Nomadic Societies in the Middle East and North Africa Dawn Chatty,2018-11-12 A scholarly volume devoted to an understanding of contemporary nomadic and pastoral societies in the Middle East and North Africa This volume recognizes the variable mobile quality of the ways of life of these societies which persist in accommodating the nation state of the 20th and 21st century but remain firmly transnational and highly adaptive Composed of four sections around the theme of contestation it includes examinations of contested authority and power space and social transformation development and economic transformation and cultures and engendered spaces

Tribes and State Formation in the Middle East Philip Shukry Khoury, Joseph Kostiner, 1990 Offering a fuller understanding of the complexities and particular patterns of state formation in regions where tribes have exercised a significant influence this volume focuses on the continuing existence of tribal structures and systems in contemporary times within contemporary nation states The contributors offer hypotheses as to why these groups have managed to survive and what impact they have had on modern states backcover

Pastoral production and society, 1977 State, Society and Economy in Saudi Arabia (RLE Saudi Arabia) Tim Niblock, 2015-02-20 Saudi Arabia is one of the most important countries in the modern world Not only does it possess some 25 per cent of the world's proven oil reserves it also plays a crucial role in the wider Gulf region where over 50 per cent of proven reserves are located Developments in Saudi Arabia will inevitably affect the economic well being of the Western industrialised world Japan and much of the Third World At the same time Saudi Arabia is ruled in a traditional way by an all powerful king and royal family and is one of the key countries of Islam the Holy City of Mecca being within the country's boundaries The inroad of modern Western forces into this traditional Islamic society is underlined by the fact that many key posts are filled with imported Western workers This book first published in 1982 containing contributions by the world's leading Middle Eastern experts provides a comprehensive overview of important social political and economic developments in Saudi Arabia The opening chapters consider the formation of the Saudi State and the bulk of the book surveys key themes such as political opposition the oil industry energy policy banking external relations and the future direction of development

Human Ecology as Human Behavior John W. Bennett, 2017-07-05 Human interaction with the natural environment has a dual character By turning increasing quantities of natural substances into physical resources human beings might be said to have freed themselves from the constraints of low technology survival pressures However the process has generated a new dependence on nature in the form of complex socionatural systems as Bennett calls them in which human society and behavior are so interlocked with the management of the environment that small changes in the systems can lead to disaster Bennett's essays cover a wide range from the philosophy of environmentalism to the ecology of economic development from the human impact on semi arid lands to the ecology of Japanese forest management This expanded paperback edition includes a new chapter on the role of anthropology in economic development Bennett's essays exhibit an underlying pessimism if human behavior toward the physical environment is the distinctive cause of environmental abuse then reform of current management practices offers only temporary relief that is conservationism like democracy must be continually reaffirmed Clearly presented and free of jargon Human Ecology as Human Behavior will be of interest to anthropologists economists and environmentalists

Pastoralism in the New Millennium Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2001-01-01 Pastoralism refers to the type of farming system which uses extensive grazing on grasslands for livestock production This type of farming covers 25 per cent of the world's land area and supports 20 million households It makes substantial contributions to the economies of developing countries although agricultural encroachment conflict and drought continue to erode this way of life This publication considers key policy issues and trends involved in attempts to improve the livelihoods of pastoralist families and communities The Transformation of

Nomadic Society in the Arab East Martha Mundy,Basim Musallam,2000-11-09 In this 2000 book Martha Mundy and Basim Musallam bring together an international team of contributors consisting of archaeologists geographers historians anthropologists and agronomists in a penetrating interdisciplinary account of the transformation of nomadic society The chapters provide an integrated analysis of the changing relations of ecology economy and socio political organisation in the steppes of the central Middle East documenting the longue dur e of history alongside the more rapid transformations of the twentieth century A series of maps and figures illustrate the narrative while a bibliographic essay analyses the existing literature This is an accessible and interactive book which provides a comprehensive overview of a fascinating and complex society It will attract readers from a variety of disciplines including those interested in contemporary environmental and development issues Arid Land Systems: Sciences and Societies Troy Sternberg,Ariell Ahearn,2019-08-19

Understanding deserts and drylands is essential as arid landscapes cover 40% of the Earth and are home to two billion people Today s problematic environment human interaction needs contemporary knowledge to address dryland complexity Physical dimensions in arid zones land systems climate and hazards ecology are linked with social processes that directly impact drylands such as land management livelihoods and development The challenges require integrated research that identifies systemic drivers across global arid regions Measurement and monitoring field investigation remote sensing and data analysis are effective tools to investigate natural dynamics Equally inquiry into how policy and practice affect landscape sustainability is key to mitigating detrimental activity in deserts Relations between socio economic forces and degradation agro pastoral rangeland use drought and disaster and resource extraction reflect land interactions Contemporary themes of food security conflict and conservation are interlinked in arid environments This book unifies desert science arid environments and dryland development The chapters identify land dynamics address system risks and delineate human functions through original research in arid zones Mixed methodologies highlight the vital links between social and environmental science in global deserts The book engages with today s topical themes and presents novel analyses of arid land systems and societies Rangelands: A Resource Under Siege P. J. Joss,P. W. Lynch,O. B. Williams,1986 This volume comprises the proceedings of the Second International Rangelands Congress held in Adelaide Australia in May 1984 and includes some 350 contributions drawn from 43 different countries The Congress addressed the problem of the conflict between land users and the degradation of this valuable resource Some 40% of the Earth s land surface is and or alpine and therefore unsuitable for agricultural cultivation Collectively these lands are known as rangelands and in their natural state they constitute a habitat for grazing animals both domestic and wild Despite their low productivity rangelands have been used for thousands of years as a source of food and fibre but other uses such as mining tourism recreation and conservation are exerting increasing demands The result is often conflict between land users and degradation of the resource
