Past Historic Medieval Islam:

Writing History in the Medieval Islamic World Fozia Bora, 2019-06-13 In the encyclopaedic fourteenth century Arabic chronicles produced in Mamluk cities bore textual witness to both recent and bygone history including that of the Fatimids 969 1171CE For in two centuries of rule over Egypt and North Africa the Isma'ili Fatimids had left few self-generated historiographical records Instead it fell to Ayyubid and Mamluk historians to represent the dynasty to posterity This monograph sets out to explain how later historians preserved interpreted and reorganised earlier textual sources Mamluk historians engaged in a sophisticated archival practice within historiography rather than uncritically reproducing earlier reports In a new diplomatic edition translation and analysis of Mamluk historian Ibn al-Furat's account of late Fatimid rule in The History of Dynasties and Kings a widely known but barely copied universal chronicle of Islamic history Fozia Bora traces the survival of historiographical narratives from Fatimid Egypt Through Ibn al-Furat's text Bora demonstrates archivality as the heuristic key to Mamluk historical writing This book is essential for all scholars working on the written culture and history of the medieval Islamic world and paves the way for a more nuanced reading of pre-modern Arabic chronicles and of the epistemic environment in which they were produced

Man versus Society in Medieval Islam Franz Rosenthal, 2014-10-09 In Man versus Society in Medieval Islam Franz Rosenthal 1914 2003 investigates the tensions and conflicts that existed between individuals and society as the focus of his study of Muslim social history The book brings together works spanning fifty years the monographs The Muslim Concept of Freedom The Herb Hashish versus Medieval Muslim Society Brill 1971 Gambling in Islam Brill 1975 and Sweeter than Hope Complaint and Hope in Medieval Islam Brill 1983 along with all the articles on unsanctioned practices sexuality and institutional learning Reprinted here together for the first time they constitute the most extensive collection of source material on all these themes from all genres of Arabic writing judiciously translated and analyzed No other study to date presents the panorama of medieval Muslim societies in their manifold aspects in as detailed comprehensive and illuminating a manner

A New Critical Approach to the History of Palestine Ingrid Hjelm, Hamdan Taha, Ilan Pappé, Thomas L. Thompson, 2019-06-07 A New Critical Approach to the History of Palestine discusses prospects and methods for a comprehensive evidence based history of Palestine with a critical use of recent historical archaeological and anthropological methods This history is not an exclusive history but one that is ethnically and culturally inclusive a history of and for all peoples who have lived in Palestine After an introductory essay offering a strategy for creating coherence and continuity from the earliest beginnings to the present the volume presents twenty articles from twenty two contributors fifteen of whom are of Middle Eastern origin or relation Split thematically into four parts the volume discusses ideology national identity and chronology in various historiographies of Palestine and the legacy of memory and oral history the transient character of ethnicity in Palestine and questions regarding the ethical responsibilities of archaeologists and historians to protect the multi ethnic cultural heritage of Palestine landscape and memory and the values of community archaeology and bio archaeology and an exploration of the ideology of the land and its influence on Palestine s history and heritage The first in a series of books under the auspices of the Palestine History and Heritage Project PaHH the volume offers a challenging new departure for writing the history of Palestine and Israel throughout the ages A New Critical Approach to the History of Palestine explores the diverse history of the region against the backdrop of twentieth century scholarly construction of the history of Palestine as a history of a Jewish homeland with roots in an ancient biblical Israel and examines the implications of this ancient and recent history for archaeology and cultural heritage The book offers a fascinating new perspective for students and academics in the fields of anthropological political cultural and biblical history      A History of Islamic Societies Ira M. Lapidus, 2014-10-13 This new edition of one of the most widely used course books on Islamic civilizations around the world has been substantially revised to incorporate the new scholarship and insights of the last twenty five years Ira Lapidus history explores the beginnings and transformations of Islamic civilizations in the Middle East and details Islam s worldwide diffusion The history is divided into four parts Part I is a comprehensive account of pre Islamic late antiquity the beginnings of Islam the early Islamic empires and Islamic religious artistic legal and intellectual cultures Part II deals with the construction in the Middle East of Islamic religious communities and states to the fifteenth century Part III includes the history to the nineteenth century of Islamic North Africa and Spain the Ottoman Safavid and Mughal empires and other Islamic societies in Asia and Africa Part IV accounts for the impact of European commercial and imperial domination on Islamic societies and traces the development of the modern national state system and the simultaneous Islamic revival from the early nineteenth century to the present

