Recovering From Rape:

Recovering From Rape Linda E. Ledray, 1994-08-15 If you have been sexually assaulted you are probably experiencing a mix of fear anger and depression If you are a relative friend or lover of someone who has been assaulted you too may be deeply affected by the incident and by the survivor s reaction to it However working together survivors and their loved ones can recover and may even be able to turn the recovery into an opportunity for positive change and growth This comprehensive handbook offers emotional support and practical guidance in overcoming the trauma of rape It explains what to expect at the police station at the hospital and if necessary in court and it helps readers learn the most effective ways of dealing with their feelings immediately following an assault during the subsequent few months and beyond The experiences of survivors recounted throughout the book reassure readers that others have pulled through Dr Ledray helps survivors realize that no matter what they did wore a low cut blouse accepted a ride from a stranger invited an acquaintance home they did not deserve to be raped She guides them from guilt or disbelief through bitterness and despair to the decision to take back control of their lives Resurrection After Rape Matt Atkinson, 2008-06 A top selling best reviewed book about women s recovery from rape trauma Resurrection After Rape is an ideal resource for counselors treatment centers college course texts and survivors of rape Recovering from Rape Linda E. Ledray, 1986 Practical advice on overcoming the trauma and coping with police hospitals and court for survivors of sexual assault and for their families lovers and friends Cover subtitle Rape and Sexual Assault Rebecca T. Klein, 2013-07-15 It is estimated that almost 1 3 million women and girls in the United States are raped each year Fifty four percent of rapes go unreported and 97 percent of rapists are never incarcerated for their crimes This guide to coping with rape and sexual assault takes readers by the hand and guides them through the survival process whether the reader is a victim or the friend of a victim Beginning with what to expect when reporting the crime and ending with becoming an activist in order to help others this guide is a must read for any individual who needs information and support The Rape Recovery Handbook Aphrodite Matsakis, 2003 Presents a guide to coping with rape that includes how to create a plan for recovery build a supportive network deal with conflicting emotions and encourage the reconstruction of the event in order to weaken its power over the survivor Recovery Helen Benedict, 1994-12-08 Recovery Reclaiming Your Life After Rape : Cognitive-Behavioral Therapy for Posttraumatic Stress Disorder Client Workbook Barbara Olasov Rothbaum Associate Professor in Psychiatry and Director of the Trauma and Anxiety Recovery Program Emory University School of Medicine, and Director Edna B. Foa Professor, Center for Treatment and Study of Anxiety Allegheny University of Health Sciences, 2004-11-11 This powerful client workbook is written in an encouraging and easy to understand style specifically for women who have been sexually assaulted and have developed chronic symptoms of posttraumatic stress disorder PTSD Clients learn how cognitive behavioral therapy has helped other victims and how it can work for them This book explains how to distinguish PTSD symptoms from other disorders and teaches powerful techniques for overcoming these symptoms In writing this book the authors aim to address two goals First they want to present information about PTSD and related problems in language understandable to nonprofessionals This information will include a review of the studies on posttrauma problems and on the effectiveness of different treatments They also describe why some survivors develop PTSD and others do not The second goal of the book is to provide a detailed client workbook for the treatment of trauma related problems especially PTSD to assist clients working with a therapist The authors are aware of the fact that people have different problems and different needs What works for one person may not work for another Therefore they describe several different treatment techniques The book is organized around the different cognitive behavioral techniques that have been studied and proven effective with women sufferers of PTSD following an assault Throughout the book the authors focus mainly on women who have been sexually assaulted and as a result developed chronic symptoms of PTSD which have disturbed their daily functioning and cause them emotional distress Most of the examples they use to demonstrate the cognitive behavioral techniques are drawn from their experience in treating rape survivors However the cognitive behavioral procedures outlined here have been as successful in helping women who have been sexually abused in childhood and adult female survivors of nonsexual assaults like aggravated assault and robbery Other survivors of traumas such as natural disasters and car accidents were also helped by this cognitive behavioral approach

The Alchemy of Illness Kat Duff,1993 Illness is a universal experience There is no privilege that can make us immune to its touch We are taught to assume health illnesses being just temporary breakdowns in the well oiled machinery of the body But illness has its own geography its own laws and commandments At a time when the attention of the whole nation is focused on health care Kat Duff inquires into the nature and function of illness itself Duff a counselor in private practice in Taos New Mexico wrote this book out of her experience with chronic fatigue syndrome but what she has to say is applicable to every illness and every one of us For those who are sick this book offers solace and recognition For those who care for them either physically or emotionally it offers inspiration and compassion Finally this fresh perspective on healing reveals how every illness is a crucible that tries our mettle tests our limits and provides us with an unparalleled opportunity to integrate its lessons into our lives

