Lord Of The Sacred City:

Heresy and Citizenship Eugene Smelyansky,2020-09-27 Heresy and Citizenship examines the anti heretical campaigns in late medieval Augsburg Rothenburg ob der Tauber Strasbourg and other cities By focusing on the unprecedented period of persecution between 1390 and 1404 this study demonstrates how heretical presence in cities was exploited in ecclesiastical political and social conflicts between the cities and their external rivals and between urban elites These anti heretical campaigns targeted Waldensians who believed in lay preaching and simplified forms of Christian worship Groups of individuals identified as Waldensians underwent public penance execution or expulsion In each case the course and outcome of inquisitions reveal tensions between institutions within each city most often between city councils and local bishops or archbishops In such cases competing sides used the persecution of heresy to assert their authority over others As a result persecution of urban Waldensians acquired meaning beyond mere correction of religious error By placing the anti heretical campaigns of this period in their socio political and religious context Heresy and Citizenship also engages with studies of social and political conflict in late medieval towns It examines the role the exclusion of religiously and socially deviant groups played in the development of urban governments and the rise of ideologies of good citizenship and the common good It will be of interest to scholars and students interested in medieval urban and religious history and the history of heresy and its persecution
