My River Speaks:

My River Speaks Marianne Taylor, Energy Recovery Corp, 1998-01-01 The River Speaks, 2025-06-09 In her voice Yamuna the river shares her timeless journey a tale of life resilience and silent suffering Flowing through ancient myths and modern struggles she pleads with us to see her scars and hear her cries Use my waters she urges but with care for my survival is intertwined with yours If we pay attention to her call and change our demands Yamuna will heal herself But if we remain blind to her plight a grave danger looms over all who depend on her This is more than a river's story it's a wake up call to save her before it's too late , The Hymns of the Rgveda Ralph Thomas Hotchkin Griffith, Jagdish Lal Shastri, 1973-01-01 The Rgveda the oldest literary record of the Aryan race and the sacred book of the Hindus has very few authentic translations in English Most of the translations are only the imitations of interpretations which the mediaeval Hindus as represented by Sayana have offered Griffith's is the only translation which though guided by Sayana ventures to deviate from him widely and frequently It may be ranked as an independent translation hitherto made in English But this century old translation needed re editing necessitating a new edition incorporating improvements without disturbing the original In this edition the Greek letters have been romanized wherever there are references in the footnotes from the Greek language The system of transcription has been modernized even in regard to Avestan words in the footnotes following the system of Bartholomae The complete translation has been published in a single volume for the convenience of the reader Each and every figure in the index has been duly checked and revised Doing Performative Social Science Kip Jones, 2022-06-30 Doing Performative Social Science Creativity in Doing Research and Reaching Communities focuses as the title suggests on the actual act of doing research and creating research outputs through a number of creative and arts led approaches Performative Social Science PSS embraces the use of tools from the arts e g photography dance drama filmmaking poetry fiction etc by expanding even replacing more traditional methods of research and diffusion of academic efforts Ideally it can include forming collaborations with artists themselves and creating a professional research learning and or dissemination experience These efforts then include the wider community that has a meaningful investment in their projects and their outputs and outcomes In this insightful volume Kip Jones brings together a wide range of examples of how contributing authors from diverse disciplines have used the arts led principles of PSS and its philosophy based in relational aesthetics in real world projects The chapters outline the methods and theory bases underlying creative approaches show the aesthetic and relational constructs of research through these approaches and show the real and meaningful community engagement that can result from projects such as these This book will be of interest to all scholars of qualitative and arts led research in the social sciences communication and performance studies as well as artist scholars and those engaging in community based research The Institute Tie, 1915 Beside the Rio Hondo Phaedra Greenwood, 2012-01-15 How can a lone female of a certain age take her last stand on a stony wedge of land in the mountains of Northern New Mexico Will

she find a job learn to chop wood be eaten by a bear or give it up and fall in love again

Beside the Rio Hondo is a memoir that explores in depth Phaedra Greenwood's connection with the natural world and simultaneous need for community. Her ex-husband gives her a year to live in the old adobe where they raised their children; then he plans to sell it so they can split the proceeds. But she wants to stay in the house forever. She has a year to come up with her own financing to buy out his half of the property or negotiate a deal with the neighbors. The house is falling apart, her money is running out, and she has never applied for a loan in her life. It's a hell of a time to decide to have an epiphany. For over three decades I have made my home in the Taos area of Northern New Mexico, the author says, not just because I love the spare and dramatic landscape but also because I am intrigued by the complex layers of history and culture. I admire the devotion of the artists and craftsmen to their work, the loving care New Mexicans bestow on their churches, and the close family ties that bond them in community. As I struggle with my garden, my orchard, and old adobe casa, I absorb with gratitude my neighbors' rural savvy and the skills these tenacious hunters, fishermen, and ranchers have developed over the centuries to survive and thrive in the high mountain desert. Life here is hard but often delicious. The energy, exotic flavors, and bright colors of Taos are unique.

PHAEDRA GREENWOOD Greenwood is a freelance writer, photographer, whose poems, essays, and stories have appeared in many local newspapers, magazines, and anthologies. She has won numerous literary prizes, including the Katherine Anne Porter Award. As a journalist and columnist for The Taos News, she received two first place awards in 2000 from the New Mexico Press Association for Best Review and Columns. In 1995 she won the PEN New Mexico Award for a short story included in this book.