Momma, where is God? Betty Williams Craig, 2017 Momma Where Is God Driven to Win is an eye opening story of personal pain growth healing and recovery This book opens up a world of the most intimate hurt and pain that is never talked about after a rape This story addresses the emotional challenges experienced in the struggle of surviving through determination It also gives a comprehensive look at the effects rape had on the family of Betty Williams Craig and the Church world from which she was born and raised From within a dark world she struggled to get out warning others of the silent killer As a survivor Betty wondered why God allowed this to happen to her It took a long time to realize God had a purpose for her life Betty shares how she has overcome robbery rape and the struggles and challenges that followed Momma Where Is God Driven to Win wishes to help society better understand the trauma that victims experience and ways to help them survive and thrive Betty has been empowered to minister to others who are wounded and hurt with a better understanding of God's grace He heals the brokenhearted and bandages their wounds Psalm 147:3 About the Author Betty Williams Craig is the wife of William L Craig a native of New York the mother of three beautiful daughters and the grandmother of six grandchildren After graduating from Columbia High School in Columbia South Carolina she entered Preston Nursing School Betty continued her education by receiving her Associate Degree in Liberal Arts and Science and Bachelor's Degree in Organizational Management from the University of Lynchburg Lynchburg Virginia Betty earned several certifications as well which included Certificate of Achievement from Belk from where she later retired RISE TO THE TOP Certificate Advocate for Victims of Rape and Sexual Assault NATIONAL APARTMENT ASSOCIATION LEASING PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATE OF COMPLETION FAIR HOUSING IN NORTH CAROLINA and many more Volunteering with other organizations associated with the family structure and spiritual awareness was a way for Betty to make a difference and give back to the community and Church Outside of professional interests Betty loves to travel she enjoys bowling baseball fishing singing and loves interacting with people

Free of the Shadows Caren Adams, Jennifer Fay, 1989 Describes the emotional problems faced by rape victims tells how to handle the reactions of friends and family and suggests a path to recovery Engaging Men in the Fight against Gender Violence Jane Freedman, 2012-12-05 Gender based violence is a global phenomenon which affects millions worldwide However despite the increasing attention which is now paid to this violence by policy makers data seem to indicate that these efforts are not having as great an impact as may have been hoped In all countries of the world reports of gender related violence remain elevated whilst many incidents of such violence probably remain unreported due to fear of stigma or reprisals for those who are victims One of the problems in tackling gender based violence has been that for too long men have been ignored as part of the solution Men are often labelled as perpetrators of violence but they are perhaps too infrequently considered also as potential victims or as partners and actors in the fight against violence Constructions of masculinities are not adequately studied to analyse how dominant forms of masculinities may contribute to cycles of violence and may also oppress and traumatise men themselves This volume aims to address critically the issues of men masculinity and gender based violence asking how men can be fully engaged in the prevention of gender based violence and how this engagement can strengthen prevention initiatives

Coping with Life Crises Rudolf Moos, 2013-12-20 This book examines new developments in the area of human competence and coping behavior It sets forth a conceptual framework that considers the interplay between environmental contexts and personal resources and their impact on how individuals cope with life transitions and crises The selections cover the tasks confronted in varied life crises and describe the coping strategies employed in managing them The material identifies the long term effects of such life events as divorce and bereavement as well as the way in which these stressors can promote personal growth and maturity The book contains a broad selection of recent literature on coping and adaptation integrative commentaries that provide the background for each of the areas as well as conceptual linkages among them and an introductory overview that presents a general perspective on human competence and coping Illustrative case examples are included The first part of the book is organized chronologically according to developmental life transitions confronted by many people from the childhood years through adolescence career choice and parenthood divorce and remarriage middle age and retirement and death and bereavement The second part covers unusual life crises and other hazards that typically involve extreme stress such as man made and natural disasters and terrorism The book highlights effective coping behavior among healthy individuals rather than psychological breakdown and psychiatric symptoms The emphasis is on successful adaptation the ability to cope with life transitions and crises and the process by which such ix x
