The Textual Condition Jerome J. McGann, 2020-09-01 Over the past decade literary critic and editor Jerome McGann has developed a theory of textuality based in writing and production rather than in reading and interpretation These new essays extend his investigations of the instability of the physical text McGann shows how every text enters the world under socio historical conditions that set the stage for a ceaseless process of textual development and mutation Arguing that textuality is a matter of inscription and articulation he explores texts as material and social phenomena as particular kinds of acts McGann links his study to contextual and institutional studies of literary works as they are generated over time by authors editors typographers book designers marketing planners and other publishing agents This enables him to examine issues of textual stability and instability in the arenas of textual production and reproduction Drawing on literary examples from the past two centuries including works by Byron Blake Morris Yeats Joyce and especially Pound McGann applies his theory to key problems facing anyone who studies

Campbell Morgan,2005-05-06 Over the years many books based on the Life of Christ have been published Of these some have emphasized the facts of His humanity others the truth of his Deity While these volumes therefore present the Person of Jesus this work by the Prince of Expositors examines His Life as the accomplishment of a Divine work With rare insight accuracy of definition and countless illuminating strokes G Campbell Morgan devotes these thirty three chapters to the pivotal events in Christ s life The seven crises are the Birth the Baptism the Temptation the Transfiguration the Death the Resurrection and the Ascension Included is a preliminary chapter The Call for Christ Man Fallen and a concluding chapter The Answer for Christ Man Redeemed Four indexes complete the volume The Unpredictability of the Past Marc Gallicchio,2007-08-21 Collection explores the formation and uses of memory about the Asia Pacific front of World War II considering how it continues to shape political and diplomatic discourse Lost and Found Cameron Dokey,1999 Amy Johnson a clairvoyant must use her powers to locate her kidnapped soulmate Oak Cliff and the Missing Pieces Gregory M. Hasty,2023-08-23 Oak Cliff and the Missing Pieces is the first book written about the area s history in over three decades It not only captures the beginnings of the early settlement it takes the reader beyond a century and a half of growth and tracks how the community has evolved The book is unique in that it captures the history of West Dallas in conjunction with its Oak Cliff neighbor and how the two transformed together over time into what we see today The collection of historical accounts and hundreds of photos identify individuals and places of prominence finally memorialized in one anthology The narrative also takes readers through facts and stories that have been ignored or concealed revealing an authentic depiction of how the community was at times abused and neglected Readers will enjoy this introspective examination of the area south and west of the Trinity and will once and for all put together the missing pieces of the storied land that has long been misunderstood All proceeds from the sale of Oak Cliff and the Missing Pieces will go to benefit non profit organizations in Oak Cliff and West Dallas Reading Wayde Compton Fernando Pérez-García,2025-06-30 This book is a comprehensive analysis of the literary oeuvre of Wayde Compton examining the interplay between modes of literary production urban commemoration the formation of Black racial identity on the margins of the diaspora and coalitions of solidarity with other communities in Vancouver Stemming from an interdisciplinary perspective that blends Spatial Literary Studies Hip hop epistemology and the transmodern paradigm this book presents a dynamic model of Black identity formation and belonging resulting from the remix of Afro diasporic and transcultural elements and the political commemoration of local Black spaces in an often understudied node of the Black diaspora This book also explores Compton s contribution to recent academic debates on the interaction between the commemoration of Black spaces and the right to the city as well as the engagement with Indigenous calls for the decolonisation of their ancestral lands The analysis of Compton s work allows for the deconstruction of the binaries African Canadian Indigenous settler Hogan s Alley Vancouver and exposes the co constitutive character of these elements

