Pathetic Fallacy:

Wallace Stevens Harold Bloom, 1980 Offers authoritative readings of the major long poems and sequences exploring their relationship to one another and to the works of Stevens precursors A Grammar of Motives Kenneth Burke, 1969-10 What is involved when we say what people are doing and why they are doing it An answer to that question is the subject of this book Mr Burke as quoted on the cover Theocritus: A Selection Theocritus, 1999-02-04 This is the first full scale commentary on poems by Theocritus since Gow's edition of 1950 and the first to exploit the recent revolution in the study of Hellenistic and Roman poetry the poems included in this volume Idylls 1 3 4 6 7 10 11 and 13 are principally the bucolic poems which through their influence on Virgil established the Western pastoral tradition The focus of the commentary is literary both on how Theocritus exploited the classical heritage for a new type of poetry and on what that poetry meant in the third century BC The commentary together with the introductory essays to each poem makes a major contribution to the understanding of this extraordinary poetic form The Introduction explores the meaning of bucolic the presentation of a stylised countryside the importance of eros in the bucolic world and Theocritus verbal and metrical style Art and Memory in the Work of Elizabeth Bishop Jonathan Ellis, 2006 This book opens a welcome new direction in Elizabeth Bishop studies and in the study of women poets generally by urging a more thorough scrutiny of artistic memory Drawing on published works and unpublished material overlooked by many critics Ellis balances consideration of Bishop's life in the United States with discussion of how her Canadian upbringing influenced her art Key Terms in Semiotics Bronwen Martin, 2006-06-02 Provides information that a student needs when encountering semiotics for the first time or as a more advanced reader wishing to do in depth semiotic readings This book provides a brief historical overview of the field an explanation of semiotic theory key term definitions outlines of the work of key thinkers and key readings for students A Companion to William Wordsworth Sunil Kumar Sarker, 2003 This Is Perhaps The Most Comprehensive Book On Wordsworth Having Discussions On Most Of The Different Dimensions Of The Poet As A Critic A Poetic Theorist A Great Lover Of Nature A Humanist And As A Philosopher In This Book Twelve Most Important Poems Of The Poet His Five Lucy Poems And Also His Six Sonnets Have Been Thoroughly Discussed And The Texts Of All The 23 Poems Have Been Given In The Three Appendices The Texts Of Wordsworth's Three Most Important Literary Essays Preface To Lyrical Ballads 1802 Appendix On Poetic Diction And Essay Supplementary To The Preface Have Been Given For The Reader's Ready References The Author Has Shunned All Pedantry Anywhere In The Book His Primary Objective Being Introduction Of Wordsworth To The Generality Of Readers References Have Always Been Cited Whenever Quotations From Critics Books Have Been Appropriated Contents Vol 1 Preface Life And Works Twelve Select Poems Of Wordsworth The Five Lucy Poems Of Wordsworth Six Select Sonnets Of Wordsworth Wordsworth As A Romantic Poet Wordsworth's Theory Of Poetry Wordsworth As A Poet Of Nature Contents Vol 2 Wordsworth As A Poet Of Humanity Wordsworth As A Philosophical Poet Wordsworth's Style Wordsworth As A Critic

Riede, 2005 Perhaps because major Victorians like Thomas Carlyle and Matthew Arnold proscribed Romantic melancholy as morbidly diseased and unsuitable for poetic expression critics have neglected or understated the central importance of melancholy in Victorian poetry Allegories of One's Own Mind re-directs our attention to a mode that Arnold was rejecting as morbid but also acknowledging when he disparaged the widely current idea that the highest ambition of poetry should be to present an allegory of the poet's own mind This book shows how early Victorian poets suffered from and railed against what they perceived to be a disabling post

Wordsworthian melancholy we might refer to it as depression and yet benefited from this self absorbed or love obsessed state which ironically made them more productive David G Riede argues that the dominant thematic and formal concerns of the age in fact are embodied in the ambivalence of Carlyle Arnold and others who pitted a Victorian ideology of duty rationality and high moral character against a still compelling Romantic cultivation of the deep self intuited as melancholy Such ambivalence in fact is in itself constitutive of melancholy long understood as the product of conscience raging against inchoate desire and it constitutes the mood of the age s most important poetry represented here in the major works of Alfred Tennyson Elizabeth Barrett Browning and even in the notoriously optimistic Robert Browning David G Riede is professor of English at The Ohio State University      Inspirations Unbidden Daniel A. argues that an understanding of Victorianism's reception of Dante is essential for understanding its notions of history, nationalism, aesthetics, and gender, as well as the often strange intersections between any two or more of them. She offers a new genealogy of literature in modern times, substituting a continuous Dantism for the conventional tale of Victorian realism and historicism challenged by modernist symbolism. She also finds Dante to be the first writer to historicize, fictionalize, and humanize the eternal realm, and therefore the route through which history secularized fiction and positivist humanism can be traced to a lost transcendent. The Nature and Elements of Poetry Edmund Clarence Stedman, 1892

Meaning in Landscape Architecture and Gardens Marc Treib, 2011-03-01

While we all live our lives in designed landscapes of various types, only on occasion do we consider what these landscapes mean to us and how they have acquired that significance. Can a landscape architect or garden designer really imbue new settings with meaning, or does meaning evolve over time, created by those who perceive and use these landscapes? What role does the selection and arrangement of plants and hard materials play in this process, and just where does the passage of time enter into the equation? These questions collectively provide the core material for Meaning in Landscape Architecture and Gardens, a compendium of four landmark essays written over a period of twenty years by leading scholars in the field of landscape architecture. New commentaries by the authors accompany each of the essays and reflect on the thinking behind them, as well as the evolution of the author's thoughts since their original publication. Although the central theme of these writings is landscape architecture, broadly taken, the principal subject of several essays and commentaries is the garden, a subject historically plentiful in allusions and metaphors. As a whole, Meaning in Landscape Architecture and Gardens offers the general reader, as well as the professional, a rich source of ideas about the designed landscape and the ways by which we perceive, consider, react, and dwell within them, and what they mean to us. The essays have been perennial favorites in landscape courses since their original publication in Landscape Journal. Bringing them together, bolstered by the new commentaries, creates a book valuable to all those creating gardens and landscapes, as well as those teaching and studying these subjects.
