Pastoral Epistles Critical And Exegetical Commentary:

The Pastoral Epistles I. Howard Marshall, Philip H. Towner, 2004-06-15 For over one hundred years the International Critical Commentary series has held a special place among works on the Bible It has sought to bring together all the relevant aids to exegesis linguistic and textual no less than archaeological historical literary and theological with a level of comprehension and quality of scholarship unmatched by any other series No attempt has been made to secure a uniform theological or critical approach to the biblical text contributors have been invited for their scholarly distinction not for their adherence to any one school of thought The first paperback editions to be published cover the heart of the New Testament providing a wealth of information and research in accessible and attractive format A Critical and Exegetical Commentary on the Pastoral Epistles I. Howard Marshall, 2004 This addition to the ICC series is an introduction to the Epistles to Timothy and Titus treating their structure origin and character followed by a detailed investigation of the texts Professor Marshall concludes that the composition is not as unstructured as some commentators have suggested but rather is carefully conceived Each section of the Epistles is discussed on the basis of the Greek text Scholars and students will find the commentary particularly helpful with its lexical information on the Greek words and its careful discussion of the syntactical problems This is a fresh and comprehensive commentary on the Pastoral Epistles from a scholar of international renown Bloomsbury Publishing *A Critical and Exegetical Commentary on the Pastoral Epistles (1. & 2.