The Practice of the Court of Probate in Common Form Business Henry Charles Coote,1866 Works: Ninety-six sermons Lancelot Andrewes,1841 Island Endurance Ryan Lash,2025 Many look to Ireland s Atlantic islands as timeless places resistant to change Island Endurance offers an alternative perspective examining two neighboring islands where people have cultivated their heritage to confront new challenges and opportunities across centuries To the west Inishark is a landscape of ruins with monuments from a medieval monastery alongside the remnants of a village that endured privation and isolation before its evacuation in 1960 To the east Inishbofin remains home to a small community of nearly 200 that bustles every summer with thousands of visitors drawn by the island s reputation for hospitality and distinctive local heritage Combining archaeological discoveries with folklore and ethnography author Ryan Lash explores how islanders from three different historical eras encountered altered and reimagined traces of the past Fifteen years of fieldwork reconstruct more than a millennium of creativity from the development of pilgrimage traditions at the shrines of monastic saints to the reuse of medieval monuments for local devotions in the 19th and 20th centuries to the repurposing of ruins for managing livestock and guiding tourist trails in the 21st century Attuned to the sensory dynamics and other than human elements of landscapes Lash illustrates the power of quartz pebbles picnics and sheep farming to generate vital perceptions of place time and belonging Islanders have continually and creatively adapted their heritage to foster shared experiences negotiate collaborative relations and sustain livelihoods amid adversity Island Endurance shows us that the illusion of timelessness has always relied on the creativity of heritage The Connells of Castle Connell Janet Hardy,1868

Equipment for Horses from the Period IVB Level at Tepe Hasanlu, Iran Maude De Schauensee,2024-12-31 This book presents for the first time the complete corpus of equipment for horses excavated by The Hasanlu Project in the Iron II level at Hasanlu Tepe Iran The equipment is varied extensive and in a context sealed as buildings collapsed during the violent surprise attack and resulting fire that destroyed the town The equipment most still in its primary location ready for active use make it of particular if not unique importance It is also remarkable in the quantity recovered its variety and richness the functional types that could be identified riding draft ceremonial and the amount that could be reconstructed Its life context gives new information about equipment and usage not otherwise available and allows suggestions for the layered importance of the horse as evidenced by the equipment No other book presents equipment for horses in a similar context and quantity because the preservation at Hasanlu is unique for this part of the Near East in this time period The equipment also provides new insight into space use in Hasanlu one of the most important Iron Age sites in northwest Iran Findspots yield information about building use and reuse some as stables These and architectural alterations provide unique information regarding changes to the town over time some of which most likely reflect changes in the dynamics of the region

Queer/Early/Modern Carla Freccero, 2006-01-16 In Queer Early Modern Carla Freccero a leading scholar of early modern European studies argues for a reading practice that accounts for the queerness of temporality for the way past present and future time appear out of sequence and in dialogue in our thinking about history and texts Freccero takes issue with New Historicist accounts of sexual identity that claim to respect historical proprieties and to derive identity categories from the past She urges us to see how the indeterminacies of subjectivity found in literary texts challenge identitarian constructions and she encourages us to read differently the relation between history and literature Contending that the term queer in its indeterminacy points the way toward alternative ethical reading practices that do justice to the aftereffects of the past as they live on in the present Freccero proposes a model of fantasmatic historiography that brings together history and fantasy past and present event and affect Combining feminist theory queer theory psychoanalysis deconstruction and literary criticism Freccero takes up a series of theoretical and historical issues related to debates in queer theory feminist theory the history of sexuality and early modern studies She juxtaposes readings of early and late modern texts discussing the lyric poetry of Petrarch Louise Labé and Melissa Ethridge David Halperin's take on Michel Foucault via Apuleius's The Golden Ass and Boccaccio's Decameron and France's domestic partner legislation in connection with Marguerite de Navarre's Heptameron Turning to French cleric Jean de Lery's account published in 1578 of having witnessed cannibalism and religious rituals in Brazil some twenty years earlier and to the twentieth century Brandon Teena case Freccero draws on Jacques Derrida's concept of spectrality to propose both an ethics and a mode of interpretation that acknowledges and is inspired by the haunting of the present by the past
