Edward Wagenknecht,2014-10-27 Upon its original publication in 1962 Edward

Wagenknecht's The Movies in the Age of Innocence immediately earned recognition as a classic in the history of early cinema. A tribute to American silent film from the first person perspective of one who grew up with the medium, the volume surveys the pre-feature and feature era of silent films from a distinctly literary standpoint and considers the careers of directors like D. W. Griffith and Erich von Stroheim and actors such as Charlie Chaplin, Mary Pickford, and Lillian Gish. With nearly 90 illustrations from early films, fan magazines, and brochures, indices of film titles and names, and an appendix containing Wagenknecht's otherwise unavailable 1927 pamphlet Lillian Gish: An Interpretation, this third edition retains its significance today.

Southey's Common-place Book: Special collections Robert Southey, 1850 The Powhatan Indians of Virginia Helen C. Rountree, 2013-07-17

Among the aspects of Powhatan life that Helen Rountree describes in vivid detail are hunting and agriculture, territorial claims, warfare, and treatment of prisoners; physical appearance and dress; construction of houses and towns; education of youths; initiation rites; family and social structure; and customs, the nature of rulers, medicine, religion, and even village games, music, and dance. Rountree's is the first book-length treatment of this fascinating culture, which included one of the most complex political organizations in native North America and which figured prominently in early American history.