Warfare in the Global Middle Ages David S. Bachrach, Bernard S. Bachrach, 2025-09-30 War preparation for war and dealing with war s aftermath consumed the greater part of the surplus resources of societies around the globe throughout the pre modern period Military matters affected men women and children alike as direct participants in organized violence as the victims of conflicts or through broad based impositions on ostensibly civilian populations in cash kind and labor Warfare in the Global Middle Ages illuminates the organization and conduct of war as well as the impact of warfare on societies in Europe Asia Africa and the Americas across a long millennium spanning from the third century CE to the sixteenth century CE The volume is organized in eight chapters which address the current state of scholarship regarding warfare over this long period the source materials available to scholars to investigate the myriad questions related to this broad field and the institutions developed by societies to defend themselves and engage in wars of conquest military technology the logistics of war the education and training of military leaders and individual combatants as well as strategy military intelligence and diplomacy The authors argue that an analysis of these topics illuminates broad similarities among polities across the globe the transmission of ideas and technologies on a regional and global level and also important differences in the ways that societies responded to similar challenges This work is intended broadly both for specialists in the history of warfare across the globe for an interested lay public as well as for use in the classroom      Islam in the Middle Ages Jacob Lassner, Michael Bonner, 2009-11-19 In the Middle Ages a varied and vibrant Islamic culture flourished in all its aspects from religious institutions to legal and scientific endeavors Lassner Reisman and Bonner detail how all three monotheist traditions are linked to the same sacred history They trace the most current scholarship on the Arabian background to Islam the prophet s early religious message and its appeal They the Qur an and how it would have been understood by the earliest generations of Muslims How much does historical memory come into play in current depictions of this early era Beyond religious institutions Muslim scholars and scientists were vital to both the transmission of knowledge from the Greek civilization and to the uninterrupted progress of science The authors explore the role that non Muslim minorities played within this culture and they detail the splits within the Muslim world that continue to this day Daily Life in the Medieval Islamic World James E. Lindsay,2005-06-30 From the time of its birth in Mecca in the 7th century C E Islam and the Islamic world rapidly expanded outward extending to Spain and West Africa in the west and to Central Asia and the Indian Subcontinent in the east An examination of the daily life in these Islamic regions provides insight into a civilized powerful and economically stable culture where large metropolitan centers such as Damascus Baghdad and Cairo thrived in many areas including intellectual and scientific inquiry In contrast with medieval Europe there is little common knowledge in the West of the culture and history of this vibrant world as different from our own in terms of the political religious and social values it possessed as it is similar in terms of the underlying human situation that supports such values This book provides an intimate look into the daily life of the medieval Islamic world and is thus an invaluable resource for students and general readers alike interested in understanding this world so different and yet so connected to our own Chapters include discussions of the major themes of medieval Islamic history Arabia the world of Islamic origins warfare and politics the major cities of Damascus Baghdad and Cairo religious rituals and worship and a section on curious and entertaining information Author James E Lindsay further provides a focused look at the daily lives of urban Muslims during this time period and of their interactions with Jews Christians and other Muslims Timelines tables including a calendar conversion to align the Islamic lunar and the Christian solar dates and a dynastic table highlighting the major genealogies of the ancient ruling families a bibliography and a glossary of important dates and technical terms are also provided to assist the reader

Muhammad's Military Expeditions Ayman S. Ibrahim,2024 The Arabic Muslim literature on Muhammad s maghazi is bountiful Since this book focuses on Muhammad s maghazi a survey of this literature is important not only to establish the centrality of the topic in Islamic thought but also to relay the uniqueness and contribution of this book To that end in this chapter I will first explore that which classical Muslim narrators wrote on Muhammad s maghazi and the ways they used the accounts to reflect Allah s support for Muhammad and the believers In the second section I will examine discussions by modern and contemporary Muslims relaying how they interpret the accounts of the maghazi In particular I will discuss their articulation of the motivations and results of Muhammad s military campaigns The first two sections of this chapter will thus establish the centrality of the maghazi as a literary genre as well as its importance among Muslims past and present In the third section I take the discussion to non Muslim scholarship I explore briefly early views on Muhammad and his career by non Muslims before I focus on works and arguments of key Western scholars from the nineteenth century until our present day Success and Suppression Dag Nikolaus Hasse,2016-11-28 Dag Nikolaus Hasse shows how ideological and scientific motives led to the decline of Arabic traditions in European culture The Renaissance was a turning point on the one hand Arabic scientific traditions reached their peak of influence in Europe on the other during this period the West began to forget or suppress its debt to Arabic culture

