Passions Of The Realm:

Passions of the Realm Joan Balser, 1988 The Vehement Passions Philip Fisher, 2009-01-10 Breaking off the ordinary flow of experience the passions create a state of exception In their suddenness and intensity they map a personal world fix and qualify our attention and impel our actions Outraged anger drives us to write laws that will later be enforced by impersonal justice Intense grief at the death of someone in our life discloses the contours of that life to us Wonder spurs scientific inquiry The strong current of Western thought that idealizes a dispassionate world has ostracized the passions as quaint even dangerous Intense states have come to be seen as symptoms of pathology A fondness for irony along with our civic ideal of tolerance lead us to prefer the diluted emotional life of feelings and moods Demonstrating enormous intellectual originality and generosity Philip Fisher meditates on whether this victory is permanent and how it might diminish us From Aristotle to Hume to contemporary biology Fisher finds evidence that the passions have defined a core of human nature no less important than reason or desire Traversing the Iliad King Lear Moby Dick and other great works he discerns the properties of the high spirited states we call the passions Are vehement states compatible with a culture that values private selectively shared experiences How do passions differ from emotions Does anger have an opposite Do the passions give scale shape and significance to our experience of time Is a person incapable of anger more dangerous than someone who is irascible In reintroducing us to our own vehemence Fisher reminds us that it is only through our strongest passions that we feel the contours of injustice mortality loss and knowledge It is only through our personal worlds that we can know the world

Kim,2022-11-16 How does an almighty and all loving God respond to his beloved human creatures who are made in his image and yet implicated in sin and suffering What is the origin of human suffering Is it sin or the limitations of human beings Is God moved by our suffering If he sympathizes and co suffers with us can he deliver us out of our miseries Thousands and perhaps millions of people have asked these questions and are searching desperately for their answers Two major views have been advanced in the history of Christian theology to describe God s response to the suffering of the world divine impassibility and divine passibility More recently a third mediating position between impassibilism and passibilism has arisen which affirms both the impassibility and the passibility of God This position can be identified as modified classical theism an approach that grasps the perfect and relational nature of God Following this mediating position this book sets out its own constructive understanding of a mediating position with the help of a new way of understanding the way in which the eternal actions and corresponding passions of the divine persons condition one another the dynamic reciprocity model The Passion of Max Von Oppenheim Lionel Gossman,2013 Born into a prominent German Jewish banking family Baron Max von Oppenheim 1860 1946 was a keen amateur archaeologist and ethnologist His discovery and excavation of Tell Halaf in Syria marked an important contribution to knowledge of the ancient Middle East while his massive study of the Bedouins is still consulted by scholars today He was also an ardent German patriot eager to support his country s pursuit of its place in the sun Excluded by his part Jewish ancestry from the regular diplomatic service Oppenheim earned a reputation as the Kaiser s spy because of his intriguing against the British in Cairo as well as his plan at the start of the First World War to incite Muslims under British French and Russian rule to a jihad against the colonial powers After 1933 despite being half Jewish according to the Nuremberg Laws Oppenheim was not persecuted by the Nazis In fact he placed his knowledge of the Middle East and his connections with Muslim leaders at the service of the regime Ranging widely over many fields from war studies to archaeology and banking history The Passion of Max von Oppenheim tells the gripping and at times unsettling story of one part Jewish man s passion for his country in the face of persistent and in his later years genocidal anti Semitism Passion On Beauty Rather Than Power Wo ShiSanShiLiu,2019-12-30 In that life after the war had set the Three Realms on fire the youth had embraced the girl and covered her with his arms In the previous period of time the Immortal Lord suffered a setback from the Heavenly Tribulation The woman took care of the Immortal Lord who returned to his original body carefully while the Immortal Lord continued to cry and sigh every day At this moment under the Hibiscus tree in full bloom the youth had a dazzling smile He decided that he would not let go of it again No matter how many reincarnations I pass through I will still be me and you will still be you Politics and Emotions Marcos Engelken-Jorge,Pedro Ibarra Güell,Carmelo Moreno del Rio,2011-04-06 Mainstream liberal narratives have often depicted politics as a matter of power and competing interests

Emotional Lexicons Ute Frevert, Monique Scheer, Anne Schmidt, 2014-02 Emotions are as old as humankind But what do we know about them and what importance do we assign to them Emotional Lexicons is the first cultural history of terms of emotion found in German French and English language encyclopaedias since the late seventeenth century Insofar as these reference works formulated normative concepts they documented shifts in the way the educated middle classes were taught to conceptualise emotion by a literary medium targeted specifically to them As well as providing a record of changing language use and the surrounding debates many encyclopaedia articles went further than simply providing basic knowledge they also presented a moral vision to their readers and guidelines for behaviour Implicitly or explicitly they participated in fundamental discussions on human nature Are emotions in the mind or in the body Can we read another person's feelings in their face Do animals have feelings Are men less emotional than women Are there differences between the emotions of children and adults Can emotions be civilised Can they make us sick Do groups feel together Do our emotions connect us with others or create distance The answers to these questions are historically contingent showing that emotional knowledge was and still is closely linked to the social cultural and political structures of modern societies Emotional Lexicons analyses European discourses in science as well as in broader society about affects passions sentiments and emotions It does not presume to refine our understanding of what emotions actually are but rather to present the spectrum of knowledge about emotion embodied in concepts whose meanings shift through time in order to enrich our own concept of emotion and to lend nuances to the interdisciplinary conversation about them
