My Stories:

My Life, My Stories Shireen Najib, 2013-06-25 This book is a refreshing glimpse into the life of people in Pakistan today. Seen through the eyes of the author who keeps moving home every year or so to live in different cities of Pakistan. Most of these articles were printed during the last two decades in different magazines and dailies. Shireen Gheba Najib has a refreshing and humorous viewpoint of the incidents and situations she finds herself in. There are also interviews of prominent personalities from different walks of life. These articles fulfill the need to get out of statistics of poverty and illiteracy and measure the charm and hospitality of Pakistanis. About the Author: Writer, artist, and educationist Shireen Gheba Najib has an MSc degree in Related Arts Home Economics Lahore and an MBA in Human Resource Management Islamabad. Her first article was written for Dawn newspaper on life in Kuwait after the invasion of Kuwait in 1990. Editor Dawn invited her to write regularly for them. Seven hundred articles and three books later, she is an established writer. Last year she had her own column on personalities in Islamabad in Dawn. Her books Fun Cook Book, Kitchen Management, and Entertaining Guests are available online.

Tell Me a Story Robert J. Hater, 2006 Father Robert Hater strongly believes that story without basic belief lacks direction and basic belief without story is lifeless. He illustrates this relationship between story and Catholic belief with sensitive and powerful narratives including the account of his own mother's death and its impact on him. This is an invaluable resource for anyone involved in conveying the story of Jesus and the church: pastors, homilists, catechetical leaders, catechists, and teachers; parish ministers and families as well as all who wish to find God in their own stories.

This is not just a book for writers.

Each one of us has a story and understanding God's work in our stories is a vital part of our faith Through the spiritual practice of writing we can remember his acts among us declare his glory among the nations and pass on to others what we have witnessed of God in this life the mysterious the tragic the miraculous the ordinary With a companion video curriculum from RightNow Media this is a why not book as opposed to a how to book Leslie asks each of us an important question Why not learn to tell your story in the context of the grander story of God

Once again author Ralph Milton brings his enormous talent as storyteller to the task of retelling biblical stories. Based on the bestselling Family Story Bible, the Lectionary Story Bible includes many new and wonderfully engaging stories from both the Hebrew and New Testament scriptures. At least one but usually two stories from the lections are included for each Sunday of the church year, making Lectionary's Story Bible a complete lectionary resource for Christian educators, camp leaders, worship leaders, and families who want to share their faith at home. The book also includes a scripture index of the stories included in the collection for non-lectionary settings and uses Adept at handling even difficult material. Ralph Milton writes stories that are positive and life-affirming, use inclusive language, and portray a God of love to children and adults alike. Margaret Kyle has created many new illustrations brimming with the energy, curiosity, and joy that so characterizes her work. Lectionary Story Bible Year A is the first in a series that will cover all three years of the lectionary. The complete set will be an indispensable resource for anyone who wants to share faith stories with children and make the Bible relevant to young people today.
