Smithers, 2017 Science Sexuality and Race in the United States and Australia 1780 1940 Revised Edition is a sociohistorical tour de force that examines the entwined formation of racial theory and sexual constructs within settler colonialism in the United States and Australia from the Age of Revolution to the Great Depression Gregory D Smithers historicizes the dissemination and application of scientific and social scientific ideas within the process of nation building in two countries with large Indigenous populations and shows how intellectual constructs of race and sexuality were mobilized to subdue Aboriginal peoples Building on the comparative settler colonial and imperial histories that appeared after the book s original publication this completely revised edition includes two new chapters In this singular contribution to the study of transnational and comparative settler colonialism Smithers expands on recent scholarship to illuminate both the subject of the scientific study of race and sexuality and the national and interrelated histories of the United States and Australia Slave Narratives: A Folk History of Slavery in the United States From Interviews with Former Slaves, North Carolina Narratives (Complete) United States Work Projects Administration, 2020-09-28 My name is Louisa Adams I wuz bawnd in Rockingham Richmond County North Carolina I wuz eight years old when the Yankees come through I belonged to Marster Tom A Covington Sir My mother wuz named Easter and my father wuz named Jacob We were all Covingtons No Sir I don t know whur my mother and father come from Soloman wuz brother number one then Luke Josh Stephen Asbury My sisters were Jane Frances Wincy and I wuz nex I members grandmother She wuz named Lovie Wall They brought her here from same

Ebony Sea Irene Smalls,1995 A story based on accounts of an incident in South Carolina of Igbo resistance to slavery Trans-generational Trauma and the Other Sue Grand,Jill Salberg,2016-12-19 Often our trans generational legacies are stories of us and them that never reach their terminus We carry fixed narratives and the ghosts of our perpetrators and of our victims We long to be subjects in our own history but keep reconstituting the Other as an object in their own history Trans generational Trauma and the Other argues that healing requires us to engage with the Other who carries a corresponding pre history Without this dialogue alienated ghosts can become persecutory objects in psyche politics and culture This volume examines the violent loyalties of the past the barriers to dialogue with our Other and complicates the inter subjectivity of Big History Identifying our inherited narratives and relinquishing splitting these authors ask how we can re cast our Other and move beyond dysfunctional repetitions in our individual lives and in society Featuring rich clinical material Trans generational Trauma and the Other provides an invaluable guide to expanding the application of trans generational transmission in psychoanalysis It will appeal to psychoanalysts psychoanalytic psychotherapists and trauma experts

Science, Sexuality, and Race in the United States and Australia, 1780s-1890s Gregory D. Smithers,2013-02-01 This book combines transnational history with the comparative analysis of racial formation and reproductive sexuality in the settler colonial spaces of the United States and British Australia Specifically the book places whiteness and the changing definition of what it meant to be white in nineteenth century America and Australia at the center of our historical understanding of racial and sexual identities In both the United States and Australia whiteness was defined in opposition to the imagined cultural and biological inferiority of the Indian Negro and Aboriginal savage Moreover Euro Americans and Euro Australians shared a common belief that whiteness was synonymous with the extension of settler colonial civilization Despite this two very different understandings of whiteness emerged in the nineteenth century The book therefore asks why these different racial understandings of whiteness and the quest to create culturally and racially homogeneous settler civilizations developed in the United States and Australia Voices from Slavery Norman R. Yetman, 2012-03-15 Vivid descriptions of the horrors of slave auctions and many other unforgettable and sometimes unrepeatable details of slave life Accompanied by 32 starkly compelling photographs The "Colored Hero" of Harpers Ferry Steven Lubet, 2015-08-27 This is the first and only biography of one of John Brown's African American comrades John Anthony Copeland Slave Breeding Gregory D. Smithers, 2012-11-01 This book is an exploration of the idea of selective and forced slave breeding in the U S based on the collective memory and folktales of the descendants of enslaved people For over two centuries the topic of slave breeding has occupied a controversial place in the master narrative of American history From nineteenth century abolitionists to twentieth century filmmakers and artists Americans have debated whether slave owners deliberately and coercively manipulated the sexual practices and marital status of enslaved African Americans to reproduce new generations of slaves for profit In this bold and provocative book a historian investigates how African Americans have narrated remembered and represented slave breeding practices He argues that while social and economic historians have downplayed the significance of slave breeding African Americans have never been able to forget the trauma of violence and sexual coercion associated with the plantation South By placing African American histories and memories of slave breeding within the larger context of America's history of racial and gender discrimination the author reveals how sexual exploitation was both experienced and remembered by African Americans to inform how Black Americans understand the political social and cultural nature of life in the United States This fascinating provocative work sheds much needed light on African American cultural memories the perceptions of fragile Black families and the long history of racially motivated violence against men women and children of color True Stories of Black South Carolina Damon L. Fordham, 2008-03-07 From the Upstate to the Lowcountry African Americans have had a gigantic impact on the Palmetto State Unfortunately their stories are often overshadowed Collected here for the first time this selection of essays by historian Damon L Fordham brings these stories to light Rediscover the tales of Samuel Smalls the James Island beggar who inspired DuBose Heyward's Porgy and Denmark Vesey the architect of the great would be slave rebellion of 1822 Learn about the blacks who lived and worked at what is now Mepkin Abbey the Spartanburg woman who took part in a sit in at the age of eleven and Dr Martin Luther King Jr's visit to Charleston in 1967 These articles are well researched and provide an enlightening glimpse at the overlooked contributors to South Carolina's past The Memories of Slavery - Complete Collection Aphra Behn, Thomas Clarkson, Daniel Drayton, Louis Hughes, Austin Steward, Ida B.
