My House Has Two Doors:

Hearts and Minds Hannah Gurman, 2013-10-01 The first book of its kind Hearts and Minds is a scathing response to the grand narrative of U S counterinsurgency in which warfare is defined not by military might alone but by winning the hearts and minds of civilians Dormant as a tactic since the days of the Vietnam War in 2006 the U S Army drafted a new field manual heralding the resurrection of counterinsurgency as a primary military engagement strategy counterinsurgency campaigns followed in Iraq and Afghanistan despite the fact that counterinsurgency had utterly failed to account for the actual lived experiences of the people whose hearts and minds America had sought to win Drawing on leading thinkers in the field and using key examples from Malaya the Philippines Vietnam El Salvador Iraq and Afghanistan Hearts and Minds brings a long overdue focus on the many civilians caught up in these conflicts Both urgent and timely this important book challenges the idea of a neat divide between insurgents and the populations from which they emerge and should be required reading for anyone engaged in the most important contemporary debates over U S military policy

Rutkowski, Andrew Hock Soon Ng, 2025-01-09 Examining film literature and art produced during and after the Malayan Emergency the guerrilla war fought between the Malayan National Liberation Army and the military forces of the British Commonwealth this collection demonstrates how art functions as a record of cultural memory that both reinforces and challenges official histories Beyond that it also brings new understandings of the Malayan Emergency itself and Malaysia's subsequent development as a postcolonial nation The first section of the book focuses on films and writings produced during the period of the Emergency to capture the socio political circumstances of the time and understand its effect on the people The second section goes on to explore representations of the Emergency generated after the event highlighting how it was reimagined or reevaluated by later artists and what ideological ends they served Offering a comparative methodological approach it investigates works that account for a range of perspectives including British Communist and Malayan Malaysian Bringing together the personal and political within individual and collective histories this collection offers a new understanding of how the Emergency contributed to the formation of postcolonial Malaysia and demonstrates the central role that film literature and art play in the creation of cultural memory

Interracial Lovers in Revolutionary China D. E. Mungello, 2023-07-14 In the twentieth century China underwent a monumental dynastic change and was transformed from an outmoded monarchy into a modern communist state This century of revolutionary change was marked by political upheaval and social chaos It was a period in which Chinese began to go abroad to study and conduct business while foreigners came to China for economic opportunity and adventure In the process Chinese and foreigners began to meet and form romantic relationships These love affairs fengliu yunshi are notable because they coincided with the last phase of Western imperialism including its lingering racial prejudices and even laws against interracial sexual relationships Conversely in China there were periodic outbreaks of hostility and violence against foreigners This book explores the interracial relationships of twenty two
