Eleanor Phillips Brackbill,2012-09-01 Three mysteries precipitate an investigation into an otherwise ordinary suburban property revealing a past inextricably woven into four centuries of American history When Eleanor Phillips Brackbill bought her suburban Westchester house in 2000 three mysteries came with it First from the former owner came the information that the 1930s house was a Sears house or something like that Thrilled to think it might be a Sears Roebuck Co mail order house Brackbill was determined to find evidence to prove it She found instead a house pedigree of a different sort Second and even more provocative was the discovery of several iron stakes protruding from the property's enormous granite outcropping bigger in square footage than the house itself When queried about them the former owner told her Someone a long time ago kept monkeys there chained to the stakes Monkeys Was this some kind of suburban legend A third mystery came to light at closing when a building inspectors letter contained a reference to the house having had at one time a different address Why would the house have had another address Her curiosity aroused and intent upon finding the facts Brackbill gradually peeled back layers of history allowing the house and the land to tell their stories and uncovering a past inextricably woven into four centuries of American history At the same time she found thirty two owners across 350 years who had just one thing in common ownership of a particular parcel of land An Uncommon Cape not only tells the story of an eight year odyssey of fact finding and speculation but also answers the broader question What came before and through material presented in twenty two sidebars offers readers I Am a Patchwork Quilt

Ana Maria Ward,2013-06 I am a Patchwork Quilt is a compilation of writings of the nouns names of people places and things that touched the life of the author Ana Maria Ward formerly an English teacher While writing her first novel a biography about her father Gordon F Ward Uncommon Survivor from Sand to Bronze the author became inspired with the idea to write about those people who touched her life in the places where she lived from her birth to the present Although her father was ill he read some of the first chapters or patches and encouraged her to continue with her theme during the final days of his life He approved the concept of the author as the quilt made up of patches representing everyone involved in her life Some of them were linked to him Determined to please her father the author wanted I am a Patchwork Quilt to be an uplifting experience for her readers Related to the degrees of separation each person or patch has a unique relationship to the author and as in life some with seriousness and some with humor In reality every person is unique and relationships are unique The patches in I Am a Patchwork Quilt are connected to the reader in various amusing ways The reader may laugh the reader may cry but the reader will be moved to find that around the world people will feel warm when magically involved in the blanket of love The Romance of the Patchwork Quilt in America Carrie A.
