Quarterly Essay 81 Getting to Zero Alan Finkel,2021-03-22 The world is overheating and despite good intentions and significant efforts emissions increase nearly every year The challenge is immense but there are solutions In this lucid inspiring essay Alan Finkel maps Australia s path forward He explains the solar and wind revolution and addresses the challenge of intermittent supply He introduces hydrogen the energy hope of the future He traces the rise and rise of the electric car He shows how we can build a zero emissions world Taking into account economics science and emotions Getting to Zero is an essential guide to how Australia can tackle the climate crisis with realism and ingenuity Change is in the air I sense we will live through a technological revolution this decade as exciting as the conquest of space in the 1960s If Australia handles the challenge well we can build an economy that takes advantage of the transition If we cling to the past we will miss opportunities that the rest of the world will seize Alan Finkel Getting to Zero

Bicultural Versatility as a Frontier Adaptation Among Paliyan Foragers of South India Peter M. Gardner,2000

Becoming Bicultural Paul R. Smokowski,Martica Bacallao,2011-02-08 Although the United States has always been a nation of immigrants the recent demographic shifts resulting in burgeoning young Latino and Asian populations have literally changed the face of the nation This wave of massive immigration has led to a nationwide struggle with the need to become bicultural a difficult and sometimes painful process of navigating between ethnic cultures While some Latino adolescents become alienated and turn to antisocial behavior and substance use others go on to excel in school have successful careers and build healthy families Drawing on both quantitative and qualitative data ranging from surveys to extensive interviews with immigrant families Becoming Bicultural explores the individual psychology family dynamics and societal messages behind bicultural development and sheds light on the factors that lead to positive or negative consequences for immigrant youth Paul R Smokowski and Martica Bacallao illuminate how immigrant families and American communities in general become bicultural and use their bicultural skills to succeed in their new surroundings The volume concludes by offering a model for intervention with immigrant teens and their families which enhances their bicultural skills

Teacher Leadership for Social Change in Bilingual and Bicultural Education Deborah Palmer, 2018-08-17

Leadership takes on a tone of urgency when we are struggling for justice At the same time the right to lead the agency to embrace a leadership identity can also feel more distant when we are marginalized by the dominant society For bilingual education teachers working with immigrant communities the development of critical consciousness pride in the cultural and linguistic resources of the bilingual community the vocabulary to name and face marginalization and a strong professional network are fundamental to their development of professional identities as leaders and advocates Based on the experiences of 53 Spanish English bilingual teachers in Central Texas this book aims to explore define and understand bilingual teacher leadership It merges the themes of leadership teacher preparation and bilingual education and is essential reading for bilingual or ESL teachers teacher educators and researchers serving an increasingly transnational translingual student body

Sociolinguistic Perspectives on Bilingual Education Christina Bratt Paulston, 1992 An anthology of articles on ethnic bilingualism and bilingual education from a sociolinguistic perspective It covers theoretical paradigms primarily structural functionalism and group conflict theory and the problem formulations in BE typical of the paradigms practical research methodology and a number of exemplificatory case studies Intercultural Discourse and Communication Scott F.

Kiesling, Christina Bratt Paulston, 2008-04-15 Intercultural Discourse and Communication The Essential Readings is a collection of articles that discuss major theoretical approaches case studies of cultural and sub cultural contact from around the globe issues of identity in bicultural individuals and the real world implications of intercultural contact and conflict Collects articles that describe and analyze discourse and communication in several channels including spoken written and signed Considers various group organizations such as culture subculture gender race ethnicity social class age and region Includes brief introductions to each section by the editors that explain main concepts Contains discussion questions that enhance the book's value for courses

Negotiating Bilingual and Bicultural Identities Yasuko Kanno, 2003-05-14 This book examines the changing linguistic and cultural identities of bilingual students through the narratives of four Japanese returnees kikokushijo as they spent their adolescent years in North America and then returned to Japan to attend university

As adolescents these students were polarized toward one language and culture over the other but through a period of difficult readjustment in Japan they became increasingly more sophisticated in negotiating their identities and more appreciative of their hybrid selves Kanno analyzes how educational institutions both in their host and home countries societal recognition or devaluation of bilingualism and the students own maturation contributed to shaping and transforming their identities over time Using narrative inquiry and communities of practice as a theoretical framework she argues that it is possible for bilingual individuals to learn to strike a balance between two languages and cultures Negotiating Bilingual and Bicultural Identities Japanese Returnees Betwixt Two Worlds is a longitudinal study of bilingual and bicultural identities unlike most studies of bilingual learners this book follows the same bilingual youths from adolescence to young adulthood documents student perspectives redressing the neglect of student voice in much educational research and offering educators an understanding of what the experience of learning English and becoming bilingual and bicultural looks like from the students point of view and contributes to the study of language culture and identity by demonstrating that for bilingual individuals identity is not a simple choice of one language and culture but an ongoing balancing act of multiple languages and cultures This book will interest researchers educators and graduate students who are concerned with the education and personal growth of bilingual learners and will be useful as text for courses in ESL bilingual education TESOL applied linguistics and multicultural education

Bicultural Literature and Film in French and English Peter I. Barta, Phil Powrie, 2015-12-22 This book focuses on literature and cinema in English or French by authors and directors not working in their native language Artists with hybrid identities have become a defining phenomenon of contemporary reality following the increased mobility between civilisations during the postcolonial period and the waves of emigration to the West Cinema and prose fiction remain the most popular sources of cultural consumption not least owing to the adaptability of both to the new electronic media This volume considers cultural products in English and French in which the explicitly multi focal representation of authors experiences of their native languages cultures makes itself conspicuous The essays explore work by the peripheral and those without a country while problematising what might be meant by the widely used but not always well defined term bicultural The first section looks at films by such well known filmmakers working in France as Bouchareb Kechiche Legzouli and Dridi as well as the animated feature Persepolis Here the focus is on the representation of human experience in spatial terms exploring the appropriation of territory cohabited by local people newcomers and their children haunted by the cultural memories of distant places The second part is devoted to multicultural authors whose native language was English Russian Polish Hungarian or Spanish Beckett Herzen Voeikova Triolet Conrad Hoffmann Kristof Dorfman and their creative engagement with difference A study of the emergence of multilingual writing in Montaigne and an autobiographical essay by Elleke Boehmer on growing up surrounded by English Dutch Afrikaans and Zulu frame the volume s chapters The collection relishes the freedom provided by liberation from the confines of one language and culture and the delight in creative multilingualism This book will be of significant interest to those studying the subject of biculturalism as well as the fields of comparative literature and cinema     The Power of Parents Edward M. Olivos, 2006 Textbook
