The Lost Diamonds of Killiecrankie Gary Crew, Peter Gouldthorpe, 1996 A story of a lost treasure found and lost again along with a greater loss of life and peace of mind The Lost Diamonds of Killiecrankie Gary Crew, 2000-01 The Inner Circle Gary Crew, 2011-08-01 I can't say I'm sorry It had to happen I've written to my mum and dad Maybe they'll care I don't know THE INNER CIRCLE is the unforgettable story of two teenage boys struggle for personal identity against the odds of prejudice and the indifference of the world Death, Gender and Sexuality in Contemporary Adolescent Literature Kathryn James, 2009-02-10 Knowledge about carnality and its limits provides the agenda for much of the fiction written for adolescent readers today yet there exists little critical engagement with the ways in which it has been represented in the young adult novel in either discursive ideological or rhetorical forms Death Gender and Sexuality in Contemporary Adolescent Literature is a pioneering study that addresses these methodological and contextual gaps Focusing on texts produced since the late 1980s and drawing on a range of theoretical perspectives Kathryn James shows how representations of death in young adult literature are invariably associated with issues of sexuality gender and power Under particular scrutiny are the trope of woman death the eroticizing and sexualizing of death and the ways in which the gendered subject is represented in dialogue with the processes of death dying and grief Through close readings of historical literature fantasy fictions realistic novels dead narrator tales and texts from genres including Gothic horror and post disaster James reveals not only how cultural discourses influence and are influenced by literary works but how relevant the study of death is to adolescent fiction the literature of becoming No Such Country Gary Crew, 2012-11-01 A tale which will hold its listeners spellbound Kerry Green SUNDAY REVIEW When an archaeology student hoping to learn about his Aboriginal heritage comes to work near their isolated town sixteen year old friends Sarah and Rachel discover why the man known as the Father has had such control over their lives Cut off from the world by sea and swamp the people of New Canaan submit to the oppressive will of the enigmatic Father But when the signs appear first in the sky then in the sea then in the trembling earth there are two who know the Father's days are numbered Rachel Burgess and Sarah Goodwin born only hours apart Might they be the ones to drive the Father to his fall Or might it be Sam Shadows drawn into the net by some greater force And so the mysteries of New Canaan that other country are revealed No Such Country is tale of discovery adventure and suspense from award winning author GARY CREW By the Book Patrick Buckridge, Belinda McKay, 2007-09 Queensland a place of barren land and wild politics with subtropical weather beaches and natural wonders is the subject of this rich literary history Chronicling a wide range of literature from the first days of European settlement to the present day this collection touches upon thematic topics such as travel stories writing for children and indigenous writings The role of institutions such as schools public libraries the press and publishers as well as how they have contributed to the shaping of Queensland's literary development is also included Modern Children's Literature Catherine Butler, Kimberly Reynolds, 2014-12-12 An established introductory textbook that provides students with a guide to developments in children's literature over time and across genres. This stimulating collection of critical essays written by a team of subject experts explores key British, American, and Australian works from picture books and texts for younger children through to graphic novels and young adult fiction. It combines accessible close readings of children's texts with informed examinations of genres, issues, and critical contexts, making it an essential practical book for students. This is an ideal core text for dedicated modules on Children's literature, which may be offered at the upper levels of an undergraduate literature or education degree. In addition, it is a crucial resource for students who may be studying children's literature for the first time as part of a taught postgraduate degree in literature or education. New to this Edition: Revised and updated throughout in light of recent children's books and the latest research. Includes new coverage of key topics such as canon formation, fantasy, and technology. Features an essay on children's poetry by the former Children's Laureate Michael Rosen. Children's Literature Review Alan Hedblad, 1996-12. Presents literary criticism on writers and illustrators for children and young adults. Critical essays are selected from leading sources including published journals, magazines, books, monographs, reviews, and scholarly papers. Access, 2003. Children's Literature Abstracts, 1995. St. James Guide to Horror, Ghost & Gothic Writers David Pringle, 1998. As a companion volume to St. James Guide to Fantasy Writers, this volume concentrates on those types of fiction which may be labelled as horror novels, dark fantasies, ghost stories, gothic novels, tales of terror, supernatural fictions, occult fantasies, black magic stories, psychological thrillers, tales of unease, grand guignol, shockers, creepy stories, shudder pulp fictions, contes cruels, uncanny stories, macabre fictions, and weird tales.
