Pastoral Spirituality:

Pastoral Spirituality Ben Campbell Johnson, 1988-01-01 Is the pastor a performer manager entertainer therapist or bureaucrat While modern pastors are often associated with roles like these Ben Campbell Johnson examines ministry and all its functions from a spiritual perspective and helps pastors see themselves as individuals called by God With exercises designed to help them reflect on their experiences he helps ministers recapture the essence of their calling The Pastor as Spiritual Guide Howard Rice, 1998 Rediscover the joy of pastoral ministry In this age of megachurches and declining interest in being part of any organized religion pastors have an especially challenging task Often congregations blame their pastors for longstanding problems that existed in the church even before the pastor came Pastors suffer from depression and burnout at an astonishing rate and the pressure to meet the many demands of ministry can be extremely stressful Their family life suffers and often they feel beaten down and discouraged Grounded in his own real life experiences in serving churches Howard Rice extends hope and insight for pastors and urges them to return to the reason for being in ministry to help people find their way to God Soul care is the heart of a pastor's work and the role of spiritual guide is the most important and life fulfilling task of a pastor Renew your heart for ministry with this encouraging read A New Old Spirituality? Tone Stangeland Kaufman, 2017-07-11 How do pastors live their spiritual lives both as private persons and as professionals How can their spirituality be characterized and understood Drawing on in depth interviews with Norwegian clergy as well as literature from the fields of Christian spirituality practical theology congregational studies and the sociology of religion this book offers a nuanced understanding of clergy spirituality Tone Stangeland Kaufman identifies three locations and sources of spiritual nurture for pastors the ministry itself vocational spirituality daily life everyday spirituality and spiritual practices located at the margins of daily life intentional spirituality The participants in this study engage in classic Christian practices yet approach them in a subjective and new way that also potentially revitalizes their spiritual lives Hence the author makes the case that their spirituality can aptly be described as a new old spirituality The book also seeks to nuance Paul Heelas's and Linda Woodhead's Spiritual Revolution claim and thus engages in the broader spirituality vs religion discourse A New Old Spirituality is an exciting example of how qualitative empirical research can be used in creative ways to make a practical theological argument It is a book for scholars students and practitioners Religion as a Profession Hans Schilderman, 2005-09-01 This volume offers a conceptual and empirical study of the religious profession It takes as its point of departure professionalisation theory that is discussed and applied to a profession in mainstream religion in this case Dutch Catholic ministry The book entails a well documented empirical study of attitudes of clergy and lay personnel in the Dutch Roman Catholic Church regarding the pastoral profession Their attitudes towards church authority apostolicity sacramental efficacy accession to the office and spiritual role are described extensively The research clarifies the extent to which these religious attitudes act as a positive or negative motif to engage in policies that are aimed at a professional development of the occupation The book offers an excellent insight into basic characteristics of a religious profession The God of the Pastor Gerard Zuidberg, 2021-10-01 This publication is the result of an extensive study based on 30 in depth interviews with priests and pastoral workers in Holland An account is given of their relationship with God Jesus and the Holy Spirit their prayer life reflective practice and lifestyle in other words the shape of the spirituality of Dutch pastors Attention is also given to the relation between their spirituality and their ministry How do they influence one another The main focus on the descriptions is on the imagery used by pastors to speak of their spirituality and ministry The Pastor Gordon W.
