Past And Present:

The universities of Scotland, past, present, and possible James Lorimer, 1854 After-words David Patterson, John K Roth, 2004 Nine contributors tackle questions about the nature of memory and forgiveness after the Holocaust This book created out of shared concerns about forgiveness reconciliation and justice and out of a desire to investigate differences between religious traditions represents an effort to spark meaningful dialogue between Jews and Christians and to encourage others to participate in similar inter and intrafaith inquiries Marginality in Space - Past, Present and Future Heikki Jussila, Roser Majoral, Chris C. Mutambirwa, 2019-01-15 Published in 1999 this book discusses the role that marginality has had in the past has today and will have in the future The Commission on Dynamics of Marginal and Critical Regions held its annual conference in Harare Zimbabwe in July 1997 This volume represents a carefully selected revised and reviewed selection of the papers presented at this conference The articles reflect the various aspects of marginality currently existing in the world and it is the intention of the Commission to pursue research that would eventually result in a more coherent approach towards the issues of marginality in space The articles in the book are grouped into three main parts The first part discusses the role of theory and also methodological aspects and approaches towards the question of marginality The second part gives a time space perspective by examining the past present and future aspects of marginality The third part is dedicated to empirical evidence about the changes in existing marginality and its possible future implementations The conclusions of the book summarize the various and sometimes conflicting aspects of marginality and its images both in space and in time Augustine and Philosophy Phillip Cary, John Doody, Kim Paffenroth, 2012-07-10 Augustine of Hippo was a philosopher as well as theologian bishop and saint He aimed to practice philosophy not simply as an academic discipline but as a love for divine wisdom pervading everything in his life and work To inquire into Augustine and philosophy is thus to get to the heart of his concerns as a Christian writer and uncover some of the reasons for his vast influence on Western thought This volume containing essays by leading Augustine scholars includes a variety of inquiries into Augustine s philosophy in theory and practice as well as his relation to philosophers before and after him It opens up a variety of perspectives into the heart of Augustine s thought He frequently reminds his readers philosophy means love of wisdom and in that sense he expects that every worthy impulse in human life will have something philosophical about it something directed toward the attainment of wisdom In Augustine s own writing we find this expectation put into practice in a stunning variety of ways as keys themes of Western philosophy and intricate forms of philosophical argument turn up everywhere The collection of essays in this book examines just a few aspects of the relation of Augustine and philosophy both in Augustine s own practice as a philosopher and in his interaction with others The result is not one picture of the relation of Augustine and philosophy but many as the authors of these essays ask many different questions about Augustine and his influence and bring a large diversity of interests and expertise to their task Thus the collection shows that Augustine s philosophy remains an influence and a provocation in a wide variety of settings today Past and Present Thomas Carlyle,1957 Thomas Bradwardine Edith Wilks Dolnikowski,1995 This volume evaluates Thomas Bradwardine's view of time as a mathematical philosophical and theological concept within the context of ancient and medieval discussions concerning the problem of time and eternity The book begins with an assessment of his career as a natural philosopher and theologian in order to establish the factors which influenced his treatment of time Two succeeding chapters examine the sources of his temporal theory in classical early medieval and thirteenth century texts Next a series of chapters surveys his view of time as it related to proportionality continuity contingency and predestination The final chapter establishes his place among fourteenth century natural philosophers and theologians Because this study traces the issue of time through several major works it demonstrates how the mathematical philosophical and theological ideas of one prominent scholar converged within a setting of lively academic discourse Thus it illuminates a fascinating dimension of one of the most important debates in late medieval thought

Descriptions Don Ihde,Hugh J. Silverman,1985-01-01 Phenomenology in America has developed in unique directions with respect to descriptive analysis and in relation to interdisciplinary fields Descriptions examines current trends in phenomenology It begins by reflecting on phenomenological description itself then takes phenomenology into such areas as time science and the arts the social and into the universities Ranging from the development of theory by such well known philosophers as Maurice Natanson and Robert Sokolowski this collection addresses the topics of pregnant subjectivity nostalgia the ethical function of architecture computer science and academic freedom The Past, the Present, and the Future Henry Charles Carey,1848 Italian Cinema William Hope,2005 This book explores the evolution of Italian cinema over the last twenty years with particular reference to modern masterpieces such as Tornatore's Oscar winning Nuovo cinema paradiso The volume focuses on the work of some of the most prominent directors of recent times combining an auteurist perspective with an incisive overview of the most important thematic and stylistic developments in modern Italian film making book cover Frantz Fanon's 'Black Skin, White Masks' Max Silverman,2005 This book will be essential reading for students and researchers in the areas of postcolonial studies French and Francophone studies cultural studies ethnic and racial studies politics literature and psychoanalysis and all those concerned like Fanon with the quest for human freedom BOOK JACKET Ageing Well Alan D. Dangour,Emily M. D. Grundy,Astrid E. Fletcher,2007-03-12 Many current public health actions and policies aimed at older people revolve around the often prevailing view that failing health is a consequence of ageing It is now clear that it is possible to postpone or even prevent much of the age related decline in health that was once thought inevitable Future policies must recognise this changing paradigm Diverging Time David Carvounas,2002-01-01 Temporal divergence creates a need for new narratives and paradigms In Diverging Time David Carvounas supports this assertion through detailed expository and diagnostic readings of Kant Hegel and Marx He focuses on their contribution to our understanding of modernity as an epochal shift in the relationship between past and future recasting the significance of the past and future of the modern present Despite their different solutions to the problem of temporal coordination they urged the modern world to look not to the past but to the newly opened future for continuity meaning and purpose This book not only offers a fresh look at a defining characteristic of modernity but also makes a compelling case that a coherent modern temporal structure requires a sustainable orientation toward the future an orientation that Kant Hegel and Marx delineate in distinctive and powerful ways The Past, the Present, and the Future Henry Charles Carey, 2012-08-01 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy The Past, the Present & the Future Henry C. Carey, 1967 Categorical Analysis E. Maynard Adams, 2018-07-11 The essays in this volume have been selected for their contribution to Everett W Hall's mature philosophical position which was grounded in careful linguistic analysis and directed toward philosophically clarifying the major areas of culture He emerges as skillful meticulous and patient in his exploration of language as a means of interpreting the categorial structure of the world Originally published in 1964 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value The New Thought Companion, 1914 Australian Languages Claire Bowern, Harold Koch, 2004-03-18 This book addresses controversial issues in the application of the comparative method to the languages of Australia which have recently come to international prominence Are these languages different in ways that challenge the fundamental assumptions of historical linguistics Can subgrouping be successfully undertaken using the Comparative Method Is the genetic construct of a far flung Pama Nyungan language family supportable by classic methods of reconstruction Contrary to increasingly established views of the Australian scene this book makes a major contribution to the demonstration that traditional methods can indeed be applied to these languages These studies introduced by chapters on subgrouping methodology and the history of Australian linguistic classification rigorously apply the comparative method to establishing subgroups among Australian languages and justifying the phonology of Proto Pama Nyungan Individual chapters can profitably be read either for their contribution to Australian linguistic prehistory or as case studies in the application of the comparative method Disposal and Reuse of Fort Chaffee, 2000 Becomings Elizabeth Grosz, 1999 This volume explores the ontological epistemic and political implications of rethinking time as a dynamic and irreversible force Its authors seek to stimulate research in the sciences and humanities which highlight the temporal foundations The Encyclopædia Britannica Hugh Chisholm, James Louis Garvin, 1926
