Thwaites, Etc George William MacArthur Reynolds, 1863 The She-Wolf and Other Stories, 2023-11-15 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1973 The celibates and other stories Honoré de Balzac, 1898 Passions for Nature Rochelle Johnson, 2009 Nineteenth century Americans celebrated nature through many artistic forms including natural history writing landscape painting landscape design theory and transcendental philosophy Although we tend to associate these movements with the nation's dawning environmental consciousness Passions for Nature demonstrates that they instead alienated Americans from the physical environment even as they seemed to draw people to it Rather than see these expressions of passion for nature as initiating environmental awareness this study reveals how they contributed to a culture that remains startlingly ignorant of the details of the material world Using as a touchstone the writings of nineteenth century philanthropist Susan Fenimore Cooper the daughter of famed author James Fenimore Cooper Passions for Nature reveals that while a generalized passion for nature was intense and widespread in her era cultural attention to the real physical world was quite limited Popular artistic forms represented the natural world through specific metaphors for the American experience cultivating a national tradition of valuing nature in terms of humanity Johnson crosses disciplinary boundaries to demonstrate that anthropocentric understandings of the natural world result not only from the growing gulf between science and imagination that C P Snow located in the early twentieth century but also and surprisingly from cultural productions traditionally viewed as positive engagements with the environment By uncovering the roots of a cultural alienation from nature Passions for Nature explains how the United States came to be a nation that simultaneously reveres the natural world and yet remains dangerously distant from it The celibates, Bachelor's establishment, and other stories Honoré de Balzac,1899 The Common Reader; And Other Stories Virginia Woolf,2025-08-16 Reproduction of the original The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage The member for Arcis, The seamy side of history, and other stories Honoré de Balzac,1901 Passions Isaac Bashevis Singer,2003-05-16 These are wonderful Yiddish stories with vivid characterizations lush imagery and plots rich with emotion and imagination My favorite is Passions a meditation on how man becomes obsessed with something to the extent of transforming one's life anything can become a passion David Oberlander at Amazon.com Virtuous Passions G. Simon Harak,2001-12-10 The Formation of Christian Character G Simon Harak S J Suggests that morality is best approached from a discussion of human passions what moves us draws us engages our fascination and interest My Three Mothers and Other Passions Sophie Freud,1991-04 Sophie Freud author teacher social worker mother daughter and grand daughter of Sigmund Freud here offers for the first time a candid portrait of her struggles in her own life Blessed and cursed with the legacy of a famous family Dr Freud has negotiated her way from a blissful childhood in Vienna to Paris to Radcliff College to her present day life as on one of the most respected teachers in her field My Three Mothers and Other Passions is a remarkable story about a remarkable woman and Dr Freud explores with us openly and engagingly the many experiences of her life The Figure in the Carpet and Other Stories Henry James,2007-12-06 The stories in this collection were written mostly between 1888 and 1897 a time when Henry James's writing was concerned with the art of fiction and the position of the artist in society The motif and title story The Figure in the Carpet is an inspired joke a masterpiece of double entendre that demands the reader's undivided love and attention and continues to baffle its critics Also included are The Author of Beltraffio an absorbing story of family infighting authorship and tragedy and The Private Life a spirited tale that considers the contrast between the artist alone and at work While many of these stories appear to be elaborate Jamesian games all employ irony and humour to allegorize artistic creation
