My Memories of Everton by Kevin Ratcliffe Kevin Ratcliffe, 2003-09 This fully illustrated book relives Kevin Ratcliffe's outstanding career with Everton FC from his early days to the famous Cup victories      Here We Go Simon Hart, 2016-08-01 For Everton FC the 1980s were the most successful decade in the club's history It was a time when Wembley became a second home for Howard Kendall's band of brothers as they stepped out from Liverpool's long shadow to take their neighbours' mantle as the country's best team winning two league titles an FA Cup and the European Cup Winners Cup In Here We Go Simon Hart interviews some of the Blues' best loved players from that era along with the most controversial and the unsung heroes too to provide a vivid colourful portrait of a period when a group of unheralded young footballers came together to achieve something special with a rare intoxicating mix of raw talent and team spirit The players featured include Kevin Ratcliffe Adrian Heath Gary Lineker Pat van den Hauwe Mark Higgins Kevin Richardson Paul Power and Pat Nevin along with Colin Harvey Kendall's No2 during the glory days and subsequently manager himself by the decade's end Thirty years on from Everton's last championship winning campaign of 1986-87 they remember the Wembley highs and heartbreaks and the epic derby duels in an age when Merseyside for all its troubles stood at the very forefront of English football They also recall the boozy nights the bold pranks and the bad haircuts and their recollections capture just what it meant to be a footballer in a dramatic decade for the English game Together they explain not only the Blues' rise to greatness but the decline that gradually set in after their European exile they also offer a nostalgia laden celebration of the team building skills of the man who made it possible the late great Howard Kendall      Goodison Memories Steve Zocek, 2022-04-11 Goodison Park is one of British sport's most fabled venues the home of Everton FC since 1892 and one of the last traditional football amphitheatres It has witnessed highs and lows and been graced by the likes of Dixie Dean Tommy Lawton Alan Ball Bob Latchford Gary Lineker Pele and Eusebio As the Toffees prepare to move to the waterfront Goodison Memories celebrates that legendary stadium with vivid recollections not from Evertonians but from opposition players managers officials and sports journalists The result is a collection of candid interviews that capture the essence of Goodison Park Listen to their tales of the Everton players they remember with fondness priceless anecdotes and memories of the atmosphere and features of the stadium Have you ever wondered what it was like for the broadcasters to sit on the TV gantry the press to work from the press box What was it like for match officials to take charge of the game and handle the characters on the Goodison turf Goodison Memories holds all the answers      Blue Is My Colour ,      For The Boys In The Royal Blue Jersey Steve Zocek, 2015-07-15 This book features interviews with fifty former Everton players who have lived my boyhood dream to grace the famous Goodison turf in the royal blue jersey My writing days began as a hobby back in 2012 when I submitted articles and match reports for a couple of Everton websites under the pseudonym Blue Echo Inside this first edition of Blue Echo interviews these players tell their own story of their time at Everton I sincerely hope one of your favourite players is included and that you enjoy reading their stories We as fans know what the club motto Nil Satis Nisi Optimum means to us These interviews highlight exactly what being at Everton means to the players too      For The Boys In The Royal Blue Jersey 2 Steve Zocek,2019-11-12 As Everton fans we all sing the anthems It s a grand old team to play for and If you know your history but how well do you really know the players of the past The first volume featured interviews with fifty former Everton players who have lived the boyhood dream gracing the famous Goodison turf in the royal blue jersey This edition contains interviews with fifty more former players some who are very well known and others less so Some could count their total games on one hand But one thing they all have in common is their pride in wearing the royal blue jersey and playing at Goodison Park      Curt Alan Curtis,Stuart Sprake,Tim Johnson,2011-04-01 Welsh footballer Alan Curtis is synonymous with Swansea City having played for the club during three different spells but he also played for Leeds United Southampton and Cardiff City and won thirty five caps for his country during an action packed playing career that spanned two decades Alan experienced the highs of the game at the top level with Swansea during their meteoric rise through all four divisions to reach the top flight but this success came after he d experienced the low of the Swans having to apply for re election to the Football League in 1975 In this eventful autobiography Alan recounts the topsy turvy turns his career has taken including a disappointing spell at Leeds United in 1979 80 He was the club s most expensive signing ever at the time but a nasty clash with Peter Shilton left him sidelined for nine months Determined to prove his critics wrong and overcome his injury he played some of the best football of his career upon returning to Swansea before moving to Southampton in 1983 to help the club challenge the Merseyside dominance of the time Since his playing career wound down in 1987 Alan has remained in the game as a coach with both Swansea City and Wales giving back to the game the wisdom and experience he garnered during his years as a player In Curt Alan reflects upon his colourful career highlights just how much the beautiful game has changed since his playing days and explains why he s living proof that nice guys don t always finish second      Looking for the Toffees Brian Viner,2014-08-14 In 1977 78 Brian Viner was a season ticket holder in the Gwladys Street End at Goodison Park home to his beloved Everton In front of him were the stars of the day striker Bob Latchford creative midfielder Duncan McKenzie and goalkeeping hero George Wood There were no airs and graces then Viner would regularly see Latchford in the local pub and even once saw Wood mowing the field at his school so asked him to come and join his classmates for a kickabout which he did It would never happen now But as well as nostalgia for that period Viner reveals how this was a time when so much was on the cusp of change in football the first wave of foreign players would arrive the next season with Ossie Ardiles and Arnold Muhren among them on Merseyside the era of punk would soon give way to Thatcherism and even Viner himself at 16 was on the verge of adulthood But little of what happened next could ever have been predicted Viner s investigation of that year in the 1970s based on many interviews with the players of the time not only reveals a vanished era but also shows how football often fails to look after its own as the life stories of what happened to the players afterwards shows but how the spirit of the sport will always shine through      Scally Andy Nicholls, 2004-06-01 Andy Nicholls is known to every football intelligence officer in Britain For twenty five years he was one of the most active hooligans in the country a leading figure among the violent followers of Everton FC Classified as a Category C thug the worst kind he amassed more than twenty arrests and has been deported from Belgium Iceland and Sweden His terrace fanzine was closed down by the authorities and he was banned from every ground in the UK Revealing the truth behind the vicious knife attacks of the so called County Road Cutters and the bitter Merseyside and Manchester rivalries that left scores injured SCALLY caused a storm of controversy on first publication It is widely acknowledged as the most revealing most shocking book ever written about soccer gang culture
