My Life As A Search For The Meaning Of Mediumship:

My Life as a Search for the Meaning of Mediumship Eileen Jeanette Garrett, 1939 My Life as a Search for the Meaning of Mediumship Eileen J. Garrett, 1975 America's Early Montessorians Gerald L. Gutek, Patricia A.

Gutek, 2020-09-05 This book traces the early history of the Montessori movement in the United States through the lives and careers of four key American women Anne George Margaret Naumburg Helen Parkhurst and Adelia Pyle Caught up in the Montessori craze sweeping the United States in the Progressive era each played a significant role in the initial transference of Montessori education to America and its implementation from 1910 to 1920 Despite the continuing international recognition of Maria Montessori and the presence of Montessori schools world wide Montessori receives only cursory mention in the history of education especially by recognized historians in the field and in courses in professional education and teacher preparation The authors in seeking to fill this historical void integrate institutional history with analysis of the interplay and tensions between these four women to tell this educational story in an interesting and often dramatic way

Guide Wendy Stokes, 2012-09-29 There is no other how to book on the world market that describes the process of facilitating a psychic circle The author Wendy Stokes is a popular writer for the New Age magazine market and is an experienced trainer and healer The Interpretation of Cosmic and Mystical Experiences Robert Crookall, 1969 Albert Schweitzer said All the problems of religion ultimately go back to the one the experience I have of God within myself differs from knowledge concerning Him which I derive from the world In the world He is impersonal force within me He reveals Himself as Personality In his earlier books Dr Crookall dealt with the most important of psychical experiences namely out of the body experiences popularly called astral projections These are he says natural and normal to mankind This work is concerned with cosmic and mystical experiences the highest and most significant of which we are capable These are also natural and normal to mankind In the First Part a large number of experiences of at one ment are assembled and classified preparatory to a consideration of their incidence and nature Some people have at one with inanimate objects others with animate objects nature still others with people and many with God These various groups are shown to overlap there is says Crookall a complete and unbroken spectrum beginning with minerals and ending with God It is clear that at one ment with God is not as some writers have supposed essentially distinct from at one ment with nature On the basis of this the author agrees with Dr Raynor Johnson and the Revd Sidney Spencer the latter concluded Cosmic consciousness is the natural complement of the experience of union with God The Second Part of the book deals with descriptions of at one ment that have hitherto been entirely neglected by writers on this important subject namely those of communicators the supposed dead Some supposed dead communicators are shown to describe at one ment with inanimate objects others with nature with people and still others with God Again these groups overlap to form an unbroken spectrum of experience as in the experiences of the living a strong suggestion of surviving souls In point of fact Crookall notes that mystical experiences seem to be more frequent among the dead than the living This of course might have been expected Human mystical experiences are here considered for the first time in relation to the correlation suggested in the author s first book Dictionary Catalog of the Research Libraries of the New York Public Library, 1911-1971 New York Public Library.
