

Oh My God

Sometimes prayer requests are urgent. The Psalmist urges God to answer and make no tarrying about it. He affirms his need for God's help and his need to get help quick!

Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked, out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel men. Psalm 71:4.

In prayer we try out, do God for deliverance. "Deliver me, O my God, out of ..." expressed in faith sounds much different than ranting "OMG" in disbelief! So turn those moments when otherwise you would scream in disbelief into a moment with God where you express your trust in Him because you have given this care over to Him.

Deliver me, O God, out of cancer, drugs, alcohol, meth, atheism, socialism ... and the list goes on and on. But we must ask God to deliver us. Even if you are saved but caught in some kind of bondage to sin it is the right thing for you to ask God to deliver and save you.

Arise, O LORD; save me, O my God; for thou hast smitten all mine enemies upon the cheek bone; thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly. Psalm 3:7.

It's never wrong to ask God to save you. When the Bible talks about salvation it does not always refer to the salvation of souls in the new birth. On some occasions it means to be saved from an urgent problem, crisis or need or to be saved from a physical or national threat. You might already have received God's saving grace. But maybe you are facing persecution, trials, temptations and other issues. Ask God to save you specifically from that. That is what the Psalmist does in his prayers.

Don't be too proud to exclaim by faith: "Save me, O my God."

If you are lost and never have been saved, then you still need to call upon the name of the Lord and trust Jesus Christ. Why not stop what you are doing now and cry out "Save me, O my God." Ask Him to save your soul, repent of your sin and trust in Jesus Christ because it was for our sin that He died on the cross to pay the ransom to save our souls from everlasting hellfire. God raised His Son Jesus from death and so we also can be raised to a new life. Death – the consequence of sin – can be overturned. We will die physically but we will not stay dead. We receive a new body that is glorified and not ruined by sin. We receive a new nature when we get saved. We can reckon our old nature to be dead but we have to put on the new man that we have received.

O God, be not far from me: O my God, make haste for my help. Psalm 71:12.

Don't just yell "OMG" in disbelief. Pray like this verse and ask for God's help. He wants to be your help. We can't make it on our own. Trust in and ask for God's help. Many times I have experienced God's help as I quietly prayed. There is the outward prayer when your pray aloud in church prayer meetings or congregational meetings, family prayer, personal devotions. There is the inward prayer. We are commanded to pray evermore. We cannot pray aloud all the time. We pray silently in our heart as we are at work, in social gatherings, in groups, busy doing our work etc. In those times we can cry out for God to help us. We must believe that He IS (Heb. 11:6) and therefore is real, so that we can expect Him to answer.

C. H. Spurgeon Charles Haddon Spurgeon,1864 The Complete Works of C. H. Spurgeon, Volume 7 Spurgeon, Charles,2015-02-24 Volume 7 Sermons 348-426 Charles Spurgeon 19 June 1834-31 January 1892 is one of the church's most famous preachers and Christianity's foremost prolific writers Called the Prince of Preachers he was one of England's most notable ministers for most of the second half of the nineteenth century and he still remains highly influential among Christians of different denominations today His sermons have spread all over the world and his many printed works have been cherished classics for decades In his lifetime Spurgeon preached to more than 10 million people often up to ten times each week He was the pastor of the congregation of the New Park Street Chapel later the Metropolitan Tabernacle in London for 38 years He was an inexhaustible author of various kinds of works including sermons commentaries an autobiography as well as books on prayer devotionals magazines poetry hymns and more Spurgeon was known to produce powerful sermons of penetrating thought and divine inspiration and his oratory and writing skills held his audiences spellbound Many Christians have discovered Spurgeon's messages to be among the best in Christian literature

Edward Walford wrote in Old and New London Volume 6 1878 quoting an article from the Times regarding one of Spurgeon's meetings at Surrey Fancy a congregation consisting of 10 000 souls streaming into the hall mounting the galleries humming buzzing and swarming a mighty hive of bees eager to secure at first the best places and at last any place at all After waiting more than half an hour for if you wish to have a seat you must be there at least that space of time in advance Mr Spurgeon ascended his tribune To the hum and rush and trampling of men succeeded a low concentrated thrill and murmur of devotion which seemed to run at once like an electric current through the breast of every one present and by this magnetic chain the preacher held us fast bound for about two hours It is not my purpose to give a summary of his discourse It is enough to say of his voice that its power and volume are sufficient to reach every one in that vast assembly of his language that it is neither high flown nor homely of his style that it is at times familiar at times declamatory but always happy and often eloquent of his doctrine that neither the Calvinist nor the Baptist appears in the forefront of the battle which is waged by Mr Spurgeon with relentless animosity and with Gospel weapons against irreligion cant hypocrisy pride and those secret bosom sins which so easily beset a man in daily life and to sum up all in a word it is enough to say of the man himself that he impresses you with a perfect conviction of his sincerity More than a hundred years after his death Charles Spurgeon's legacy continues to effectively inspire the church around the world For this reason Delmarva Publications has chosen to republish the complete works of Charles Spurgeon
