Passing on the Faith Merton P. Strommen, Dick Hardel, 2008 From the Introduction This book is about passing on the faith from generation to generation throughout the milestones of a person's life Faith is created and nurtured by the Holy Spirit through the Gospels The vision underlying the RADICAL model was developed in light of the theological principle that faith is formed by the Holy Spirit through personal trusted relationships often but not always in our own homes A youth and family ministry for the 21st century connects all the generations in the total ministry of the congregation and through the cross of Christ recognizes the work of the Holy Spirit shaping faith in all the circles of relationships This revised edition expands on the authors original model in an all new chapter on the circle of creation This edition has also been updated throughout in light of new ideas and research that have emerged during the past decade Passing on the Faith James L. Heft, 2009-08-25 From the beginning the Abrahamic faiths Judaism Christianity and Islam have stressed the importance of transmitting religious identity from one generation to the next Today that sustaining mission has never been more challenged Will young people have a faith to guide them How can faith traditions anchor religious attachments in this secular skeptical culture The fruit of a historic gathering of scholars and religious leaders across three faiths and many disciplines this important book reports on the religious lives of young people in today's world It's also a unique inventory of creative and thoughtful responses from churches synagogues and mosques working to keep religion a significant force in those lives The essays are grouped thematically Opening the book Melchor Sanchez de Toca and Nancy Ammerman explore fundamental issues that have an impact on religion from the cultural effects of global consumerism and personal technology to pluralism and individualism In Part Two leading investigators present three leading studies of religiosity among young people and college students in the United States illuminating the gap between personal values and organized religion and the emergence of new different forms of spirituality and faith How religious institutions deal with these challenges forms the heart of the book in portraits of best practices developed to revitalize traditional institutions from a synagogue in New York City and a Muslim youth camp in California to the famed French Catholic community of the late Brother John of Taiz Finally Jack Miles and Diane Winston weave the findings into a broader perspective of the future of religious belief practice and feeling in a changing world Filled with real world wisdom Passing the Faith will be an essential resource for anyone seeking to understand what religions must and can do to inspire a vigorous faith in the next generation Handing Down the Faith Christian Smith, Amy Adamczyk, 2021 This book is about how American religious parents approach the handing on of their religious practices and beliefs to their children We know a lot about the importance of parents in faith transmission and factors that influence its effectiveness But we know much less about the actual beliefs feelings and activities of the parents themselves when it comes to the intergenerational transmission of religious faith and practice Passing Down the Faith Shirley Mitten, 2004-03 This book is an autobiography that deals with passing down the faith from one generation to the next

Toward a New, Praxis-Oriented Missiology Rosalia Meza,2020-06-17 The new and different frontiers and factors discussed in missiology are reshaping the meaning of mission Christian mission today is searching for new directions to approach the postmodern postcolonial and ecumenical paradigms This book argues that mission is the process of embodying the content and praxis of the gospel not the transmission of knowledge that keeps an established structure and culture alive often justified by a specific ecclesiological model Thus mission initiates a transformative process of faith which leads to personal and social transformation This work brings into dialogue Stephen Bevans s notion of mission as prophetic dialogue and Paulo Freire s concept of conscientiza o The aim is not to discover a method to do mission but to rescue the process that leads to transformation allowing one to encounter the other where they are while respecting the uniqueness of every person culture church and society Prophetic dialogue enriched by conscientiza o and vice versa can open new perspectives within missiology and provide a new approach to mission praxis This approach is then analyzed through the experiential and transformative elements of the Verbum Dei charism applied in ministry demonstrating the effectiveness of prophetic dialogue and conscientiza o in the Verbum Dei Missionary Fraternity mission praxis Women of UnShakable Faith: 31-Day
