Pataphysics The Poetics Of An Imaginary Science Avant Garde And Modernism Studies:

'Pataphysics Christian Bok,2002 Christian Bok is a Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council Fellow affiliated with the Poetics Program at SUNY Buffalo Bok is the author of Crystallography Book I of Information Theory a nominee for the Gerald Lampert Memorial Award given for best poetic debut He has published numerous articles on Canadian avant garde poetry in Open Letter Canadian Literature and Studies in Canadian Literature and his own experimental poetry has been frequently anthologized appearing most recently in Imagining Language Vibrant Architecture Rachel Armstrong,2015-08-17 This book sets out the conditions under which the need for a new approach to the production of architecture in the twenty first century is established where our homes and cities are facing increasing pressures from environmental challenges that are compromising our lives and well being Vibrant architecture embodies a new kind of architectural design practice that explores how lively materials or vibrant matter may be incorporated into our buildings to confer on them some of the properties of living things such as movement growth sensitivity and self repair The theoretical and practical implications of how this may occur are explored through the application of a new group of materials Characteristically these substances possess some of the properties of living systems but may not have the full status of being truly alive They include forms of chemical artificial life such as dynamic droplets or synthetically produced soils As complex systems they are able to communicate directly with the natural world using a shared language of chemistry and so negotiate their continued survival in a restless world Vibrant architecture may create new opportunities for architectural design practice that venture beyond top down form finding programs by enabling architects to co design in partnership with human and nonhuman collectives which result from the production of post natural landscapes Ultimately vibrant architecture may operate as an ecological platform for human development that augments the liveliness of our planet rather than diminishes it

Avant-garde Canadian Literature Gregory Brian Betts,2013-01-01 In Avant Garde Canadian Literature Gregory Betts draws attention to the fact that the avant garde has had a presence in Canada long before the country s literary histories have recognized and that the radicalism of avant garde art has been sabotaged by pedestrian terms of engagement by the Canadian media the public and the literary critics This book presents a rich body of evidence to illustrate the extent to which Canadians have been producing avant garde art since the start of the twentieth century Betts explores the radical literary ambitions and achievements of three different nodes of avant garde literary activity mystical revolutionaries from the 1910s to the 1930s Surrealists Automatists from the 1920s to the 1960s and Canadian Vorticists from the 1920s to the 1970s Avant Garde Canadian Literature offers an entrance into the vocabulary of the ongoing and primarily international debate surrounding the idea of avant gardism providing readers with a functional vocabulary for discussing some of the most hermetic and yet energetic literature ever produced in this country Avant Canada Gregory Betts,Christian Bök,2019-01-10 Avant Canada presents a rich collection of original essays and creative works on a representative array of avant garde literary movements in Canada from the past fifty years From the work of Leonard Cohen and bpNichol to that of Jordan Abel and Liz Howard Avant Canada features twenty eight of the best writers and critics in the field The book proposes four dominant modes of avant garde production Concrete Poetics which accentuates the visual and material aspects of language Language Writing which challenges the interconnection between words and things Identity Writing which interrogates the self and its sociopolitical position and Copyleft Poetics which undermines our habitual assumptions about the ownership of expression A fifth section commemorates the importance of the Centennial in the 1960s at a time when avant garde cultures in Canada began to emerge Readers of this book will become familiar with some of the most challenging works of literature and their creators that this country has ever produced From Concrete Poetry in the 1960s through to Indigenous Literature in the 2010s Avant Canada offers the most sweeping study of the literary avant garde in Canada to date

Rain Taxi Review of Books ,2000 'Pataphysics Unrolled Katie L. Price,Michael R. Taylor,2022-04-08 In the 1890s French poet and playwright Alfred Jarry founded pataphysics the absurdist science of imaginary solutions a concept that has been nominally recognized as the precursor to Dadaism Surrealism and the Theater of the Absurd among other movements Over a century after Jarry made the gesture of dying Katie L Price and Michael R Taylor argue that it is time to take the comedic intervention of pataphysics seriously Pataphysics Unrolled collects critical and creative essays to create an unauthorized account of pataphysical experimentation from its origins in the late nineteenth century through the contemporary moment Reaching beyond the geographic and cultural boundaries normally associated with pataphysics this volume presents rich readings of pataphysical syzygy traces the influence of pataphysics across disciplines and outside of coteries such as the Coll ge de Pataphysique and asks fundamental questions about the field of modern and contemporary studies that challenge distinctions between the modern and the postmodern high and low culture the serious and the comic Touching on disciplines such as literature art architecture education music and technology this book reveals how pataphysics has been a platform and medium for persistent intellectual poetic conceptual and artistic experimentation for over a century In addition to the editors the contributors to this volume include Charles Bernstein Marc D cimo Adam Dickinson Johanna Drucker Craig Dworkin Catherine Hansen James Hendler John Heon Ted Hiebert Andrew Hugill Steve McCaffery Seth McDowell Jerome McGann Anne M Mulhall Marcus O Dair Jean Michel Rabat Orchid Tierney and Brandon Walsh

'Pataphysics Andrew Hugill,2012 The first complete account in English of the evolution of pataphysics from its French origins with explications of key ideas and excerpts from primary sources presented in reverse chronological order Of all the French cultural exports over the last 150 years or so pataphysics the science of imaginary solutions and the laws governing exceptions has proven to be one of the most durable Originating in the wild imagination of French poet and playwright Alfred Jarry and his schoolmates resisting clear definition purposefully useless and almost impossible to understand pataphysics nevertheless lies around the roots of Absurdism Dada futurism surrealism situationism and other key cultural developments of the twentieth century In this account of the evolution and influence of pataphysics Andrew Hugill offers an informed exposition of a rich and difficult territory staying aloft on a tightrope stretched between the twin dangers of oversimplifying a serious subject and taking a joke too seriously Drawing on more than twenty five years research Hugill maps the pataphysical presence partly conscious and acknowledged but largely unconscious and unacknowledged in literature theater music the visual arts and the culture at large and even detects pataphysical influence in the social sciences and the sciences He offers many substantial excerpts in English translation from primary sources intercalated with a thorough explication of key themes and events of pataphysical history In a Jarryesque touch he provides these in reverse chronological order beginning with a survey of pataphysics in the digital age and working backward to Jarry and beyond He looks specifically at the work of Jean Baudrillard Georges Perec Italo Calvino J G Ballard Asger Jorn Gilles Deleuze Roger Shattuck Jacques Prévert Antonin Artaud René Clair the Marx Brothers Joan Mir Max Ernst Marcel Duchamp James Joyce Flann O'Brien Raymond Roussel Jean Pierre Brisset and many others Pataphysical Essays René Daumal,2012 The Imaginary Present Amy Catanzano,2025

Adventures in 'pataphysics Alfred Jarry,2001 The first of two volumes that will finally bring all of Jarry's works into English It begins with his two privately printed books Black Minutes of Memorial Sand and Caesar Antichrist followed by philosophical practical and aesthetic essays To be and To Live Time in Art It concludes with Jarry's own selection of journalism texts which indulge in wild speculation and black humour Andre Breton coined the latter term in order to describe them This collection helps explain his importance to the appearance of the modern movement in French literature
