My Hearts A Suitcase And Low Level Panic:

My Heart's a Suitcase & Low Level Panic Clare McIntyre, 1994 Two modern feminist classics by a writer who was amongst the extraordinary generation of British female playwrights to emerge in the 1980s McIntyre's first Royal Court play Low Level Panic is a deft and funny all female three hander set in a bathroom The play was directed in 1988 by Nancy Meckler with Caroline Quentin Lorraine Brunning and Elaine Hickmott in the principal roles The panic of the title is provoked by omnipresent pornography and a sexual assault on one of the characters But the play's originality and boldness lie in its treatment of the characters complex relationships with their own sexual fantasies their bodies and each other In McIntyre's next play My Heart's a Suitcase which had its premiere at the Royal Court in 1990 the sense of invasion felt by the two female central characters is dramatised by characters called Pest and Luggage who burst unpredictably through the walls of the seaside flat in which the play is set McIntyre's theatrical imagination is matched by an unsentimental but sympathetic portrayal of women trying to make sense of their place in a threatening and intrusive world Low Level Panic won the Samuel Beckett award while My Heart's a Suitcase earned McIntyre the Evening Standard's most promising playwright award with both plays quickly entering the feminist theatre canon David Edgar The Guardian Rage And Reason Heidi Stephenson, 2014-05-29 Women playwrights speak about their art and the theatre in this collection of interviews about a key decade of British drama Twenty leading contemporary dramatists discuss their work from the perspective of being both writers and women Each talks about the state of the theatre now the craft of playwrighting and the pressures of working within a male dominated environment The book also features Sarah Kane's very last public interview What I think is so exciting about the response to a number of the plays written by women in the last ten years is that they are popular with audiences because they've got this quality this energy and this culture that hasn't been seen much on stage before a humour sexiness and wit that's been missing Charlotte Keatley Rage And Reason Bloomsbury Publishing, 2014-05-29 Women playwrights speak about their art and the theatre in this collection of interviews about a key decade of British drama Twenty leading contemporary dramatists discuss their work from the perspective of being both writers and women Each talks about the state of the theatre now the craft of playwrighting and the pressures of working within a male dominated environment The book also features Sarah Kane's very last public interview What I think is so exciting about the response to a number of the plays written by women in the last ten years is that they are popular with audiences because they've got this quality this energy and this culture that hasn't been seen much on stage before a humour sexiness and wit that's been missing Charlotte Keatley Four Plays Kevin Elyot, 2004 A collection of Elyot's work to date Nick Hern Books Nick Hern Books (London), Nick Hern Books, Limited, 2006 My Heart's a Suitcase Clare McIntyre, 1990 This play about fear and materialistic longing compares an angrily impoverished waitress and a philosophical ceramics teacher in the early stages of multiple sclerosis who are sharing a borrowed run down seaside apartment for the weekend Visitors include the shopaholic
