Webb, 1994 In Search of Red Buddha

Nancy Lynch Street, 2004 Table of contents Stories My Folks Told Me Susanne Keller, 2016-06-16 This is a book of family stories of pioneers who immigrated to central Illinois from a variety of locations in Germany. They dared to leave the Old World and seek their fortune in the New World and strove every day of their lives to improve the quality of life for their children and descendants. They left a part of Europe, Germany, comprising a radius of about a hundred miles and settled in America in central Illinois within a radius of about twenty-five miles. Between 1845 and 1869 some came as families, some as individuals, but they all chose to inhabit the villages of Danvers, Minier, Petersburg, or the surrounding farmland. Of the pioneer generation, there were sixteen people whose stories are like little jewels embroidered onto the warp and woof of the historical tapestry of their time. The second, third, and fourth generation folks are likewise described within the context of their times and always leading in a straight line of lineage to Mary and Bill Oehler, the authors' parents. Every life has a story. It has been a pleasure to delineate these thirty-one lives.

I Yell Because I Care John Burton, Andy Furillo, 2025-09-04 Profane, irascible, and beloved California political icon John Burton has stood for nearly 60 years as the state Democratic Party's beating heart and one of its leading voices for social justice. As an assemblyman, congressman, state senator, party chairman, and street-fighting activist from San Francisco, Burton as a blue-collar liberal has been at the forefront of the mainstream Democratic movement in its battles on behalf of the poor, against a disastrous foreign war, and in favor of the environment and working people from even before he ran and won his first elected office in 1964. In this book, Burton shows how he fought and won on behalf of working people, the environment, people of color, the peace movement, and most of all, for the poor and underprivileged. Hard-nosed and acerbic, Burton still shared a common humanity with his political adversaries, most notably Ronald Reagan. Despite his battles with conservatives, he occasionally earned their votes to pass his own bills that created the first special education program for autistic children in California and reformed the state's confiscatory police asset seizure practices. His life's record provides a template to bridge the polarization of the current political era that has torn the country apart.

Abandoned Way Out West Diana Burbano, 2021-01-01 a play by Diana Burbano with additional music by Tom Shelton. Aquilina is a clever, courageous, and imaginative girl who leads a group of orphans in a recently abandoned wild west town. The town should belong to a kindly, if woolly-headed widow who can't find the deed. When three mysterious strangers appear to rescue the orphans and start a pie-making business, it looks like the orphans' luck has finally changed. But while the other kids take these kind strangers to heart, Aquilina remains mistrustful and starts to poke her nose into the truth. She discovers that two of the strangers belong to a vicious gang and are about to sell all the orphans into servitude and take the town for themselves. They've also kidnapped a young girl and threaten to do harm to the widow Aquilina. With the help of the young kidnapped girl, Aquilina tricks the strangers into revealing themselves and uses her wits and a lemon cream pie to outsmart the gang and save the town. Dramey. Full length 60-70 minutes. 15-35 actors, gender flexible casting.
