My Phantom Husband:

My Phantom Husband Marie Darrieussecq, Esther Allen, 1999 A woman recounts the changes in her life and in the world around her when her husband disappears one night after leaving home to buy bread The Persistence of the Human Matthew Escobar, 2016-09-07 Recent narrative fiction and film increasingly exploit explore and thematize the embodied mind revealing the tenacity of a certain brand of humanism The presence of narratively based concepts of personal identity even in texts which explore posthuman possibilities is strong proof that our basic understanding of what it means to be human has despite appearances remained mostly unchanged This is so even though our perception of time has been greatly modified by the same technology which both interrupts and allows for the rearrangement of our experience of time at a rate and a level of ease which until recently had never been possible Basing his views on a long line of philosophers and literary theorists such as Paul Ricoeur Daniel Dennett and Francisco Varela Escobar maintains in The Persistence of the Human that narrative plays an essential role in the process of constituting and maintaining a sense of self It is narrative's effect on the embodied mind which gives it such force Narrative projects us into possible spaces shaping a temporary corporeality termed the meta body a hybrid shared by the lived body and an imagined corporeal sense The meta body is a secondary embodiment that we inhabit for however long our narrative immersion lasts something which in today's world may be a question of milliseconds or hours The more agreeable the meta body is the less happy we are upon being abruptly removed from it though the return is essential We want to be able to slip back and forth between this secondary embodiment and that of our lived body each move entails both forgetting and remembering different subject positions loss and recuperation being salient themes in the works which highlight this process The negotiation of the transfer between these states is shaped by culture and technology and this is something which is precisely in flux now as multiple ephemeral narrative immersion experiences are created by the different screens we come into contact with Rejected By My Alpha Husband's Dad Veliciah, 2025-08-26 What if I am fated to my husband's father for an off limits obsession I've never dared to pursue This is where my story begins I was destined to marry the Alpha's son to secure peace between our packs But the moment I stepped onto Yellowstone territory I felt it The pull The bond The truth I didn't ask for My fated mate isn't Adrian the charming future Alpha I was promised It's his father Alaric Thorn The brooding battle scarred former Alpha with silver eyes and a stare that undresses my soul He's older Married Off limits And he wants nothing to do with me But how do you forget the mate the Moon Goddess chose for you How do you marry his son and smile for the photos How do you stop your heart from betraying everything your mind tells you is right Alaric plans to reject me during the next full moon He says it will bring him clarity But I'm terrified of what it might tear apart Book 1 in Paranormal Shifter Age Gap Forbidden Romance Series Exclusive copyright owned by WhosNovel Wedding Cake for Breakfast Kim Perel, Wendy Sherman, 2012-05-01 Every woman plans for the big wedding day Few plan for the day after But once the cake has been cut the dress has been worn and the band has played its last song a marriage begins From the thrill and dread that comes with an unplanned pregnancy to catching up with an ex and having second thoughts Wedding Cake for Breakfast offers an intimate and often surprising look at that first year of marriage through the eyes and lives of 23 acclaimed women writers With humor and candor this collection takes readers behind closed doors for close ups and personal glimpses into the emotional joys and complications of creating a life together all the while blending families furniture and traditions for the very first time Gathered together in this hilarious and heartwarming anthology some of today s most renowned female voices including New York Times bestselling authors Susan Jane Gillman Joshilyn Jackson and Jill Kargman share their most touching and illuminating stories from the first 365 days of matrimony As You Were Saying Fabrice Rozié, Esther Allen, Guy Walter, 2007 In language as colorful and diverse as the stories being told these writers create worlds of imagination that reach beyond the cultural and political status quo Whether playful or serious tender or chilling topical or timeless As You Were Saying offers more than just a great collection of fiction It s a bold experiment in crossing international borders through art BOOK JACKET Behold an Animal Thangam Ravindranathan, 2020-01-15 As animals recede from our world what tale is being told by literature s creatures Behold an Animal Four Exorbitant Readings examines incongruous animals in the works of four major