

The background of the cover is a photograph of a hand reaching out of a body of water. The water is a deep, textured blue. The hand is light-skinned and is holding a large, dark, feathery object, possibly a piece of seaweed or a bouquet of dried flowers, which is partially submerged. The title text is arched over the top of the hand.

Middle Of Everything Memoirs Of Motherhood:

The Middle of Everything Michelle Herman,2005-01-01 A memoir from the front lines of motherhood by a longtime writer of fiction The Middle of Everything weaves a daughter s memories of her Brooklyn childhood in the 1950s and 1960s and the shadow cast on it by her own young mother s paralyzing depression with a middle aged woman s account of trying to break her mother s mold by meeting her own child s every need

Motherhood Memoirs: Mothers Creating/Writing Lives Justine Dymond,2013-07-01 The authors in this collection examine and critique motherhood memoir alongside the texts of their own lives while seeking to transform mothering practice highlighting revolutionary praxis within books or when none is available creating new visions for social change Many essays interrogate the tensions of maternal narrative the negotiation of the historical location of writer and readers narrative and linguistic constraints and the slippery ground of memory as well as the borders constructed between the objective scholar and the reader who engages with and identifies with texts through her intellect and her emotional being

Motherhood Lisa Marchiano, LCSW, NCPsyA,2021-05-25 Join a respected Jungian analyst for a deep dive into the emotional and symbolic journey of motherhood Motherhood is the true hero s journey which is to say that it can be as harrowing as it is joyful and enlightening as it is exhausting For Jungian psychoanalyst Lisa Marchiano this journey is not just an adventure of diaper bags and parent teacher conferences but one of intense self discovery In Motherhood Marchiano draws from a deep well of Jungian analysis and symbolic research to present a collection of fairy tales myths and fables that evoke the spiritual arc of raising a child from infancy through adulthood After all this kind of storytelling has always been one of the most important conduits of humanity s collective wisdom and Marchiano provides each tale alongside keen insights into the timeless archetypes they represent Balanced with real life case stories from Lisa s own practice and in depth questions for personal reflection Motherhood explores how events like pregnancy the calamities of childhood and the empty nest experience are invitations to an adventure into the wild frontier of your own soul Here you will discover How the challenges of motherhood send you on journeys into your innermost source Seeing the value of conflict with your child even while working to solve it The dark passage of confronting and dispelling the energy of childhood wounds The thirteenth fairy how to recognize when we are resisting inconvenient or uncomfortable truths Understanding how anger rage and aggression arise in parental relationships Recognizing the ways that you have been taught to ignore your deepest instincts How to navigate the inevitable periods of grief that accompany your child s many life changes Why much of successful mothering requires surrendering your sense of control With Lisa s gentle but straightforward guidance you ll return from this inner journey in possession of the treasured knowledge needed to clarify your values embrace your disowned parts and claim the mantle of motherhood in the full bloom of your empowerment

Fearless Confessions Sue William Silverman,2010-01-25 Everyone has a story to tell Fearless Confessions is a guidebook for people who want to take possession of their lives by putting their experiences down on paper or in a Web site or e book Enhanced with illustrative examples from many different writers as well as writing exercises this guide helps writers navigate a range of issues from craft to ethics to marketing and will be useful to both beginners and more accomplished writers The rise of interest in memoir recognizes the power of the genre to move and affect not just individual readers but society at large Sue William Silverman covers traditional writing topics such as metaphor theme plot and voice and also includes chapters on trusting memory and cultivating the courage to tell one's truth in the face of forces from family members to the media who would prefer that people with inconvenient pasts and views remain silent Silverman an award winning memoirist draws upon her own personal and professional experience to provide an essential resource for transforming life into words that matter Fearless Confessions is an atlas that contains maps to the remarkable places in each person's life that have yet to be explored Journal of the Association for Research on Mothering ,2005 Lilith ,2005 SIROW ,2004

