However the Committee does accept that an elected government should have a full term in which to develop their policies and take their legislative programme through Parliament It considers a four year term should be adopted for any fixed term arrangement at Westminster Potential date clashes with elections to the devolved institutions should also be avoided Some form of safety valve which would allow for an early election in circumstances such as the government losing the confidence of the Commons or where a political or economic crisis has affected the country is also necessary The report also makes several specific recommendations for amendments for the Bill
