My Night At Mauds:

Éric Rohmer Antoine de Baecque, Noël Herpe, 2016-06-14 The director of twenty five films including My Night at Maud's 1969 which was nominated for a Best Picture Academy Award and the editor in chief of Cahiers du cinéma from 1957 to 1963 Éric Rohmer set the terms by which people watched made and thought about cinema for decades Such brilliance does not develop in a vacuum and Rohmer cultivated a fascinating network of friends colleagues and industry contacts that kept his outlook sharp and propelled his work forward Despite his privacy he cared deeply about politics religion culture and fostering a public appreciation of the medium he loved This exhaustive biography uses personal archives and interviews to enrich our knowledge of Rohmer's public achievements and lesser known interests and relations The filmmaker kept in close communication with his contemporaries and competitors François Truffaut Jean-Luc Godard Claude Chabrol and Jacques Rivette He held a paradoxical fascination with royalist politics the fate of the environment Catholicism classical music and the French nightclub scene and his films were regularly featured at New York and Los Angeles film festivals Despite an austere approach to life Rohmer had a voracious appetite for art culture and intellectual debate captured vividly in this definitive volume

The Planetary Clock Paul Giles, 2021-02-11 The theme of The Planetary Clock is the representation of time in postmodern culture and the way temporality as a global phenomenon manifests itself differently across an antipodean axis To trace postmodernism in an expansive spatial and temporal arc from its formal experimentation in the 1960s to environmental concerns in the twenty first century is to describe a richer and more complex version of this cultural phenomenon Exploring different scales of time from a Southern Hemisphere perspective with a special emphasis on issues of Indigeneity and the Anthropocene The Planetary Clock offers a wide ranging revisionist account of postmodernism reinterpreting literature film music and visual art of the post 1960 period within a planetary framework By bringing the culture of Australia and New Zealand into dialogue with other Western narratives it suggests how an antipodean impulse involving the transposition of the world into different spatial and temporal dimensions has long been an integral if generally occluded aspect of postmodernism Taking its title from a Florentine clock designed in 1510 to measure worldly time alongside the rotation of the planets The Planetary Clock ranges across well known American postmodernists John Barth Toni Morrison to more recent science fiction writers Octavia Butler Richard Powers while bringing the US tradition into juxtaposition with both its English Philip Larkin Ian McEwan and Australian Les Murray Alexis Wright counterparts By aligning cultural postmodernism with music Messiaen Ligeti Birtwistle the visual arts Hockney Blackman Fiona Hall and cinema Rohmer Haneke Tarantino this volume enlarges our understanding of global postmodernism for the twenty first century
