Chamber's Journal of Popular Literature, Science and Arts ,1876 Shadow Daughter Harriet Brown, 2018-11-06 A riveting provocative and ultimately hopeful exploration of mother daughter estrangement woven with research and anecdotes from an award winning journalist The day of her mother s funeral Harriet Brown was five thousand miles away For years they d gone through cycles of estrangement and connection drastic blow ups and equally dramatic reconciliations By the time her mother died at seventy six they hadn t spoken at all in several years Her mother s death sent Brown on a journey of exploration one that considered guilt and trauma rage and betrayal and forgiveness Shadow Daughter tackles a subject we rarely discuss as a culture Family estrangements between parents and children siblings multiple generations are surprisingly common and even families that aren t officially estranged often have some experience of deep conflicts Despite the fact that the issue touches most people one way or another estrangement is still shrouded in secrecy stigma and shame We simply don t talk about it and that silence can make an already difficult situation even harder Brown tells her story with clear eyed honesty and hard won wisdom she also shared interviews with others who are estranged as well as the most recent research on this taboo topic Ultimately Shadow Daughter is a thoughtful provocative and deeply researched exploration of the ties that bind and break forgiveness reconciliation and what family really means