contemporary French writers an airborne horse in a novel by Jean Philippe Toussaint extinct orangutans in ric Chevillard stray dogs in Marie NDiaye vanishing bits of hedgehogs in Marie Darrieussecq Resisting naturalist assumptions that an animal in a story is simply literally or metaphorically an animal Thangam Ravindranathan understands it rather as the location of something missing The animal is a lure an unfinished figure fleeing the frame crossing bounds of period genre even medium and language Its flight traces an exorbitant self portrait in which thinking admits to its commerce with life and flesh It is in its animals at the same time unbearably real and exquisitely unreal that literature may today be closest to philosophy This book s primary focus is the contemporary French novel and continental philosophy In addition to Toussaint Chevillard NDiaye and Darrieussecq it engages the work of Jean de La Fontaine Eadweard Muybridge Edgar Allan Poe Lewis Carroll Samuel Beckett and Francis Ponge Myth and Violence in the Contemporary Female Text Sanja Bahun-Radunović, V. G. Julie Rajan, 2011 How women artists and activists across the globe employ myth to communicate personal and historical experiences of violence is the central concern of this innovative collection Rather than compartmentalizing women s artistic production within generic or geographical boundaries the volume encompasses literary criticism discussion of film and art artwork autobiographical accounts and pieces of original creative writing thereby promulgating an inclusive way to approach literature and the arts Women and the City in French Literature and Culture Siobhán McIlvanney, Gillian Ni Cheallaigh, 2019-05-15 Interdisciplinarity this book covers a range of media and genres from cinema to journalism to novels and a range of disciplines from feminism film studies Francophone studies history etc which allows readers to access a particularly extensive range of disciplines within one volume and to make informed comparisons Transhistoricism the chronological range of essays included in this journal from the medieval period through the nineteenth and twentieth centuries to the present demonstrates that women have always managed to access their own territory within the masculinised urban environment and this encourages readers to rethink previous gendered assumptions about women and the city Feminism the essays here form part of the wider movement in academic research to redress the gendered imbalance of perspectives on a range of subjects here allowing us to look anew at French and Francophone culture and history as part of this feminist rewriting Fantastic Metamorphoses, Other Worlds Marina Warner, 2002-10-10 Metamorphosis is a dynamic principle of creation vital to natural processes of generation and evolution growth and decay yet it also threatens personal identity if human beings are subject to a continual process of bodily transformation Shape shifting also belongs in the landscape of magic witchcraft and wonder and enlivens classical mythology early modern fairy tales and uncanny fictions of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries This collection of essays given as the Clarendon Lectures in English 2001 takes four dominant processes of metamorphosis Mutating Hatching Splitting and Doubling and explores their metaphorical power in the evocation of human personality Marina Warner traces this story against a background of historical encounters with different cultures especially with the Caribbean Beginning with Ovid's great poem The Metamorphoses as the founding text of the metamorphic tradition she takes us on a journey of exploration into the fantastic art of Hieronymous Bosch the legends of the Taino people the life cycle of the butterfly the myth of Leda and the Swan the genealogy of the Zombie the pantomime of Aladdin the haunting of doppelgangers the coming of photography and the late fiction of Lewis Carroll The Phantom's Opera Sadie Montgomery, 2007-10-22 Known only as Erik Costanzi to the patrons of the Teatro dell'Opera and immersed in the world of music the Phantom of the Opera believes his demons have been laid to rest When a fire breaks out in the Teatro Erik is thought to have died in the blaze But he wakes without memory and without an identity in the arms of his former lover Lucianna Fiortino Given a chance to keep Erik to herself Lucianna invents a fairy tale past for him She has him take the name of her dead husband not realizing that she thus condemns him to live a fiction that spirals further and further out of control Has Erik lost everything including himself Yet Meg cannot accept that her husband has died She knows that the stranger who watches in the wings and sends her roses must be Erik But someone else watches over both Erik and Meg waiting for another chance at revenge Only the Phantom can save them Book III in the Phoenix of the Opera series The Phantom's Opera continues the story begun in The Phoenix of the Opera and Out of the Darkness The Phantom's Journey
