Passenger to Teheran Victoria West (Hon., Sackville-),1927 Passenger to Teheran Victoria Mary Sackville,1927 Passenger to Teheran. [An account of a journey through Persia. With plates.] Victoria Mary Nicolson (Hon., formerly Women, Travel, and Writing in the Interwar Era Ann Catherine Hoaq, 2024-07-31 Women Travel and West.),1926 Writing in the Interwar Era engages feminist temporal and narrative theories to offer fresh examinations of interwar era accounts by women about travel and movement and considers the use and limitations of time as a subversive force in their texts This book makes a significant contribution to the under examined study of women s travel writing between the wars and synthesises and applies a variety of feminist narrative and postcolonial theories to excavate new understandings of the intersection between women travel and time in writing The book studies the emergence of the aviatrix after the Great War and moves through to the representations of war in women's travel on the brink of World War II Each chapter offers a unique theoretical framework and examines how experiences of time impact perceptions of women s bodies and identities their engagement with history and discourse and the problematic influence on colonialism Women Travel and Writing in the Interwar Era is essential reading to any student or researcher in the field of women s travel writing as well as scholars of gender studies war and interwar history and cultural heritage Virginia Woolf Eileen Barrett, Patricia Cramer, 1997-07 The last two decades have seen a resurgence of critical and popular attention to Virginia Woolf's life and work Such traditional institutions as The New York Review of Books now pair her with William Shakespeare in promotional advertisements her face is used to sell everything from Barnes Noble books to Bass Ale Virginia Woolf Lesbian Readings represents the first book devoted to Woolf's lesbianism Divided into two sections Lesbian Intersections and Lesbian Readings of Woolf's Novels these essays focus on how Woolf's private and public experience and knowledge of same sex love influences her shorter fiction and novels Lesbian Intersections includes personal narratives that trace the experience of reading Woolf through the 60s 70s 80s and 90s Lesbian Readings of Woolf's Novels provides lesbian interpretations of the individual novels including Orlando The Waves and The Years Breaking new ground in our understanding of the role Woolf's love for women plays in her major writing these essays shift the emphasis of lesbian interpretations from Woolf's life to her work Travel Writing Barbara Schaff,2020-09-07 This handbook offers a systematic exploration of current key topics in travel writing studies It addresses the history impact and unique discursive variety of British travel writing by covering some of the most celebrated and canonical authors of the genre as well as lesser known ones in more than thirty close reading chapters Combining theoretically informed astute literary criticism of single texts with the analysis of the circumstances of their production and reception these chapters offer excellent possibilities for understanding the complexity and cultural relevance of British travel writing Vita Sackville-West: Selected Writings Victoria Sackville-West, 2003-11-08 Aristocrat novelist essayist traveler and lover of Virginia Woolf Vita Sackville West lived a fascinating and daring life on the periphery of the Bloomsbury circle She wrote in an astounding variety of genres including travel narrative historical and literary studies poetry fiction and essays and is probably best known or her novels The Edwardians and All Passion Spent and incomparable writings about English country houses and gardens Here for the first time is an anthology that represents the full expanse of her interests and styles Over half of the works including intimate diaries and a dream notebook have never been published Edited by a foremost expert on the Bloomsbury circle Vita Sackville West Selected Writings provides the best and most accessible introduction to this unique writer Excursions into Modernism Joyce Kelley, 2017-05-15 Positioned at a crossroads between feminist geographies and modernist studies Excursions into Modernism considers transnational modernist fiction in tandem with more rarely explored travel narratives by women of the period who felt increasingly free to journey abroad and redefine themselves through travel In an era when Western artists writers and musicians sought primitive ideas for artistic renewal Joyce E Kelley locates a key similarity between fiction and travel writing in the way women authors use foreign experiences to inspire innovations with written expression and self articulation She focuses on the pairing of outward journeys with more inward introspective ones made possible through reconceptualizing and mobilizing elements of women s traditional corporeal and domestic geographies the skin the ill body the womb and the piano In texts ranging from Jean Rhys s Voyage in the Dark to Virginia Woolf s The Voyage Out and from Evelyn Scott s Escapade to Dorothy Richardson's Pilgrimage Kelley explores how interactions between geographic movement identity formation and imaginative excursions produce modernist experimentation Drawing on fascinating supplementary and archival materials such as letters diaries newspaper articles photographs and unpublished drafts Kelley's book cuts across national and geographic borders to offer rich and often revisionary interpretations of both canonical and lesser known works Woolf's Portraits of Russian Writers Darya Protopopova, 2019-02-05 Virginia Woolf always stayed ahead of her time Championing gender equality when women could not vote publishing authors from Pakistan France Austria and other parts of the world while nationalism in Britain was on the rise and befriending outcasts and social pariahs As such what could