Memoirs of a Mother-in-Law George Sims,2018-01-01 A hilarious comedy of manners and a gentle satire of Edwardian mores and attitudes This edition contains a wealth of material about the author's life and works notes and a bibliographic section Jane Tressider has never been afraid of speaking her mind even if she admits that she may have occasionally given offence by doing so But as a busy mother of nine children she cannot let such a small foible get in the way of her job which is to keep her feckless husband on his toes while ensuring the perfect management not just of her own household but also of that of her married daughters and sons Since mothers in law have always been misunderstood and no one has ever taken up their side of the argument properly Jane is determined to set the record straight and plead the cause of the most maligned race on the face of the earth The Virginia Quarterly Review ,2005 Memoirs of the Queens of Henry VIII., and His Mother, Elizabeth of York Agnes Strickland,1853 New Books on Women and Feminism ,2011 Childhood in the Middle Ages and the Renaissance Albrecht Classen,2011-12-22 Earlier theses on the history of childhood can now be laid to rest and a fundamental paradigm shift initiated as there is an overwhelming body of evidence to show that in medieval and early modern times too there were close emotional relations between parents and children The contributors to this volume demonstrate conclusively on the one hand how intensively parents concerned themselves with their children in the pre modern era and on the other which social political and religious conditions shaped these relationships These studies in emotional history demonstrate how easy it is for a subjective choice of sources coupled with faulty interpretations caused mainly by modern prejudices toward the Middle Ages in particular to lead to the view that in the past children were regarded as small adults The contributors demonstrate convincingly that intense feelings admittedly often different in nature shaped the relationship between adults and children SIROW News ,2004 Temporalities, Autobiography and Everyday Life Jan Campbell,Janet Harbord,2002 This book offers the first sustained examination of the cultural relations of the American and Soviet avant gardes in a period of major transformation From the formation of the USSR in 1922 until its recognition by the American government American avant garde artists writers and designers watched the Red Dawn with fascination enthusiastically reporting on its post revolutionary cultural developments in articles and books and brought these works to an American audience in ground breaking exhibitions Americans also emulated and adapted aspects of Soviet culture as in the case of the New Playwrights Theatre a group that mixed Russian avant garde theatrical techniques with jazz vaudeville and slapstick comedy in plays about strikes and racial injustice Figures discussed include Louis Lozowick Jane Heap Frederick Kiesler Ralph Steiner John dos Passos Margaret Bourke White and Langston Hughes Watching the red dawn takes an innovative interdisciplinary approach considering these developments in architecture theatre film photography and literature and will be invaluable for students and specialists in these subject areas It provides a new perspective on American avant garde culture of the inter war years Stories for persons in the middle ranks. Tales for the common people. Strictures on female education. Hints towards forming the character of a young princess. Estimate of the religion of the fashionable world. Essays, &c., &c Hannah More,1840 Poets & Writers ,2005 The Making of the Jewish Middle Class Marion A. Kaplan,1991 Describes the life of Jewish middle class women in Wilhelmine Germany Pp 148 152 Anti Semitism in the University state that until about 1905 women students discriminated against because of their sex tended to show solidarity by forming organizations open to all in contrast to the segregated male students organizations Russian Jewish women were especially despised even by German Jewish male students Pp 182 185 describe discrimination against Jewish teachers noting that their chances of employment were highly limited See also the index under Anti Semitism African American Young Girls and Women in PreK12 Schools and Beyond Renae D. Mayes,Marjorie C. Shavers,James L. Moore III,2022-06-02 African American Young Girls and Women in PreK12 Schools and Beyond Informing Research Policy and Practice presents a comprehensive viewpoint on preK 12 schooling for African American females This volume offers readers compelling evidence of the educational challenges and successes for this student population Writing the Modern Family Roberta Garrett,2021-01-29 Although a large body of work has emerged which addresses neoliberal representations of the family in other cultural forms such as parenting advice programmes little has been written specifically on the family and contemporary literature This book examines the growing body of autobiographical and fictional writing on family and parenting issues in Anglo American culture from the late 1990s to the present day The book looks closely at six distinct genres which have arisen during this time frame the misery memoir the mum s lit popular novel the maternal confessional dads lit the dysfunctional domestic novel and the family noir Writing the Modern Family will examine the way these burgeoning areas of British and American writing respond to a neoliberal public discourse in which a parenting deficit rather than economic and structural disadvantage is responsible for increasing inequality in child welfare and achievement In evaluating these forms and their relationship to neoliberal culture the book will also consider the complex interrelationship between these genres Memoirs of the American Museum of Natural History. ... American Museum of Natural History,1907
