French Prose in 2000 ,2021-10-18 French Prose in 2000 stems in some important measure from work presented in September 1998 at the International Colloquium on French and Francophone Literature in the 1990 s held at Dalhousie University A good number of papers given at that time and since revisited in the light of exchanges join here certain others specifically written for the purposes of this book Together they constitute a wide ranging and modally varied interrogation of the current state of French and francophone prose writing its multifaceted manners its richly divergent fascinations its many theoretical or philosophical groundings The book thus ceaselessly moves its attention from fictional biography to the roman noir from the writing of Glissant and Chamoiseau to that of the tonnants voyageurs from the powerful discourse of women such as Chawaf or Cond Ernaux or Germain Sallenave or Kristeva to that of writers as diverse in their modes as Le Cl zio and Quignard Duras and Renaud Camus All chapters focus however in near exclusive measure on the prose production of the last ten or twelve years Harper's Bazaar ,1929 Proceedings and transactions of the Royal Society of Canada ,1889

The Feminist Encyclopedia of French Literature Eva M. Sartori, 1999-07-30 The earliest known literary productions by women living in Europe were probably written by French writers As early as the 12th century women troubadours in the south of France were writing poems French women continued writing through the ages their number increasing as education became more available to women of all classes And yet of the great number of works by women writers who preceded the current feminist movement very few have survived A few writers such as Marie de France George Sand and Simone de Beauvoir became part of the canon But critics mostly male had judged the works of only a few women writers worthy of recognition As part of the feminist move to reclaim women writers and to rethink literary history scholars in French literature began to take a new look at women writers who had been popular during their lifetimes but who had not been admitted into the canon This reference book provides extensive information about French women writers and the world in which they lived Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries for authors literary genres such as the novel poetry and the short story literary movements such as classicism realism and surrealism life cycle events particular to women such as menstruation and menopause events and institutions which affected women differently than men such as revolutions wars and laws on marriage divorce and education The volume spans French literature from the Middle Ages to the present and covers those writers who lived and worked mainly in France The entries are written by expert contributors and each includes bibliographical information The entries focus on each writer s awareness of how her gender shaped her outlook and opportunities on how categorizations structures and terms used to describe literary works have been defined for women and the ways in which women writers have responded to these definitions The volume begins with a feminist history of French literature and concludes with a selected general bibliography and a chronology of women writers