have possibly interested her in the works of nineteenth century Russian writers austere and at times misogynistic thinkers preoccupied with peasants priests and paroxysms of the soul This study explains the chronological and cultural paradox of how classic Russian fiction became crucial to Woolf's vision of British modernism We follow Woolf as she begins to learn Russian invents a character for a story by Dostoevsky ponders over Sophia Tolstoy's suicide note and proclaims Chekhov a truly modern writer The book also examines British modernists fascination with Russian art looking at parallels between Roger Fry s articles on Russian Post Impressionists and Woolf s essays on Chekhov Dostoevsky Tolstoy and Turgenev The Shah Abbas Milani, 2011-01-04 The definitive biography of the last Shah of Iran tracing his dramatic rise and fall and his role in the creation of the contemporary Islamic Republic Though his monarchy was toppled in 1979 and he died in 1980 the life of Mohammad Reza Shah Pahlevi the last Shah of Iran continues to resonate today Here internationally respected author Abbas Milani gives us the definitive biography more than ten years in the making of the monarch who shaped Iran s modern age and with it the contemporary politics of the Middle East The Shah s was a life filled with contradiction as a social reformer he built schools increased equality for women and greatly reduced the power of the Shia clergy He made Iran a global power courting Western leaders from Churchill to Carter and nationalized his country's many natural resources But he was deeply conflicted and insecure in his powerful role Intolerant of political dissent he was eventually overthrown by the very people whose loyalty he so desperately sought This comprehensive and gripping account shows us how Iran went from politically moderate monarchy to totalitarian Islamic republic Milani reveals the complex and sweeping road that would bring the U S and Iran to where they are today Travel and Modernist Literature Alexandra Peat, 2012-03-28 Through close readings of works from Henry James to W E B Du Bois and from Virginia Woolf to Jean Rhys this book discusses how fictional travelers negotiate and adapt various tropes of travel such as quest expatriation displacement and exile as models for their own journeys Specifically Peat considers the ethical dimensions of modernist travel from two distinct vantages The first focuses on the relationship between the secular and the sacred in modernist travel literature arguing that the recurrent narrative of secular travel is haunted by a desire for spiritual transcendence The second posits modernist travel fiction as a potentially positive example of transcultural relations consciously arguing against the received notion that travel during an imperial era is always by nature itself imperialist Throughout particular attention is paid to the transnational nature of modernism and the various global flows traced by modernist literature Leonard and Virginia Woolf, The Hogarth Press and the Networks of Modernism Helen Southworth, 2012-05-08 This multi authored volume focuses on Leonard and Virginia Woolf's Hogarth Press 1917 1941 Scholars from the UK and the US use previously unpublished archival materials and new methodological frameworks to explore the relationships forged by the Woolfs Women, Travel Writing, and Truth Clare Broome Saunders, 2014-07-17 The issue of truth has been one of the most constant complex and contentious in the cultural history of travel writing Whether the travel was undertaken in the name of exploration pilgrimage science inspiration self discovery or a combination of these elements questions of veracity and authenticity inevitably arise Women Travel and Truth is a collection of twelve essays that explore the manifold ways in which travel and truth interact in women s travel writing Essays range in date from Lady Mary Wortley Montagu in the eighteenth century to Jamaica Kincaid in the twenty first across such regions as India Italy Norway Siberia Austria the Orient the Caribbean China and Mexico Topics explored include blurred distinctions of fiction and non fiction travel writing and politics subjectivity displacement and exile Students and academics with interests in literary studies history geography history of art and modern languages will find this book an important reference Behind the Mask Matthew Dennison, 2015-06-09 A dazzling new biography of Vita Sackville West the 20th century aristocrat literary celebrity devoted wife famous lover of Virginia Woolf recluse and iconoclast who defied categorization In this stunning new biography of Vita Sackville West Matthew Dennison's Behind the Mask traces the triumph and contradictions of Vita's extraordinary life His narrative charts a fascinating course from Vita's lonely childhood at Knole through her affectionate but open marriage to Harold Nicolson during which both husband and wife energetically pursued homosexual affairs Vita most famously with Virginia Woolf and through Vita's literary successes and disappointments to the famous gardens the couple created at Sissinghurst The book tells how from her privileged world of the aristocracy Sackville West brought her penchant for costume play acting and rebellion to the artistic vanguard of modern Britain Dennison is the acclaimed author of many books including a biography of Queen Victoria Here in the first biography to be written of Vita for thirty years he reveals the whole story and gets behind the beautiful mask of Vita s public achievements to reveal an often troubled persona which heroically resisted compromise on every level Drawing on wideranging sources and the extensive letters that sustained her marriage this is a compelling story of love loss and jealousy of high life and low points of binding affection and illicit passion a portrait of an extraordinary 20th century life Herald and Presbyter ,1909 Woolf Studies Annual ,2003
