Pasternak Modern Judgements:

John Ashbery and American Poetry David Herd, 2024-07-30 David Herd sets out to provide readers with a new critical language through which they can appreciate the beauty and complexity of Ashbery's writing. Presenting the poet in all his forms: avant garde, nostalgic, sublime, and camp, the book argues that the perpetual inventiveness of Ashbery's work has always been underpinned by the poet's desire to write the poem fit to cope with its occasion. Tracing Ashbery's development in the light of this idea and from its origins in the dazzling artistic environment of 1950s New York, the book evaluates his poetry against the aesthetic, literary, and historical backgrounds that have informed it. The story of a brilliant career and a history of the period in which that career has taken shape. John Ashbery and American Poetry provides a compelling account of Ashbery's importance to Twentieth Century Literature.

An Anthology of Russian Literature from Earliest Writings to Modern Fiction Nicholas Rzhevsky, 2019-09-16 Russia has a rich, huge, unwieldy cultural tradition. How to grasp it? This classroom reader is designed to respond to that problem. The literary works selected for inclusion in this anthology introduce the core cultural and historic themes of Russia's civilisation. Each text has resonance throughout the arts: in Rublev's icons, Meyerhold's theatre, Mousorgsky's operas, Prokofiev's symphonies, Fokine's choreography, and Kandinsky's paintings. This material is supported by introductions, helpful annotations, and bibliographies of resources in all media. The reader is intended for use in courses in Russian literature, culture, and civilisation, as well as comparative literature.

New Makers of Modern Culture Justin Wintle, 2016-04-22 New Makers of Modern Culture will be widely acquired by both higher education and public libraries. Bibliographies are attached to entries, and there is thorough cross-referencing.

Nightingale Fever Ronald Hingley, 2021-06-15 This book, first published in 1981, examines the dramatic and tragic stories of four of the greatest Russian poets of the twentieth century: their struggle to survive the Stalin years and their dedication to their art despite considerable personal danger. Interweaving the stories of Anna Akhmatova, Osip Mandelstam, Boris Pasternak, and Marina Tsvetayeva, the noted Russian scholar Ronald Hingley traces their education, the literary schools and traditions with which they were associated, the impact of World War I and the Bolshevik Revolution on their work, and the emergence of their distinct and disparate styles. He examines how the four influenced and affected each other as colleague, critic, or rival; friend or lover; and as their fates were increasingly caught up in the aftermath of the Russian Revolution: how they came to depend on each other for solace and refuge. This book makes vivid the historic conflict between artists and political authority and shows how they came into conflict with the Stalinist totalitarian regime intent on their destruction. Ronald Hingley's brilliant narrative and superb translations of many of the major poems give us a haunting
