Epistolary Narratives of Love, Gender and Agonistic Politics Maria Tamboukou,2023-09-30 This book revolves around epistolary narratives of women political theorists and activists following traces of Hannah Arendt's philosophical approaches to love and agonistic politics. Arendt's interlocutors are four revolutionary women in the long durée of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries in Europe and the USA: the romantic socialist Désirée Vernet, Gay, the Marxist Rosa Luxemburg, the anarchist Emma Goldman, and the labour activist Rose Pesotta. The book's central argument is that Arendt's philosophical thought can throw light on dangerous liaisons between love, gender, and agonistic politics, further making connections with feminist ruminations around love as an existential force in the ephemeral constitution of the female self in modernity. Drawing on extended research with physical, digital, and published archival collections, the book responds to the challenges of the digital turn and highlights the importance of memory work as a way of understanding the lasting effects of the past on the present. As such, Epistolary Narratives of Love, Gender, and Agonistic Politics will appeal to scholars of sociology and gender studies with interests in research methods, particularly archival methods, the work of Arendt, feminist thought, and memory studies.

The Code for Love and Heartbreak Jillian Cantor, 2020-10-06 In this contemporary romcom retelling of Jane Austen's Emma by USA TODAY bestselling author Jillian Cantor, there's nothing more complex or unpredictable than love. When math genius Emma and her coding club co-president George are tasked with brainstorming a new project, The Code for Love is born. George disapproves of Emma's idea of creating a matchmaking app, accusing her of meddling in people's lives. But all the happy new couples at school are proof that the app works. At least at first. Emma's code is flawless. So why is it that perfectly matched couples start breaking up, the wrong people keep falling for each other, and Emma's own feelings defy any algorithm?
