the last two decades for the Navajo A History of Navajo Nation Education Wendy Shelly Greyeyes, 2022-03 On the heels of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Department of Din Education this important education history explains how the current Navajo educational system is a complex terrain of power relationships competing agendas and jurisdictional battles influenced by colonial pressures and tribal resistance In providing the historical roots to today's challenges Wendy Shelly Greyeyes clears the path and provides a go to reference to move discussions forward A History of the Chaco Navajos David M. Brugge, 1980 In the present report David Brugge a National Park Service anthropologist and a recognized authority on the Athabaskans of the Southwest carefully and meticulously details the history of the Navajo people of the Chaco area Brugge's account is fundamentally descriptive and consciously impartial Yet at times he presents us alternative views to the published accounts of historical events of the area offering the Navajo version as gleaned from interviews with the old people themselves Through White Men's Eyes J. Lee Correll, 1979 The Wind Won't Know Me Emily Benedek, 1992 Told in a sympathetic emotional and powerful way from an Indian perspective and largely in Indian voices this is a riveting account of the ongoing battle between the Navajos and the Hopis over two million acres of disputed Arizona land a disastrous story of United States intervention in Native American affairs 16 pages of photographs The Navajos Peter Iverson, 1976 A massive literature exists for the history and culture of American Indians but the quality of that literature is very uneven At its best it compares well with the finest scholarship and most interesting reading to be found anywhere At its worst it may take the form of malicious fabrication It is after all a history of hundreds if not thousands of human communities spread over an entire continent and enduring through millenia of pre Columbian years as well as the five centuries that Europeans have documented since 1492
