The Pastor'S Diary William R. Phillippe,2015-09-11 For many years people have asked me to write about my theology and I have consistently said that I could tell them what I thought at that particular day but that it would be different tomorrow which is to say that I strongly believe that theology is a growing thing constantly changing within the context of a changing society The book became much more autobiographical than I intended I discovered that my theology changed because of any experiences I had I have described my story chronologically beginning with my early years and how the myth of Christianity was implanted in my mind I go on to show how I got involved in the church during high school and college and discovered others had different myths than I did This expanding awareness gave me the stimulus to take a hard look at my own myth Several professors at both college and seminary helped me through the changes in my understanding of the Christian faith and I describe via some of my writings what those were In my first congregation a new church development and in subsequent ones I realized that we understate our laity and their desire to learn about new concepts has come with further study of scholars I came to trust that desire and began to preach and teach not only the churchs dogmatics but also the results of creative imagination and the discovery of many scholars throughout the world and from many religious perspectives My final chapter is entitled So What Do You Believe In this I make an attempt to pull together the various and growing concepts of my thought throughout my fifty plus years in the ordained ministry of the Presbyterian Church From experience I know laypersons would be interested in this book In addition pastors and other religious professionals I think would find it helpful as they go through their own theological pilgrimage The Truth About the Big Lie Dwight Pledger, I will only try this once I am not an addict I can quit at any time To every addict these words are all too familiar Drug addiction has destroyed the moral fiber of many communities and penetrated every level of society The reach and grip of addiction go beyond age race economics education and political boundaries No matter how long you have been an addict or how low you have fallen you can fully recover and remain free Dwight speaks candidly about his addiction to crack cocaine and alcohol and the toll it took on his family and aspirations After falling for the Big Lie he made a conscious decision to begin writing a new story for his life based on the truth of God s Word Dwight s story will not only be a ray of hope for anyone struggling with addiction but it will also be an encouragement to their family and friends Bod 4 God Steve Reynolds,2010-10 The media labeled Steve Reynolds The Anti Fat Pastor after he lost more than 100 pounds and launched a stunningly successful weight loss program in his church and community In Bod 4 God Pastor Steve reveals the four keys that have unlocked the door to health and fitness for him and for countless others who have dedicated their bodies to God Steve had been overweight all of his life he weighed over 100 pounds in the first grade After playing football during high school and college he vowed never to exercise or run laps again That was one promise he kept ballooning to 340 pounds and staying there for years Now in Bod 4 God he shares the simple lifestyle changes both inside and out that led to his incredible weight loss and he invites readers to change their lives forever by committing their bodies to Gods glory In addition Steve shows local churches how to impact the health of their entire community by hosting Losing to Live Events such as weight loss competitions and team driven fitness campaigns So You Have Been Called to Your First Church Dr. Anthony D.

Johnson,2015-07-07 Romans 10 15 says How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace and bring glad tidings of good things The Bible says that the feet of those who preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ are beautiful According to http://www.pastorburnout.com/pastor_burnout_statistics.html 13% of active pastors are divorced 23% have been fired or pressured to resign at least once 33% felt burnout within their first five years of ministry 45% say that they experienced depression 70% dont have close friends and 1 500 pastors leave their ministries each month due to burnout conflict or moral failure If 1 500 doctors left their practices each month 1 500 teachers left their classrooms each month or 1 500 managers left their offices each month we would declare a state of emergency What is so beautiful about this chosen profession Why are there such ugly results from a ministry that the Bible calls beautiful It was this passion and this thrust that led Dr Anthony D Johnson ThD to interject his experiences into this discussion Somebody has to recapture the beauty of ministry He says Please let the mess from my mistakes create ease for you in your assignment The Pastor's Study Annetta

Swift,2008-03-07 Pastors are often made to seem superhuman and have been forced to hide their frailties This novel shows that no matter how high the calling pastors are human too They have feelings and need to feel safe to show their weaknesses without being penalized by ridicule Through this novel though fictional pastors will be liberated by truth and will be presented with an outlet to Keep it real The readers will meet Jerry Saldinoni and discover the answers of what goes on in The Pastor s Study

The Word from the Wise Old Woman Nancy Bauer-King,1998 Anyone growing up in the 1940s and 50s was conditioned to interpret the phrase God is like a Father almost solely as God is a Father Today we are living in a time in which the metaphors for God are expanding This collection of sermons preached over a ten year period reveals God s self giving love through the metaphor of a Wise Old Woman For at least 25 000 years humanity worshiped feminine images of the divine Then it all changed and for the past 6 000 to 8 000 years virtually all mainstream religions have conceived of the divine primarily in masculine terms We now find ourselves at another transformational time in history regarding our understanding of the divine It is a time in which we are becoming increasingly aware that no one image and certainly no one gender can adequately convey the totality of the ultimate divine mystery of the universe Nancy Bauer King in this wonderful collection of sermons has made an important contribution to this crucial religious task I celebrate our time in history when stronger voices from people like Nancy Bauer King are now being heard so that we might learn in fresh ways the breadth and depth and rich diversity of God's word. L. Robert Keck, author of Sacred Eyes. This is a terrific book. WOW! You may be the Garrison Keillor of the Wisconsin pastorate. This will be an insightful book for all the women and men in the churches across the country who struggle for inspiration to write their Sunday sermons and also for many in congregations who listen to them and seek a meaningful word for their own lives. Rosemary Ruether, Garrett Evangelical Theological Seminary. Nancy L. Bauer King was born and raised south of Madison, Wisconsin. She married, raised four children and then returned to school. She earned a BA degree from the University of Wisconsin and her MDiv degree from Garrett Evangelical Theological Seminary. She has served churches in Wisconsin and is currently the Associate Pastor for Spiritual Formation at Trinity United Methodist Church in Racine, Wisconsin. Metropolitan Pulpit and Homiletic Monthly, 1910 The Judge, 1922

The Lunch Bucket Henry Kurt Keppler, 2018-05-22. A prophetic call to repentance. The Lunch Bucket is about a deeply troubled and socially alienated family who struggle to make ends meet with little success until a respected member of the community intervenes to offer support. The result of an encounter with malicious intent, the heroine of the story, Rebekah, births twin sons. Jacob, who resembles Rebekah's adored father, becomes her golden child, while Esau, the other one, is anything but. In explicit detail, graphically compelling and metaphorically alive, The Lunch Bucket is a disturbing and somber account of how predators exploit the most vulnerable in society without repercussion and how God takes the most revolting in society under his care. Whether you believe in God, divine destiny, and evil in man, demons, or the devil, you will be caught up in the spiritual maelstrom in the lives of each of these tortured personalities and witness a transformation of character through a convoluted path to life that can only happen through the crucible of God reforming his children into his will.
