Between Rome and Babylon A'haron Oppenheimer, Aharon Oppenheimer, 2005 Between Rome and Babylon includes over thirty papers by Aharon Oppenheimer about Jewish life in Palestine and Babylonia in the period of the Mishnah and the Talmud 1st 4th centuries dealing with leadership and society political and military activity relations with the authorities and historical geography The collection is organized around three inter connected themes 1 Roman Palestine and its Environs 2 The Bar Kokhba Revolt 3 Babylonia Judaica About two thirds of the papers were originally published in Hebrew

They have been selected and edited for this collection and translated for the first time into English or German. The rest of the papers originally appeared in various different languages and contexts and they too have been selected and edited to fit the three themes. Cross references have been added as well as detailed indices. The aim of the papers is to cast light on Jewish history by extracting methodically historical meaning from Talmudic sources taking into account when they were written where they were edited and how far they can be presumed authentic and by looking at them in combination with Greek Roman Persian and Arabic written sources as well as relevant archaeological finds.

Jewish Childhood in the Roman World Hagith Sivan, 2018-05-17 This is the first full treatment of Jewish childhood in the Roman world. It follows minors into the spaces where they lived, learned, played, slept and died and examines the actions and interaction of children with other children, with close kin, adults and with strangers both inside and outside the home. A wide range of sources are used from the rabbinic rules to the surviving painted representations of children from synagogues and due attention is paid to broader theoretical issues and approaches. Hagith Sivan concludes with four beautifully reconstructed autobiographies of specific children: from a boy living and dying in a desert cave during the Bar Kokhba revolt to an Alexandrian girl forced to leave her home and wander through the Mediterranean in search of a respite from persecution. The book tackles the major questions of the relationship between Jewish childhood and Jewish identity which remain important to this day.

Tasting Rome Katie Parla, Kristina Gill, 2016-03-29 A love letter from two Americans to their adopted city. Tasting Rome is a showcase of modern dishes influenced by tradition as well as the rich culture of their surroundings. Even 150 years after unification, Italy is still a divided nation where individual regions are defined by their local cuisine. Each is a mirror of its city's culture, history and geography. But cucina romana is the country's greatest standout. Tasting Rome provides a complete picture of a place that many love but few know completely. In sharing Rome's celebrated dishes, street food innovations and forgotten recipes, journalist Katie Parla and photographer Kristina Gill capture its unique character and reveal its truly evolved food culture: a culmination of 2000 years of history. Their recipes acknowledge the foundations of Roman cuisine and demonstrate how it has transitioned to the variations found today. You'll delight in the expected classics: cacio e pepe, pollo alla romana, fiore di zucca, the fascinating but largely undocumented Sephardic Jewish cuisine hraiimi con couscous, brodo di pesce, pizzarelle, the authentic and tasty offal, guancia, simmenthal di coda, insalata di nervetti and so much more. Studded with narrative features that capture the city's history and gorgeous photography that highlights both the food and its hidden city, you'll feel immediately inspired to start tasting Rome in your own kitchen.

eBook Bonus Material Be sure to check out the directory of all of Rome's restaurants mentioned in the book.

Exodus from Rome Volume 1 Dr. Todd D. Baker, 2014-05-01 Written by a former Roman Catholic of eighteen years and former candidate for the Roman Catholic priesthood Dr Todd Baker objectively and honestly examines the grandiose claims of the Papacy and the Roman Catholic Church in the critical light of Scripture and the evidence of history to show where Rome has greatly erred This multi volume work provides a controversial overview on the basic doctrines distinctive of Roman Catholicism so the open Catholic can learn how these beliefs practices and traditions of Rome contradict Scripture and do not have the support of a consistent uniform history from the days of Jesus the apostles and the first three centuries of the early church and on With over 1 billion adherents to the Roman Catholic Church it is incumbent for the Bible believer to know the difference between the real Gospel of Scripture versus the Gospel of Rome and how they are not one and the same Gospel in the end In a day of man pleasing ecumenical compromise with Rome this book is sorely needed to remind the Protestant church that the real differences between Rome and the Bible have not changed since the Reformation and must be reiterated and defended today on the exclusive ground of Scripture alone being the supreme authority in faith and practice for every Christian believer Dr Todd D Baker is president of Brit Hadashah Ministries and Pastor of Shalom Shalom Messianic Congregation in Dallas Texas He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in biblical studies a Master of Theology degree from Dallas Theological Seminary and a Ph D in Philosophy and Apologetics from Trinity Seminary under the auspices of Liverpool University at Liverpool England He is the staff theologian and writer for Zola Levitt Ministries and has appeared on the television program Zola Levitt Presents several times With his extensive experience in Jewish evangelism he conducts Gospel outreaches to Israel three times a year

All About Me Sotirios Majoros, 2019-11-29 When Sotirios Majoros s thirteen year old daughter asked him a seemingly simple question What is life little did she realize the explosion of thoughts and ideas that she would set off in her father s mind To answer her question Sotirios found himself looking back through time to the father of history Herodotus and across humanity s numerous cultures focusing in particular on how this question is expressed through various pieces of artwork such as sculptures and paintings He also looked back through his own life eventually realizing that lurking beneath his daughter s question was an even more fundamental question Who am I His attempt to answer this question forms the foundation of this book Letters and Essays, Controversial and Critical, on Subjects connected with the Conversion and National Restoration of Israel.
