Knowledge William C. Chittick, 2010-03-31 Ibn al Arabi is still known as the Great Sheik among the surviving Sufi orders Born in Muslim Spain he has become famous in the West as the greatest mystical thinker of Islamic civilization He was a great philosopher theologian and poet William Chittick takes a major step toward exposing the breadth and depth of Ibn al Arabi's vision The book offers his view of spiritual perfection and explains his theology ontology epistemology hermeneutics and soteriology The clear language unencumbered by methodological jargon makes it accessible to those familiar with other spiritual traditions while its scholarly precision will appeal to specialists Beginning with a survey of Ibn al Arabi's major teachings the book gradually introduces the most important facets of his thought devoting attention to definitions of his basic terminology His teachings are illustrated with many translated passages introducing readers to fascinating byways of spiritual life that would not ordinarily be encountered in an account of a thinker's ideas Ibn al Arabi is allowed to describe in detail the visionary world from which his knowledge derives and to express his teachings in his own words More than 600 passages from his major work al Futuhat al Makkiyya are translated here practically for the first time These alone provide twice the text of the Fusus al hikam The exhaustive indexes make the work an invaluable reference tool for research in Sufism and Islamic thought in general

Sufism and Zen in the West Saeko Yazaki, Michael Conway, 2025-02-20 Historically and culturally Sufism and Zen may not seem to have anything in common However in the West their spiritual messages are often perceived as strikingly similar In this book scholars analyse the ways in which Sufism and Zen were introduced to and developed in the West The collection shows that the popularity of these religions arose not because of the substantive shared elements within the two traditions but because their promoters in the West employed similar strategies to respond to the interests of a modern Western audience The first book to make a close comparison of Sufism and Zen this study is an important contribution to understanding Western religious life and processes of easternisation It sheds new light on how Sufism and Zen came to represent a spirituality that is both countercultural and in touch with modern sensitivities

Al-Qushayri's Epistle on Sufism 'Abd al-Karīm ibn Hawāzin Qushayrī, 2007 Provides an insight into the everyday lives of Sufi devotees of the eighth eleventh centuries and the moral and ethical dilemmas they were facing This work invites the reader to explore the world of Islamic ascetic and mystical piety

