the law psychiatry and education The authors question the dominant ideology which presents sexual abuse as a product of family dysfunction and instead suggest an analysis in terms of male violence

The Family in Question Diana Gittins, 2017-03-01 After a decade of Thatcherism rising illegitimacy and the moral panic over child sexual abuse the family is more of a political issue than ever But is it the family that is in crisis or family ideology In this revised edition of an important and controversial book Diana Gittins adds to a broad range of historical anthropological and feminist evidence a new chapter on child sexual abuse