The Sharia State Bassam Tibi, 2013-07-18 Set against the backdrop of the Arab Spring The Sharia State examines the Islamist concept of political order This order is based on a new interpretation of sharia and has been dubbed the Islamic state by Islamists The concept of the Islamic state has been elevated to a political agenda and it is this agenda that is examined here In contrast to the prevailing view which sees the Arab Spring as a revolution this book argues that the phenomenon has been neither a Spring nor a revolution The term Arab Spring connotes a just rebellion that led to toppling dictators and authoritarian rulers yet in The Sharia State Bassam Tibi challenges the unchecked assumption that the seizure of leadership by Islamists is a part of the democratization of the Middle East Providing a new perspective on the relationship between the Arab Spring and democratization this book is an essential read for students and scholars of Middle Eastern Studies Islamic Studies and Politics

History of Islamic Philosophy Oliver Leaman, Seyyed Hossein Nasr, 2020-08-17 Islamic philosophy has often been treated as being largely of historical interest belonging to the history of ideas rather than to philosophical study This volume successfully overturns that view Emphasizing the living nature and rich diversity of the subject it examines the main thinkers and schools of thought discusses the key concepts of Islamic philosophy and covers a vast geographical area This indispensable reference tool includes a comprehensive bibliography and an extensive index

The History of Islam

Terence Lovat, Amir Moghadam, 2017-09-05 This book applies philosophical and critical textual scholarship to the traditional Islamic narrative in an attempt to distinguish between its historical and interpretive elements It allows the narrative to be preserved with due respect for its significance and distinctiveness but in a way that frees it from the ease with which it can slip into the hands of literalists and fundamentalists in order to serve a purpose which is at odds with its original spirit and intention When radical Islamists use social media to try and convert young followers to a Jihadist cause they refer often to the narrative about the Prophet the original Islamic community Ummah and the holy book Qur'an The references usually imply that these are under threat by infidels either non Muslim Westerners or Muslims themselves who follow allegedly errant forms of Islam The narrative itself is however never questioned it is taken as merely factual with every word to be taken literally including words that appear intolerant of difference and given to violence As such it can serve well the forms of fundamentalism that lie at the heart of radical Islamism and Jihadism Because of a shortage of critical scholarship about Islam's central narrative the radical Islamist understanding of it differs too little from that of mainstream Muslims Neither tends to take sufficient account of the context of the writing its original purpose or the many interpretive elements that have been overlain This makes it difficult for mainstream Islamic authorities to counter effectively the radical Islamist discourse or to distinguish moderate and liberal forms of religious practice from radical breakaway forms In turn this causes confusion among Muslims who know the radical Islamists are in error but find it hard to say just why and even greater confusion and angst among non Muslims for whom the allegation that all of Islam is inherently violent and to be feared is clearly being heard by an increasing number This book sets out to address this problem by applying forms of scholarship that can preserve the best of the Islamic narrative while at the same time illustrating just how errant is the radical Islamist understanding of it

Madinat Al-Zahra Antonio Vallejo Triano, Eduardo Manzano Moreno, 2024-11-26 A beautifully illustrated exploration of the famed palace city that was once the heart of Islamic Spain Madinat al Zahra a tenth century palace city on the western outskirts of Cordoba Spain and a UNESCO World Heritage Site stands as a testament to the multicultural environment fostered by its founders Built by Abd al Rahman III r 929-961 a member of the Umayyad dynasty and the first caliph of al Andalus the city symbolized the caliph's aspiration to rule over the Fatimid Caliphs of Ifriqiya in North Africa and the Abbasid Caliphs in Baghdad and was the site of vast cultural and artistic creation The companion volume to an exhibition at New York University's Institute for the Study of the Ancient World this book showcases the complex visual vocabulary of Madinat al Zahra which derived from diverse cultural traditions and was translated into new and unique architectural and material cultures Thematic essays examine the history of the Islamic Caliphate in Muslim Iberia al Andalus the cultural and artistic traditions of the time and the resulting multicultural society while shorter object focused chapters explore the variety of