The eternal flame is not a metaphor it is a living current running through the heart of every authentic spiritual tradition In 105 Esoteric Traditions of the World Book VII The Flame That Cannot Die Laing Z Matthews takes readers into the heart of humanity's oldest and most enduring symbol the light that never goes out This is the seventh installment in the acclaimed 105 Esoteric Traditions series weaving together wisdom from across continents cultures and centuries to show how mystics initiates and sages have guarded and transmitted the fire of spiritual awakening From the temple fires of Zoroastrianism to the Lamp of the Heart in Sufi poetry from the Phoenix myths of Egypt and China to the unconsumed bush of the Hebrew mystics this book is a pilgrimage through the symbols rites and living practices that keep the soul's inner flame alive Matthews draws on a lifetime of study in comparative religion esoteric philosophy and meditative practice to explore the unbroken chain of initiates who have tended the spark not only for themselves but for future generations Inside you will discover The universal archetype of the flame and its many cultural expressions How fire is used in initiation rites to mark spiritual rebirth The role of hidden lineages in preserving sacred teachings during times of darkness Mystical accounts of those who have seen or carried the inner flame in altered states dreams and near death experiences Practical meditations and contemplations to awaken and strengthen the flame within The relationship between personal transformation and the collective world fire of spiritual renewal More than a survey The Flame That Cannot Die is an invitation to recognize the same light in yourself that has burned in the hearts of saints shamans and sages Matthews prose combines scholarly precision with poetic insight making complex ideas accessible without diluting their depth This volume speaks to readers of all backgrounds whether you follow a specific tradition or simply seek a deeper connection to the mystery that animates life It will appeal to practitioners of meditation comparative religion enthusiasts historians of spirituality and anyone drawn to the timeless image of the unquenchable fire In an age where distraction and disconnection threaten to dim the soul's awareness this book is both a map and a torch By tracing the threads of the flame through 105 distinct esoteric traditions Matthews shows that this symbol is not confined to any one religion it is a shared inheritance of humanity a guiding light that cannot be extinguished The flame is already within you This book will help you tend it     Encyclopædia of Religion and Ethics: Suffering-Zwingli James Hastings, John Alexander Selbie, Louis Herbert Gray, 1922 Scope theology philosophy ethics of various religions and ethical systems and relevant portions of anthropology mythology folklore biology psychology economics and sociology     Performing Post-Tariqa Sufism Esra Çizmeci, 2023-11-10 This ethnographic research project examines the generation of post tariqa Tasavvuf Sufism a spiritual practice and philosophy recognised as the inner dimension of Islam in a variety of private semi public public secular and sacred urban spaces in present day Turkey Through extensive field research in minority Sufi communities this book investigates how devotees of specific orders maintain adapt mobilise and empower their beliefs and values through embodied acts of their Sufi followers Using an ethnographic methodology and theories derived from performance studies Esra izmeci examines the multiple ways in which the post tariqa Mevlevi and Rifai practice is formed in present day Turkey such as through the authority of the spiritual teacher the individual and collective performance of Sufi rituals nefs self training and most importantly the practice of Sufi doctrines in everyday life through the production of sacred spaces Drawing on the theories of performance she examines how the Sufi way of living and spaces are created anew in the process of each devotee s embodied action This book is informed by theories in performance studies anthropology religious studies and cultural studies and places current Sufi practices in a historical perspective Swami Vivekananda and Non-Hindu Traditions Stephen E. Gregg, 2019-03-15 The Hindu thinker Swami Vivekananda 1863 1902 was and remains an important figure both within India and in the West where he was notable for preaching Vedanta Scholarship surrounding Vivekananda is dominated by hagiography and his mis appropriation by the political Hindu Right This work demonstrates that Vivekananda was no simplistic pluralist as portrayed in hagiographical texts nor narrow exclusivist as portrayed by some modern Hindu nationalists but a thoughtful complex inclusivist The book shows that Vivekananda formulated a hierarchical and inclusivistic framework of Hinduism based upon his interpretations of a four fold system of Yoga It goes on to argue that Vivekananda understood his formulation of Vedanta to be universal and applied it freely to non Hindu traditions and in so doing demonstrates that Vivekananda was consistently critical of low level spirituality not only in non Hindu traditions but also within Hinduism Demonstrating that Vivekananda is best understood within the context of Advaitic primacy rather than Hindu chauvinism this book will be of interest to scholars of Hinduism and South Asian religion and of South Asian diaspora communities and religious studies more generally The Shaping Shaikh Dejan Aždajić, 2020-01-20 Islam is more than a system of rigid doctrines and normative principles It is a diverse mosaic of subjective often contradictory interpretations and discrepant applications that prohibit a narrow one dimensional approach This book argues that to uncover this complex reality and achieve a more accurate understanding of Islam as a lived religion it is imperative to consider Islam from the point of view of human beings who practice their faith Consequently this book provides an important contribution through a detailed ethnographic study of two contemporary Sufi communities Although both groups shared much in common there was a fundamental almost perplexing range of theological convictions and ritual implementations This book explores the mechanism that accounts for such diversity arguing for a direct correlation between Sufi multiformity and the agency of the spiritual leader the Shaikh Empirical research regarding the authority by which Shaikhs subjectively generate legitimate adaptations that shape the contours of religious belief are lacking This study is significant because it focuses on how leadership operates in Sufism highlighting the primacy of the Shaikh in the selection and appropriation of inherited norms      No Shame for the Sun Shahla Haeri, 2002-11-01 This groundbreaking work sheds new light on the status conflicts and social realities of educated Muslim women in Pakistan Six candid interviews introduce readers to a class of professional Muslim women that is rarely if ever acknowledged in the West These women tell of conflicts and compromises with family kin and community while facing violence archaic marriage rules and locally entrenched codes of conduct With brave eloquence they speak of human dignity and gender equality of economic deprivation and social justice and of feminism and fundamentalism Challenging stereotypes No Shame for the Sun reveals the uniqueness of each person and diversity in the life experience of Pakistani Muslim women including their world views and the struggles to change their society Through their struggles professional Pakistani women have become conscious of their own and other women's situations in their country Because they exercise power and authority in their chosen fields they risk losing their families support and antagonizing their communities Carefully detailed and meticulously researched this book offers a much needed perspective on the changing circumstances of Pakistani women along with a view of established patterns and structural constraints within Pakistan On a broader level it examines Western misconceptions regarding Islam a religion that crosses many borders and cultures      Producing Islam(s) in Canada Amélie Barras, Jennifer A. Selby, Melanie Adrian, 2021-12-02 During the last twenty years public interest in Islam and how Muslims express their religious identity in Western societies has grown exponentially In parallel the study of Islam in the Canadian academy has grown in a number of fields since the 1970s reflecting a diverse range of scholarship positionalities and politics Yet academic research on Muslims in Canada has not been systematically assessed In Producing Islam s in Canada scholars from a wide range of disciplines come together to explore what is at stake regarding portrayals of Islam s and Muslims in academic scholarship Given the centrality of representations of Canadian Muslims in current public policy and public imaginaries which effects how all Canadians experience religious diversity this analysis of knowledge production comes at a crucial time      The Nation ,1913
