My Own Of Feelings:

Uniform Feelings Jessi Lee Jackson, 2022-05-09 In Uniform Feelings American studies scholar and abolitionist psychotherapist Jessi Lee Jackson reads policing as a set of emotional and relational practices in order to shed light on the persistence of police violence Jackson argues that psychological investments in U S police power emerge at various sites her counseling room manuals for addressing bias museum displays mortality statistics and memorial walls honoring fallen officers Drawing on queer feminist anticolonial and Black engagements with psychoanalysis to think through U S policing and bringing together a mix of clinical case studies autotheory and ethnographic research the book moves from the individual to the institutional Jackson begins with her work as a psychotherapist working across the spectrum of relationships to policing and then turns to interrogate carceral psychology the involvement of her profession in ongoing state violence Jackson orbits around two key questions how are our relationships shaped by proximity to state violence and how can our social worlds be transformed to challenge state sanctioned violence Jeffrey L. Cslc Scholl, 2010-01-01 Dance Movement Psychotherapy with People with Learning Disabilities Geoffery Unkovich, Céline Butté, Jacqueline Butler, 2017-05-12 This book provides an overview of dance movement psychotherapy for young people and adults with learning disabilities Contributors from a variety of backgrounds examine their work with clients from across the disabilities spectrum ranging from mild to complex needs The book chapters present theory and practice relating to the client group and subsequent therapy processes This comprises psychotherapeutic interventions dance movement interventions theoretical constructs case study material practitioner care and practitioner learning and development related to individual and group therapy work The logistics of a Dance Movement Psychotherapy intervention the intervention itself and the ripples of influence into the clients wider socio cultural context are discussed This stance speaks to current research and practice discourse in health and social care The book champions acceptance of difference and equality in the health and social care needs for people with learning disabilities whilst emphasising the importance of dance movement psychotherapy for people with non verbal communication Dance Movement Psychotherapy with People with Learning Disabilities Out of the Shadows into the Light will provide a practical and theoretical resource for practitioners and students of dance movement psychotherapy as well as allied health professionals service providers and carers Treating Sexual Shame Anne Stirling Hastings, 1998-01-01 In therapy as in the world at large sexuality is different from other issues because of the culturally imposed secrecy and shame that inhibit open non defended talk about it Anne Stirling Hastings Ph D who specializes in treating the overlapping sexual problems of abuse addiction and dysfunction encourages clinicians to recognize and overcome their own shame as a precondition to eliciting and advancing their clients awareness The Theory of Marginal Value Laurits Vilhelm Birck, 1922 The Making of Donald Trump David Cay Johnston, 2016-08-02 THE NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER that first revealed the Russia connection The culmination of nearly 30 years of reporting on Donald Trump this in depth report by Pulitzer Prize winning investigative reporter David Cay Johnston takes a revealingly close look at the mogul's rise to prominence and now ultimate power. Covering the long arc of Trump's career, Johnston tells the full story of how a boy from a quiet section of Queens, NY, would become an entirely new and complex breed of public figure. Trump is a man of great media savvy, entrepreneurial spirit, and political clout. Yet his career has been plagued by legal troubles and mounting controversy. From the origins of his family's fortune to his own too big to fail business empire, from his education and early career to his whirlwind and ultimately successful presidential bid, The Making of Donald Trump provides the fullest picture yet of Trump's extraordinary ascendancy. Love him or hate him, Trump's massive influence is undeniable and figures as diverse as Woody Guthrie, who wrote a scathing song about Trump's father, and Red Scare prosecutor Roy Cohn, mob bosses, and high rollers, as well as the average American voter, have all been pulled into his orbit. Drawing on decades of interviews, financial records, court documents, and public statements, David Cay Johnston, who has covered Trump longer and more closely than any other journalist working today, gives us the most in-depth look yet at the man who has shocked the world. Provides useful, vigorously reported overviews of Mr. Trump's life and career. Mr. Johnston, who has followed the real estate impresario for nearly three decades, offers a searing indictment of his business practices and creative accounting. Michiko Kakutani, The New York Times. David Cay Johnston has given us this year's must-read Trump book. Lawrence O'Donnell, MSNBC's The Last Word. Johnston devastatingly covers ground he broke open as a reporter on the Trump beat in Philadelphia and at The New York Times. The best of investigative reporting is brought to bear on a man who could potentially lead the free world. USA Today. Carefully fleshes out the details of Trump's known biography with solid documentation. Tampa Bay Times. Behind Closed Doors Erik de Haan, 2016-06-30 Behind Closed Doors is a groundbreaking exploration of executive coaching based on a wide range of real-life case studies of coaching in action. Despite the significant growth of executive coaching over the last 20 years, very few case studies are available which can be used to guide practising coaches and those who retain their services, and which reveal the reality of coaching in action. Yet when the curtain is pulled back, we can learn much about the impact of different interventions and different styles where change happens for the better, and where potential pitfalls may occur. Written by skilled and experienced practitioners and showing what happens inside coaching relationships, this book provides just such guidance. Pastoral Counseling Across Cultures David W. Augsburger, 1986-01-01 In this book, David Augsburger discusses the dynamics of pastoral care and counseling across cultural lines. Augsburger combines theology with global perspective and cultural sensitivity to posit an inclusive understanding of pastoral care. This book will be of great interest to pastoral counselors in both academic and practical contexts. Self-control Mary Brunton, 1839 Personal Process in Child-Centred Play Therapy David Le Vay, Elise Cuschieri, 2022-09-02 Personal Process in Child-Centred Play Therapy provides a very specific exploration of the play therapy process from the personal perspective of the play therapist. This volume examines the personal challenges, opportunities, losses and gains and numerous obstacles that one has to negotiate through the course of both training to become a play therapist and working as a qualified clinician with children who have complex life difficulties The book aims to offer a forum within which the role function and process of the personal within play therapy can be explored Bringing together a number of experienced play therapists the book shares often deeply personal accounts of their experience of training and clinical practice Chapters challenge the unspoken therapist taboos of shame childhood trauma vulnerability and grief shining a light on the more hidden areas of therapist experience Clinical issues around the unconscious process are also explored but once again from the personal position of the play therapist rather than the child With a unique and distinct perspective on the therapeutic process this book is specifically intended for both trainee and experienced play therapists but will be relevant to all psychotherapists involved in working therapeutically with children and young people
