pin Not a history of French cuisine Accounting for Taste focuses on the people places and institutions that have made this cuisine what it is today a privileged vehicle for national identity a model of cultural ascendancy and a pivotal site where practice and performance intersect With sources as various as the novels of Balzac and Proust interviews with contemporary chefs such as David Bouley and Charlie Trotter and the film Babette s Feast Ferguson maps the cultural field that structures culinary affairs in France and then exports its crucial ingredients What s more well beyond food the intricate connections between cuisine and country between local practice and national identity illuminate the concept of culture itself To Brillat Savarin s famous dictum Animals fill themselves people eat intelligent people alone know how to eat Priscilla Ferguson adds and Accounting for Taste shows how the truly intelligent also know why they eat the way they do Parkhurst Ferguson has her nose in the right place and an infectious lust for her subject that makes this trawl through the history and cultural significance of French food from French Revolution to Babette s Feast via Balzac s suppers and Proust s madeleines a satisfying meal of varied courses Ian Kelly Times UK

Durrell and the City Donald P. Kaczvinsky,2012 Durrell and the City commemorates the fiftieth anniversary of the publication of The Alexandria Quartet with a collection of fourteen new essays by a group of international scholars and critics The collection provides a critical consideration of Durrell s urban landscapes from the London of his early novels to Avignon during World War II in his last great series while focusing on the place that made him famous the city of Alexandria in order to provide a reassessment of his career and achievement The Unprejudiced Palate Angelo M. Pellegrini,2005-08-09 First issued in 1948 when soulless minute steaks and quick casseroles were becoming the norm The Unprejudiced Palate inspired a seismic culinary shift in how America eats Written by a food loving immigrant from Tuscany this memoir cum cookbook articulates the Italian American vision of the good life a backyard garden a well cooked meal shared with family and friends and a passion for ingredients and cooking that nourish the body and the soul

You are What You Eat Annette M. Matt Kramer on Wine Matt Kramer,2010-09-07 Oenophiles know Matt Kramer is one of the worlds most distinguished and insightful writers on wine Author of the classic book Making Sense of Wine Kramer has written about the subject for 32 years and his full page column in Wine Spectator has appeared in every issue for the last 14 years The time is ripe for a retrospective and here it is covering topics from terroir to glassware to the various grapes and regions and personalities Most of the essays are drawn from his work in Wine Spectator and The New York Sun along with excerpts from his books The material remains fresh vibrant and compulsively readable

The Routledge Handbook of the History of Paris since 1789 Kory Olson, Amanda Shoaf Vincent, Erin-Marie Legacey, 2025-05-29 This handbook assembles a vibrant collection of original scholarship highlighting new and exciting research themes on Paris in the Modern Era It provides an innovative selection and use of primary sources broadens the notion of archive and includes diverse voices and multiple perspectives The contributors representing a range of academic disciplines in the humanities and social sciences connect specific topics to larger historical questions and extend consideration of Paris beyond the city's historical limit to the outskirts of the metropolis in the Île de France region The first section includes overview chapters tracing structural evolutions and broad movements as understood through recent historiography The second section presents essays that take a narrower focus on case studies and key moments of reflection and debate change and commemoration through specific sites social phenomena cultural objects movements and representations of Paris in the arts The authors explore how Paris has been imagined constructed and mythologized from the outside by tourists immigrants and those separate from the circles of power as well as from within by political administrative and cultural institutions Geared towards advanced undergraduates graduate students and postgraduate researchers this handbook contributes to readers understanding of France's place in the world and French society culture and policy by telling the story of modern Paris in all its complexity

Cuisine and Empire Rachel Laudan, 2013-11-21 Rachel Laudan tells the remarkable story of the rise and fall of the world's great cuisines from the mastery of grain cooking some twenty thousand years ago to the present in this superbly researched book Probing beneath the apparent confusion of dozens of cuisines to reveal the underlying simplicity of the culinary family tree she shows how periodic seismic shifts in culinary philosophy beliefs about health the economy politics society and the gods prompted the construction of new cuisines a handful of which chosen as the cuisines of empires came to dominate the globe Cuisine and Empire shows how merchants missionaries and the military took cuisines over mountains oceans deserts and across political frontiers Laudan's innovative narrative treats cuisine like language clothing or architecture as something constructed by humans By emphasizing how cooking turns farm products into food and by taking the globe rather than the nation as the stage she challenges the agrarian romantic and nationalistic myths that underlie the contemporary food movement

Authenticity in the Kitchen Richard Hosking, 2006 The Oxford Symposium on Food and Cookery is a premier English conference on this topic The subjects range from the food of medieval English and Spanish Jews wild boar in Europe the identity of liquamen and other Roman sauces the production of vinegar in the Philippines the nature of Indian restaurant food and food in 19th century Amsterdam

A Gastronomic Vade Mecum John Warwick Montgomery, 2019-11-01 Vade mecums are guide books you carry with you They have been around forever and are common in Europe for all sorts of things The Latin term literally means go with me Here Dr Montgomery invites you to go with him as he explores the literature of food and develops a theology of gastronomy Along with being a theologian and philosopher an attorney a barrister a French advocate a teacher a husband and many other things Dr Montgomery is a lover of fine dining and formally embraces its craft with care In the age of the microwave where food is either fast or frozen and almost always pre prepared he wants to introduce us to the glories of fine dining where we can take joy in all our Father has provided to us beyond the simple requirements of sustenance With Dr Montgomery as your guide you will meet great chefs and travel across time and space with food as the focus enjoying the views flavors and smells and recipes Everything Dr Montgomery explores takes place in light of faith in a God who is now one of us who made all the senses loves variety knows hospitality and will culminate all of history in the best of wedding feasts to which every good meal points and of which every great meal participates

Modernism and Food Studies Jessica Martell, Adam Fajardo, Philip Keel Geheber, 2019-01-09 As the first book length study to bring the fields of modernism and food studies together Modernism and Food Studies anchors the burgeoning field of modernist food studies This volume collects theoretically and methodologically diverse essays that investigate modernist representations of food broadly treated in phases from production to distribution and consumption By exploring the profound relationship between modernist aesthetics and the new food cultures of modernity Modernism and Food Studies uncovers new links between seemingly disparate spaces cultures and artistic media in a globalizing world
