Passport For A Pilgrim:

Passport for a pilgrim James Leasor, 1972 Passport For A Pilgrim James Leasor, 1970 Camino de Santiago Sangsun Park, 2022-04-28

About this book This book is a diary of what I felt while walking the Camino de Santiago Camino is translated as road but in this book it means the French road that is Camino Francés and Camino village refers to the village through which this Camino passes Records in 2013 and 2017 were reported in parallel I tried not to stuff the words so that the feeling is not processed There are some rough expressions In some cases the same content is repeated over and over again Korean dialects are sometimes used Local language pronunciation is also included In the French road picture the route represents the distance on the map and the trip is the distance recorded with the GPS app The remaining distance to Santiago is also listed There was a loving encouragement from my wife Soonjeen There was the unchanging faith of our children There was a warm devotion of my wife's elder sister There was a beautiful friendship of my old respectable friend Thank you to the people of the Camino who shared comfort and encouragement with Buen Camino Beware I dedicate this book to those who died walking the Camino

About Camino de Santiago The Camino de Santiago is the road to the Santiago Cathedral in the city of Santiago de Compostela in the northwestern part of Spain where the remains of Saint James are enshrined One of the twelve apostles Saint James was a missionary to the Iberian Peninsula as well as to Judea and was arrested in Jerusalem in 44 AD and was the first martyrdom of the twelve apostles In Acts 12:1-2 it is said It was about this time that King Herod arrested some who belonged to the church intending to persecute them He had James the brother of John put to death with the sword It is called Santiago in Spanish Saint James in English and Saint Jacques in French Medieval pilgrims departed from their homes on foot or on horseback to go to the Cathedral of Santiago Currently there are about 100 routes and new routes are still being created The four major routes in France the Swiss route from St Gallen in Switzerland and the routes from Portugal and the UK are typical Statistics show that in 2015 alone 54 646 pilgrims from 114 countries passed through the Camino Francés so to say French roads through the village of Saint Jean Pieppre in southern France By country the number of French people is the highest with 9 451 Koreans with 2 939 ranking 7th Japanese with 523 and Chinese with 133

Muslim Europe

Gavin Murray-Miller,2024-12-15 Europe and the Islamic world have shared a long and conflicted history From the Middle Ages to the global War on Terror the image of two civilizations perpetually at war has endured However a closer look at the past suggests this was not always the case Muslim Europe follows the lives of imperialists journalists and Muslim activists who attempted to challenge the idea of two opposing civilizations locked in eternal conflict Rich in detail it tells the stories of English officials who once declared Britain the greatest Muslim power on the face of the earth and recounts the extraordinary political campaign that saw a French Muslim elected to the National Assembly against all odds The age of empire brought Islam into European public life like never before inspiring Muslims on the continent to take to the press and mount political movements guided by desires for greater social recognition In chronicling the forgotten history of Europe s early Muslim communities across empires Muslim Europe proposes a new history for Europe highlighting the contributions made by Muslim subjects and citizens in search of a more just and tolerant society

Personal Narrative of a Pilgrimage to El Medinah and Meccah

Sir Richard Francis Burton,1857 Richard Francis Burton 1821 90 was a British orientalist soldier spy diplomat and explorer best known for his travels in Arabia Africa and India He was born in Torquay on the southern coast of England and was raised in France and Italy It was there that he began to show his exceptional talent with languages by learning Latin Greek Italian and French before he was 20 After two years at Oxford he was dismissed on disciplinary grounds He went on to join the British Army in India where he served as an intelligence officer Disguised as a Pashtun Muslim and supported by the Royal Geographical Society in 1853 Burton undertook a hajj journey to the two Muslim holy cities of Mecca and Medina His two volume Personal Narrative of a Pilgrimage to el Medinah and Meccah recounts that journey Burton spent years in preparation mostly during his time in India. The journey first took him from England to Alexandria in Egypt and further to Cairo, Suez and Yanbu. From there he travelled to Medina and Mecca. Although Burton was not the first non-Muslim to perform the hajj, the accuracy of his well-documented account, including his measurements of the Kaaba in Mecca and his Victorian-era observations on Muslims, especially his copious notes on manners, brought him immediate fame. Burton begins the first volume of his work with a famed line of verse on cavalierism by the Arab poet al-Mutanabbi (915–65 AD): "I am well known to the night, the steeds and the desert, the sword and the guest, the paper and the pen." A controversial figure during his lifetime and a prolific writer and translator, Burton left behind 43 volumes of writing on his journeys and 30 volumes of translations, including sensual books such as the Kama Sutra of Vatsyayana, The Perfumed Garden of the Cheikh Nefzaoui, and the Arabian Nights. He died in Trieste in what was then Austria-Hungary.
