Pat Barker's Regeneration A Readers Guide:

Pat Barker's Regeneration Karin Westman, 2001-09-12 Continuum Contemporaries will be a wonderful source of ideas and inspiration for members of book clubs and readings groups as well as for literature students. The aim of the series is to give readers accessible and informative introductions to 30 of the most popular, most acclaimed and most influential novels of recent years. A team of contemporary fiction scholars from both sides of the Atlantic has been assembled to provide a thorough and readable analysis of each of the novels in question. The books in the series will all follow the same structure: a biography of the novelist including other works, influences and in some cases an interview; a full-length study of the novel drawing out the most important themes and ideas; a summary of how the novel was received upon publication; a summary of how the novel has performed since publication including film or TV adaptations, literary prizes etc; a wide range of suggestions for further reading including websites and discussion forums and a list of questions for reading groups to discuss.

Critical Perspectives on Pat Barker Sharon Monteith, 2005 These essays cover the work and career of Pat Barker providing insight into her novels from Union Street 1982 through the Regeneration trilogy 1991-95 to Double Vision 2003. The essays are organized into Writing, Working Class Women, Dialogue under Pressure, Men at War, The Talking Cure and Regenerating the Wasteland. The Fiction of Pat Barker Merritt Moseley, 2014-05-28 Pat Barker is one of the most important authors of her time. Her fiction has won many awards including the Booker Prize for The Ghost Road, the last novel in her celebrated Regeneration trilogy and has attracted much critical attention. This stimulating Guide examines the key critical responses to the full range of Barker's fiction from newspaper reviews and journal articles to revealing interviews and book-length scholarship. Merritt Moseley also explores the central themes which run through Barker's novels and the criticism such as the issues of gender, class, social realism, violence and trauma. Tracing the development of Barker's fiction through the surrounding critical works, this is an indispensable volume for anyone with an interest in one of Britain's most popular and widely studied contemporary writers. Reciprocal Haunting: Pat Barker's Regeneration Trilogy Karen Patrick Knutsen,

Reading behind the lines Natasha Alden, 2015-11-01 This book takes the concept of postmemory developed in Holocaust studies and applies it for the first time to novels by contemporary British writers. Focusing on war fiction, Alden builds upon current scholarship on historical fiction and memory studies and extends the field by exploring how the use of historical research within fiction illuminates the ways in which we remember and recreate the past. Using postmemory to unlock both the transgenerational aspects of the novels discussed and the development of historiographic metafiction, Alden provides a ground-breaking analysis of the nature and potential of contemporary historical fiction. By examining the patterns and motivations behind authors' translations of material from the historical record into fiction, Alden also asks to what extent such writing is necessarily metafictional. Ultimately, this study offers an updated answer to the question that historical fiction has always posed: what can fiction do with history that history cannot. Pat Barker John Brannigan, 2005 This book offers
