My Galleries and Painters Daniel Henry Kahnweiler, Francis Crémieux, 1971 Painting as Model Yve-Alain Bois, 1993-05-04 Informed by both structuralism and poststructuralism these essays by art critic and historian Yve Alain Bois seek to redefine the status of theory in modernist critical discourse Warning against the uncritical adoption of theoretical fashions and equally against the a priori rejection of all theory Bois argues that theory is best employed in response to the specific demands of a critical problem The essays lucidly demonstrate the uses of various theoretical approaches in conjunction with close reading of both paintings and texts Daily Painting Carol Marine, 2014-11-04 A unique system for jump starting artistic creativity encouraging experimentation and growth and increasing sales for artists of all levels from novices to professionals Have you landed in a frustrating rut Are you having trouble selling paintings in galleries getting bogged down by projects you can't seem to finish or abandon or finding excuses to avoid working in the studio Author Carol Marine knows exactly how you feel she herself suffered from painter's block until she discovered daily painting The idea is simple do art usually small often how often is up to you and if you'd like post and sell it online Soon you'll find that your block dissolves and you're painting work you love and more of it than you ever thought possible With her encouraging tone and useful exercises Marine teaches you to Master composition and value Become confident in any medium including oil painting acrylic painting watercolors and other media Choose subjects wisely Stay fresh and loose Photograph post and sell your art online Become connected to the growing movement of daily painters around the world Artists' Estates Magda Salvesen, Diane Cousineau, 2005 Artists Estates offers a fascinating journey into the complex and competitive art world through the distinctive lens of those who deal with the paintings prints and sculpture that artists leave behind after their deaths Bringing together interviews conducted by Magda Salvesen the widow of the second generation Abstract Expressionist painter Jon Schueler this unique book provides a window into the goals and desires the conflicts and frustrations and the emotional and financial strains that confront widows companions sons and daughters as the heirs to artists estates The judiciously arranged and edited interviews also address the benefits and liabilities of foundations and trusts through the insights of lawyers gallery dealers and foundation directors Readers will explore well known estates including those of Roy Lichtenstein Mark Rothko Adolph Gottlieb Milton Avery Romare Bearden and David Smith as well as the equally intriguing legacies of lesser known artists whose work came to the fore in the forties and fifties Together the passionate testimonies of families and lovers the measured voices of art professionals and the more than eighty photographs offer an indispensable entre into the private and public worlds of art Picasso's War Hugh Eakin, 2023-09-26 A riveting story of how dueling ambitions and the power of prodigy made America the cultural center of the world and Picasso the most famous artist alive in the shadow of World War II Eakin has mastered this material The book soars The New York Times Book Review Editors Choice ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR Vanity Fair The New York Times Book Review The New Yorker In January 1939 Pablo Picasso was renowned in Europe but disdained by many in the United States One year later Americans across the country were clamoring to see his art How did the controversial leader of the Paris avant garde break through to the heart of American culture The answer begins a generation earlier when a renegade Irish American lawyer named John Quinn set out to build the greatest collection of Picassos in existence His dream of a museum to house them died with him until it was rediscovered by Alfred H Barr Jr a cultural visionary who at the age of twenty seven became the director of New York s new Museum of Modern Art Barr and Quinn s shared goal would be thwarted in the years to come by popular hostility by the Depression by Parisian intrigues and by Picasso himself It would take Hitler s campaign against Jews and modern art and Barr s fraught alliance with Paul Rosenberg Picasso s persecuted dealer to get Picasso s most important paintings out of Europe Mounted in the shadow of war the groundbreaking exhibition Picasso Forty Years of His Art would launch Picasso in America define MoMA as we know it and shift the focus of the art world from Paris to New York Picasso s War is the never before told story about how a single exhibition a decade in the making irrevocably changed American taste and in doing so saved dozens of the twentieth century s most enduring artworks from the Nazis Through a deft combination of new scholarship and vivid storytelling Hugh Eakin shows how two men and their obsession with Picasso changed the art world forever Catalogue of the Paintings, Statuary, Casts, Bronzes, Etc. of the Corcoran Gallery of Art Corcoran Gallery of Art, 1887
