Bibliography of the Communist International (1919-1979) Vilem Kahan, 2023-08-14 Until now the Communist movement has been studied more from the national perspective than the international This scholarly tradition seems to be at odds with the organisational interconnection even subjugation of the national communist parties sections to the Communist International or Comintern 1919 1943 but it is understandable from the point of view of the historian who has only national sources at his disposal newspapers brochures interviews Nowadays the tendency is for the international component of the Communist movement to participate in research The archives of the Comintern are gradually being released by the Soviet Union and an enormous number of official publications is emerging and being made available in libraries by reprints Here Vil m Kahan s bibliography is an indispensable tool in listing nearly all reference works and publications by and on the Comintern and in giving a list of aliases of speakers on Comintern meetings and an overview of all agendas of the meetings These lists are based on research in 14 specialised Western libraries and on the knowledge of a dozen European languages The second volume will deal with the front organisations a third and last volume with the national sections      The Russian Revolution and Civil War 1917-1921 Jonathan Smele, 2006-04-15 The Russian Revolution and Civil War in the years 1917 to 1921 is one of the most widely studied periods in history It is also somewhat inevitably one that has generated a huge flow of literature in the decades that have passed since the events themselves However until now historians of the revolution have had no dedicated bibliography of the period and little claim to bibliographical control over the literature The Russian Revolution and Civil War 1917 1921 offers for the first time a comprehensive bibliographical guide to this crucial and fascinating period of history The Bibliography focuses on the key years of 1917 to 1921 starting with the February Revolution of 1917 and concluding with the 10th Party Congress of March 1921 and covers all the key events of the intervening years As such it identifies these crucial years as something more than simply the creation of a communist state      L'origine de l'Internationale communiste Jules Humbert-Droz, 1968      When the Soviet Union Entered World Politics Jon Jacobson, 2023-11-15 The dissolution of the Soviet Union has aroused much interest in the USSR s role in world politics during its 74 year history and in how the international relations of the twentieth century were shaped by the Soviet Union Jon Jacobson examines Soviet foreign relations during the period from the end of the Civil War to the beginning of the first Five Year Plan focusing on the problems confronting the Bolsheviks as they sought to promote national security and economic development He demonstrates the central importance of foreign relations to the political imagination of Soviet leaders both in their plans for industrialization and in the struggle for supremacy among Lenin s successors Jacobson adopts a post Cold War interpretative stance incorporating glasnost and perestroika era revelations He also considers Soviet relations with both

Europe and Asia from a global perspective integrating the two modes of early Soviet foreign relations revolution and diplomacy into a coherent discussion Most significantly he synthesizes the wealth of information that became available to scholars since the 1960s The result is a stimulating work of international history that interfaces with the sophisticated existing body of scholarship on early Soviet history The dissolution of the Soviet Union has aroused much interest in the USSR's role in world politics during its 74 year history and in how the international relations of the twentieth century were shaped by the Soviet Union Jon Jacobson examines Soviet for

Alphonse Merrheim N. Papayanis, 2012-12-06 This is a political biography of Alphonse Merrheim a significant leader of the Confédération Générale du Travail CGT in the years between 1904 and 1923 and the most important member of the Federation of Metalworkers during the same period He was born in the Nord in 1871 and became a worker at an early age first in metallurgy then in textiles and finally once more in metalworking In his ideological evolution he passed through a socialist political party and then converted to revolutionary syndicalism In his peculiar fusion of theory and practice Merrheim represented a form of revolutionary syndicalism that helps define the characteristics of that movement He believed along with other revolutionary syndicalists that one day a workers general strike would overthrow capitalism But the syndicalist movement would prepare that eventuality by strengthening the workers through social reforms and by creating their class consciousness through education Merrheim however participated so thoroughly in trade union activity and studied the organization of capitalist industry so carefully that he came to emphasize the preparations for such a general strike much more than the strike itself The test of his attitude came on the eve of during and immediately after World War I for contrary to the demands of certain militant and revolutionary workers who believed that the threat of war and the displacement caused by the war demanded a revolutionary response Merrheim persistently stressed the dangers of such an action before the adequate preparation of the workers His steadfast refusal to respond to the strike actions of some of his own metalworkers in 1919 indicates the central contradiction between his revolutionary theory and reformist practice This book examines in detail Merrheim's evolution from a revolutionary to a reformer In so doing it also sheds light on an equally substantial topic namely how a certain type of worker responded to industrialization in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Merrheim is an interesting figure too because of his position in the labor movement for it represents a unique focal point for the study of labor history Merrheim entered the French labor movement in the 1890s and remained active in it until 1923 During that period he was successively a local union leader co secretary of a national labor federation and an important figure within the CGT Never the secretary general of the CGT he was nevertheless the confident of the secretary general from 1909 to 1914
